"At 7 o'clock in the morning of July 18, the vessels on blockade duty in this vicinity, the Wilmington, Helena, Scorpion, Hist, Hornet, Wampatuck and Osceola, approached the harbor of Manzanillo from the westward. At 7:30 o'clock the Wilmington and the Helena entered the northern channel toward the city, the Scorpion and the Osceola the mid-channel and the Hist, Hernet and Wampatuck, the south channel, the movement of the 'vessels being so timed as to bring them within effective range of the shipping at about the same moment.

At 7:50 o'clock fire was opened o the shipping and after a deliberate fire lasting about two and a half hours, three Spanish transports, El. IMPERATIVE ORDERS Issued by the President to Sampson Cease Delay in Furnishing Convoy to Miles' Expedition-A Heavy Squad; ron to be Sent.

Washington, July 21 .- President Mo Kinley was thoroughly aroused ove the delay which occurred in the startof General Miles and the expedition under his command for Porto Rigo, For several days General Miles and his troops were aboard their transports at Playa del Este awaiting the naval convoy which was to be fur nished by Admiral Sampson. The troops had been sweltering in the rowded ships under the broiling heat tropical sun, while General Miles had been chaffing under what he be lieved to be inexcusable delay and was bombarding the war department with dispatches using the strongest terms that the navy department be hurried in its preparations for the expedition Instructions of the most positive nature had been cabled to Admiral Sampson to supply the necessary convoys for General Miles' transports; but, notwithstanding these instructions, Sampson proceeded with his preparations for the expedition with a deliberation that exasperated the officials

The president, who has been giving the Porto Rican expedition his personal attention, as he has given, indeed, all phases of the war, finally became deeply concerned lest the part of the Porto Rican expedition already sailed from this country should arrive at the point of rendezvous in advance of General Miles. It is feared that if General Wilson's command, which sailed yesterday from Charleston should arrive in advance of General Miles and the naval convoys, serious danger and possibly disaster might result, as General Wilson's ships are absolutely without protec-

Rilly appreciating these facts and reafzing the becessity for prompt action in getting General Miles and his in offensive power; these are the Glou expadition started, President McKinley this morning issued personal orders through the secretary of the navy proceed immediately to Porto Rco with will do every hing possible the cable in cases of extreme emergency. Dixie were also added this morning, and he has probably started.' This statement shows that General Miles will be backed in effecting his landing on Porto Rican soil by a strong squadron of the navy. In adlition to the vessels named, it is offiially admitted for the first time that the powerful monitors Terror, Amphtrite and Puritan which have been at Key West are under orders to proeed to Porto Rico to assist in the reduction of the Spanish forces there. It is known, also, to be not unlikelyindeed, it is probable—that still another essel of Admiral Sampson's fleet will participate in the reduction of the fortifications of San Juan. This was indicated clearly by Secretary Long's statement this fternoon concerning the sailing of Commodore Watson's eastern squadron to Spain. In the course of that statement the secretary said the eastern squadron would be "sent to Spain later, when the Porto Rican campaign permits. without boasting, simply reports, like The Movement of the First Corps to Bethe others that have gone before that affairs are quiet and satisfactory. The gin Today To Join Miles Expedition Chickamauga National Park, July 21.—Tonight it looks as if at least two of Dewey's diplomatic abilities as th thirds of the troops at Camp Thomas country has for his naval skill and ourage and the best evidence of this are to be ordered to the front as an s that it has not found it necessary up expeditionary force to go to Porto o this point to interfere in any way either to protect or to amend his Rico under General Brooke.

The movement will begin tomorrow morning, when the Second brigade of the First Corps commanded by Brigadier General Haines, will leave for Newport News. This brigade received marching orders a few minutes before 6 o'clock this evening. The regiment of the brigade are the Fourth Ohio, Third Illinois, and Fourth Pennment, which was not altogether at ease sylvania. The order to move was greeted with the wildest enthusiasm. This brigade is the only organization that will leave the park tomorrow, but if there is not a sudden change in the plans as they are understood here tonight, the entire First corps will follow, the different brigades going out as rapidly as transportation can be arranged. But for lack of transportation, the reserve ambulance company, four batteries of light artillery and the signal corps would have been ordered out tomorrow. They will, however, follow not later than Saturday and by that time the arrangements will have been completed for a steady movement day by day until the entire force is out. While General Brooke in person had nothing to give out, for publication, one of the most prominent and best officers of the First corps admitted that it was the purpose to move the entire corps, which numbers about $6,000 officers and men. It is definitely known tonight when-General Brooke and his staff will start. General Brooke will be sucseeded in command at Camp Thomas by Major General J. F. Wade, who is at present in command of the Third

Fear of Watson Stampeding Spanlards London, July 22 - A dispatch to The Standard from Corunna gives a livey account of the stampede into the country, owing to the fears of the approaching American squadron The local papers there have frightened the people so much that the captain general summoned the editors and threatened them all with imprisonment if they printed another word about Commodore Watson's squadron. The exodus, however, shows no sign of diminishing.
