

The Messenger.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second class mail matter.

New Advertisements. We Forget—D. C. Whitted. New Schedule—Clyde Line. Foreclosure Sale—A. M. Waddell.

Weather Conditions. (Reported by C. M. Strong, Local Forecaster.) U. S. Weather Bureau Office, June 15, 8 p. m.

A storm of decided energy is central over the central western valleys. Light storm areas noted over the Georgia and New England coasts.

LOCAL FORECAST. To 12 o'clock (mid.) Wednesday—Occasional thunderstorms; variable winds.

FOR THE STATE. Washington forecasts to 12 o'clock (mid.) Wednesday—Occasional thunderstorms; variable winds.

TEMPERATURE. 1896-8 a. m., 75 degrees; 8 p. m., 74 degrees; highest, 90 degrees; lowest, 62 degrees.

1897-8 a. m., 78 degrees; 8 p. m., 78 degrees; highest, 84 degrees; lowest, 76 degrees.

Miniature Almanac—Sun rises 4:41 a. m.; sets 7:18 p. m.; high water at Southport 8:44 a. m.; low water at Wilmington 10:21 p. m.

Moon's Phases—First quarter, 8th, 1:54 a. m.; full moon, 14th, 8:33 p. m.; last quarter, 21st, 6:15 p. m.; new moon, 29th, 4:47 p. m.; perigee, 13th, 10:04 a. m.; apogee, 25th, 6:54 a. m.

PITHY LOCALS. See new schedule of the Clyde Line Steamship Company.

The steamer Wilmington will not make her usual 2 o'clock trip, on account of the Lowry excursion from Mt. Airy.

A game of baseball was played at the O. A. N. grounds yesterday afternoon between the two clubs, B. B.'s and the Y. C.'s.

In Justice R. H. Bunting's court yesterday Dan Williams, colored, was charged with the larceny of a watch and disorderly conduct.

A communication was received from the board of aldermen notifying the board of audit and finance that Alderman Andrew J. Hewlett was elected mayor pro tem.

The resignation of Mr. Joe King, mayor's clerk, had been accepted by the board of aldermen.

Transmitting a copy of a "Dog ordinance" taxing male dogs $1 and female dogs $2, which was approved by the board of audit and finance.

The clerk submitted a statement of the examination of the books of the treasurer and tax collector for the month of May, showing:

Cash on hand May 1st $7,192.53 Receipts for month May $1,919.57 Total $9,112.10 Disbursements mo. May $5,997.93 Balance to June acc. $3,114.17

STATEMENT OF CASH DEPOSITS. Deposited Murchison & Co. $1,721.61 Atlantic Nat. Bank 1,716.82 Cash on hand $575.74 Total $4,014.17

Bills were audited and approved for current expenses to the amount of $423.19.

The board adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

Excursions Here Yesterday. An excursion from Rocky Point came in yesterday morning about 10 o'clock over the Wilmington and Weldon railroad.

Mr. George Campbell has as his family at the Seashore hotel, his mother Mrs. H. A. Campbell and Mrs. Gooch.

Some of the married members of the Carolina Yacht Club have proposed an old time frolic at the club house on Friday night, June 25th.

The young unmarried members of the club, who have heretofore borne all the expenses in the various entertainments at the club house, thereby contributing much pleasure to the older members.

The "Old Virginia Reel" and other square dances will be on the program, enabling the old moss backs to loosen their time worn joints to the inspiring music of Professor Cripple Dick's orchestra.

Mr. E. D. Wessell hurt. Yesterday morning about 11:30 o'clock, as a street car was coming down Princess street, Mr. E. D. Wessell got off while the car was in motion and received a severe fall.

Mr. E. D. Wessell was taken up and carried to the office of Dr. McMillan, where he was given attention. He was badly hurt, but no bones were broken.

Mr. E. D. Wessell was afterwards removed to the city hospital. At last accounts he was resting fairly well.

CAMPBELL'S HOTEL.

The Formal Opening of the "Seashore" Last Evening—A Magnificent Dinner, Served by the Staff and Banding.

Mr. George Campbell, proprietor of the elegant new "Seashore Hotel" on Wrightsville Beach, had the formal opening of the house last evening.

