

THE ANNEXATION.

The Closing Act in the Annexation of These Islands of the Pacific.

FORMAL POSSESSION TAKEN

By Representatives of the United States--Hawaii National Air Played for Last Time and the Flag Lowered--The Stars and Stripes Raised in Its Place While the "Star Spangled Banner" is Played and Our National Salute Fired.

President Dole Relinquishes the Territory to Minister Sewell.

San Francisco, August 22--The steamer Belknap this evening brought the following--

Honolulu, August 22--Precisely at 3 minutes to twelve o'clock today the Hawaiian flag descended from the flagstaffs on all the government buildings and exactly at five minutes to the same hour the stars and stripes floated to the tropical breeze from every official flagstaff.

The ceremony of today was a most impressive one. To hear the strains of "Hawaii Pono" for the last time as a national anthem; to hear the bright Hawaiian flag and stripes float from their position and to witness the emotion of many who had been born under it and had lived their lives under it, was solemn, but then came the bugle call for the raising of Old Glory and the strains of "Star Spangled Banner" broke forth and the banner was unfurled to the breeze.

Then the chorus broke forth and as the strains of "Hawaii Pono" were sung, the emotion of many who had been born under it and had lived their lives under it, was solemn, but then came the bugle call for the raising of Old Glory and the strains of "Star Spangled Banner" broke forth and the banner was unfurled to the breeze.

On a Sad Mission Mrs. John J. Fowler left for Sumter, S. C., yesterday afternoon bound on a sad mission. She goes to attend the bedside of her youngest brother, Master Charles Bultman, who is very ill. The young lad's sickness was brought on through exhaustion over a long bicycle ride.

Master Bultman spent some time at Carolina Beach a short while ago in the hope of recovering his lost health. The sad news of his dangerous illness was conveyed to Mrs. Fowler's husband, ex-Mayor Fowler, by telegram Sunday.

Negro Deserter Sent Back The negro army deserter, Willie Bolden, was sent back to Fort Macon yesterday afternoon, in charge of one of the negro captains. Bolden when taken out of the guard house to be escorted to the train was quite ugly and snore he would not go with police officers ornamenting his wrists. He, however, found that his word amounted to naught, as Police Sergeant Hewitt and his assistants were with him, and then, together with Policeman Murray, took him to the train.

Death of Mrs. W. Holden The death of Mrs. Mary Ann Holden, wife of Mr. W. Holden, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and will bring sadness to a large circle of friends. She has been in bad health for some time and had been sorrowfully looked for by the family and friends.

Mrs. Holden was in the 69th year of her age and many years has been a faithful member of the First Baptist church. Her death deeply grieves her husband, three sons and a daughter, and sincere sympathy goes out to them in their sorrow. Her children are Messrs. Alex. S. Holden, Herbert K. Holden, William L. Holden, and Mrs. Ruth Ballinger, all of this city.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from the family residence, 814 Grace street, and the interment will be at Bellevue cemetery.

Laid to Rest An exceedingly sad occasion was the funeral of Miss Bessie C. Hill Sunday morning at 5 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. There was a large attendance of sorrowing relatives and friends including scores of the schoolmates of the lamented young lady. She was much beloved by her young friends and the grief manifested by those who knew and esteemed the departed, was tender and touching.

Will Take It in Their Own Hands With reference to the article under the head of "Will Take It in Their Own Hands," which appeared in The Messenger Saturday, Mr. W. H. Shaw, deputy sheriff of duty in the office of sheriff and acting for him, writes as follows: "I have no objection to Mr. H. Harris and Mr. Bollyan Harris, but that the deputations was written and given to ex-Mayor Harris when applied for on the forenoon of the 18th of August."

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION READ. Minister Sewell then read a proclamation stating that President McKinley directs that the civil, judicial and military powers of the government shall continue to be exercised by the officers of the republic of Hawaii. All such officers will be required to take an oath of allegiance to the United States government.

The power of military force to be used by the officers of the republic of Hawaii. All such officers will be required to take an oath of allegiance to the United States government. The municipal legislation of Hawaii and the existing customs regulations will practically remain in force until

CHURCH NOTES

Two Fine Sermons by Rev. Mr. Jurney Unique Subject by Rev. J. W. Kramer

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. A. P. Tyler, pastor of Grace M. E. church, who is spending a while at Greensboro with his family, the Rev. N. M. Jurney, of Mt. Olive, supplied the pulpit at that church Sunday morning and evening.

There was splendid music by the choir and Mr. Jurney preached two remarkably fine sermons. Both sermons carried conviction and they have been highly spoken of by all who heard their earnest, able and eloquent ministrations. In the morning his sermon impressed upon the congregation the importance of exerting influence for the cause of Christ and Christian living by setting good examples by our conduct as members of the church and followers of Christ. At night he preached an excellent sermon especially beneficial to young men. His sermon was an appeal to young men to live uprightly, avoid pitfalls and excesses and impressing upon them the importance of the Christian life.

Mr. Jurney's sermons contained such valuable instruction and advice and were so forcibly presented that they had their effect in good to all his hearers, and especially those desiring to live exemplary Christian lives.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies the national guard was marched to the parade grounds where Minister Cooper administered the oath of allegiance to Colonel Fisher. The colonel then administered it to his officers and the members of the guard.

General Brooke Left in Command--The Spanish Governor General Completing Arrangements for the Evacuation of Porto Rico.

Porto Rico, August 21--Afternoon. General Miles has decided to leave for Washington in a few days, possibly tomorrow. He will turn over his command to General Brooke, who is expected to reach here tomorrow for a conference.

General Miles has arranged matters generally with Captain General Macias preparatory to the meeting of the plenipotentiary at San Juan. General Macias, while maintaining his outposts, is steadily retiring his forces to the capital, preparatory to their embarkation.

All that will remain for the commission to do, General Miles says, will be to secure an inventory of government property transferred to the Americans and to give receipts to the Spanish authorities.

General Miles has shown the best spirit. He is anxious to cooperate, bringing about an evacuation of the island as soon as possible and is placing no obstacles in the way of the volunteers.