About two hundred people went down on the 2:30 p. m. train, others at 5:10 p. m., and quite a number at 7:15 p. m.

Mr. Campbell received his visitors with open handed hospitality, and served a magnificent dinner from 7 to 12 o'clock.

The service was excellent and the quality and elaborateness of the menu may be judged from the following bill:

Little Neck Clams. Pickles. Olives. Consomme. Clear. Clam Chowder. Stuffed Tomatoes. Cucumbers. Baked Summer Trout. Parsley Sauce. The Yummies. Parisienne. Boiled Flanks of Beef. Sauce Piquant. Ribs of Prime Beef. Bouillon Gravy. Saddle of Spring Lamb. Mint Sauce.

Fried Chicken, a la Maryland. A petit pain. Clam Fritters. Soft Shell Crabs, a la Canapes. Farina Cakes, au Jelly. Crab, Mince and Mayonnaise. Potatoe Plain, in Butter. Corn on Cob. Steamed Rice, Asparagus, Cream Sauce. Strawberry Ice Cream. Lemon Meringue. Beach Pie. Fruit Cake. Pound Cake. Jelly Cake. Macaroni. Mixed Nuts. Layer Raisins. Tea. Cofe Noir.

At 9 p. m. the floor of the spacious and airy dining room was waxed, and the hours till train time were whittled away in the mazes of the dance.

Professor Miller's orchestra played for the dancing. They also furnished music during the afternoon, and while the dinner was in progress.

Everybody was delighted with the new hotel. It is charmingly situated and is the best appointed establishment on the south Atlantic coast.

We have heretofore mentioned the dimensions of the building, and it is only necessary now to mention some of its features.

It is located on the most eligible part of the beach, with its front looking out upon the beautiful blue ocean that dashes its surf almost to the edge of the broad piazzas of the hotel.

The sound from the waves crashing in a stone's throw, giving an enchanting view of the thousands of beach channels that thread their way among the green islands of marsh.

The channel to Wrightsville is directly in front of the hotel, and during these beautiful high June tides there is a solid sheet of water a mile and a half across to Wrightsville.

The Wilmington Seacoast railroad runs a few feet from the door on the south side of the hotel, and ten regular trains a day, besides special and excursion trains, roll by with their great crowds of beach goers.

Nearly a third of a mile of broad piazzas extend clear around the hotel, and with hundreds of big arm rocking chairs at the convenience of the guests, the spot is an ideal one for watching the sun set, and listening to the glorious romping breakers, roaring the solution, never ceasing roar of old ocean.

The office is in a spacious rotunda that opens on both the ocean and sound ways both ways. There is a neat ladies' waiting room to the south of the rotunda, and in it is an open fire place that gives it a cozy, home-like appearance.

In the hall to the west of the rotunda is an elegant dining room 42 feet wide and 104 feet long. Scores of windows open the dining room up to a magnificent view of the ocean and it can be truly said that there is no dining room to equal it on the Atlantic coast.

Mr. Campbell has made a special feature of fine silverware and linens, and the appointments in every respect are superior in every respect.

On the second floor, there are halls running both ways, with spacious recesses where the guests can gather in a sociable way.

There is also a large balcony in front of the second story, where the guests can sit and watch the bathers sporting themselves in the surf. There are also broad halls on the third floor, and a set of stairs connecting with the most modern improvements.

There are delightful rooms on all three floors, and two hundred guests can be comfortably taken care of.

The hotel is fitted with electric bells throughout, and all the floors are supplied with wholesome fresh water from the artesian well on the hammocks. The kitchen, saloon, barbershop and other conveniences make a complete modern resort hotel.

The house is surmounted by a cupola, which is a flag staff on its top, and two beautiful state and national flags fly together, the hotel is a credit to our delightful seaside resort, and its proportions and equipments will astonish all visitors when they will be remembered that the first dirt was thrown for its foundations on the 10th of April and that it was completed June 10th—in exactly sixty days.

Messrs. J. P. Ross & Co., of Mt. Airy, gave their annual excursion from Mt. Airy to this city yesterday over the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway. The train left Mt. Airy at 9 a. m. and got here at 8 o'clock last evening, bringing about 200 people.

They will go out on the ocean today, leaving here at 9 o'clock this morning on the steamer Wilmington, New Bern and Norfolk, and returning about 7 p. m. Tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock they will go down to Ocean View. They will return to the city about 7 p. m. The excursion train will leave here tomorrow night about 7:30 o'clock for Mt. Airy.

Professor Fancull Court-Married. Washington, June 15.—The court martial which tried Professor Fancull, leader of the marine band, on charges growing out of his refusal to play certain military music, has been adjourned until day by Lieutenant Draper, of the marine band, who has found him guilty of disobedience of orders and has recommended his dismissal.

Mr. Angell Accepted by the Porte. Washington, June 15.—A cablegram received at the state department from Constantinople this afternoon states that the sultan has issued an irade announcing the acceptance of Dr. Angell as minister from the United States, and Mr. Terrell has accordingly started for home.

The President's Return. Washington, June 15.—The president and party arrived this morning at 7:30 o'clock a. m., schedule time, over the Southern railway. The president was driven at once to the White House, Mr. McKinley having suffered all from the fatigue of the night's journey and was in his office soon after 9 a. m.

Take JOHNSON'S CHILL & FEVER TONIC. The Record Reduced. Elmira, N. Y., June 15.—Eddie Bald was the favorite in the New York state League of the American Wheelmen circuit meeting today. He won the mile open after a hot race with Tom Cooper and Jimmie.

Appointments for Visitation by the Bishop of East Carolina. June 17th, Thursday, M. F. Holy Innocence, Avoca. June 20th, Sunday 1st after Trinity, M. P. St. Luke's, Washington County; St. Andrew, Roper. June 23rd, Wednesday, M. P. St. Andrew's, Columbia. June 25th, Friday 2nd after Trinity, M. P. St. David's, Seppunburg. June 28th, Sunday 3rd after Trinity, M. P. St. James, Hainin. June 30th, Wednesday, M. P. St. Augustine, Parkersburg. July 1st, Thursday, M. P. Yenterville. July 2nd, Friday, Com. St. Thomas, Bath. July 3rd, Saturday 2nd after Trinity, M. P. St. John's, Durham's creek. July 4th, Sunday, E. P. Chapel of the Cross, Aurora.

Seashore Hotel.

His chief clerk is Mr. E. A. Smith, a clever young gentleman, and his steward is Mr. R. J. Lewis, who is known in many southern cities as one of the best caterers in this country.

The Messenger predicts for the "Seashore" great popularity and success, and we hope to see the hotel doubled before many seasons go by.

Resident Insurance Agent's Law. In view of the fact that the last legislative session passed what is known in other states as the "Resident Agents' Law" the following action by the insurance superintendent of Missouri, which state is a member of the National Association of Insurance to Law, several provisions have already been arrested for violation of the law and the secretary of state has announced that he intends to prosecute to the full extent of the law all such persons.

The following is taken from the Missouri Commercial and Commercial Bulletin, of June 14th. The insurance department of Missouri has issued the following circular:

To Agents of Authorized Insurance Companies: I have advice that insurance companies, not licensed to transact business in this state, are soliciting agents and letters and policies of insurance on property located in this state. I desire to call your attention to an act of the legislature, approved March 11, 1897, which will go into effect June 20th next, and which is known as the "Resident Agents' Law," which stipulates how excess insurance may be legally obtained in this state. This law prohibits any person from acting as agent or placing insurance in unauthorized companies. The object of this law is to protect the property owners as well as the rights of the legitimately licensed insurance companies. Licensed agents and citizens, generally, of the Missouri state, are notified of this department of any violations of this law coming to their knowledge, and that any such violations may be instituted under section 5917 of the Revised Statutes of 1889.

Most of the clandestine insurance is conducted in the Missouri state, and the fact that the giving of business to unauthorized companies, is a contribution to the prosperity of corporations who have no interest in the welfare of the state, who pay no taxes and no license, and whose work here is in deliberate violation of the law, and who are made for the protection of the people of Missouri. Very respectfully, E. D. T. OBEAR, Superintendent.

The Trial of Shriver Begun. Washington, June 15.—The trial of John S. Shriver, correspondent of the New York Mail and Express, for the fourth of the recant witnesses before the senate sugar investigating committee of 1894, began before Judge Bradley this morning.

Mr. Shriver was represented by the senior partner of New York, and Judge Jere Wilson, of this city. Mr. E. J. Edwards, New York correspondent of the Evening Post, whose trial will follow that of Mr. Shriver, was in the court room, as were a number of senators and other prominent officials supposed to testify in the case.

After a number of witnesses had been examined, the court for the defense moved to direct a verdict of not guilty on the following grounds: First, for committing no offense; second, for jurisdiction to interrogate the defendant concerning the article published in the Mail and Express; second, there being no evidence in the case; and third, the article published in the Mail and Express is not called upon to answer the question he is charged in the indictment with having refused to answer to the defendant was privileged not to disclose the name of his informant.

Judge Dittmerhoff did not conclude his argument in the morning to order an acquittal when the court adjourned for the day.

A Loving Cup Presented the Texas. Newport News, Va., June 15.—A delegation numbering 164 people and representing the numerous social clubs of Richmond, arrived at Old Point Comfort at a little after 4 o'clock this morning on a special train, their mission being to present the officers of the battleship Texas with a handsome and expensive silver loving cup.

The train was in charge of John D. Potts, assistant passenger agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

Lunch was served at the Chamberlain hotel, after which the Texas was visited. At 8 o'clock the presentation exercises were held in the dining hall of the Chamberlain. President W. B. Trigg, of the Richmond locomotive works presided. Rev. Dr. Trigg, pastor of the Holy Trinity church, of Richmond, offered prayer. The formal presentation was made by Mr. Vincent Newton, and the cup was received by Passed Assistant Engineer Bennett, in the absence of Captain Wiss.

Professionalism. Washington, June 15.—The court martial which tried Professor Fancull, leader of the marine band, on charges growing out of his refusal to play certain military music, has been adjourned until day by Lieutenant Draper, of the marine band, who has found him guilty of disobedience of orders and has recommended his dismissal.

Mr. Angell Accepted by the Porte. Washington, June 15.—A cablegram received at the state department from Constantinople this afternoon states that the sultan has issued an irade announcing the acceptance of Dr. Angell as minister from the United States, and Mr. Terrell has accordingly started for home.

The President's Return. Washington, June 15.—The president and party arrived this morning at 7:30 o'clock a. m., schedule time, over the Southern railway. The president was driven at once to the White House, Mr. McKinley having suffered all from the fatigue of the night's journey and was in his office soon after 9 a. m.

Take JOHNSON'S CHILL & FEVER TONIC. The Record Reduced. Elmira, N. Y., June 15.—Eddie Bald was the favorite in the New York state League of the American Wheelmen circuit meeting today. He won the mile open after a hot race with Tom Cooper and Jimmie.

Appointments for Visitation by the Bishop of East Carolina. June 17th, Thursday, M. F. Holy Innocence, Avoca. June 20th, Sunday 1st after Trinity, M. P. St. Luke's, Washington County; St. Andrew, Roper. June 23rd, Wednesday, M. P. St. Andrew's, Columbia. June 25th, Friday 2nd after Trinity, M. P. St. David's, Seppunburg. June 28th, Sunday 3rd after Trinity, M. P. St. James, Hainin. June 30th, Wednesday, M. P. St. Augustine, Parkersburg. July 1st, Thursday, M. P. Yenterville. July 2nd, Friday, Com. St. Thomas, Bath. July 3rd, Saturday 2nd after Trinity, M. P. St. John's, Durham's creek. July 4th, Sunday, E. P. Chapel of the Cross, Aurora.

The Belgian Election.

The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early to forecast the result.

Amsterdam, June 15.—The result of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Kingdom of Belgium, held on the 10th inst., has been as follows: The orthodox Catholics and thirteen liberal Protestants were necessary. The candidates returned that twelve different programmes and it was expected that the Catholics would have a majority. A strict adherence to their principle of coalition having given them an advantage over liberals, the result was as yet it is too early