ager empress) who has ordered the ministers to deliver to her, in future, their official reports. It is difficult to obtain reliable information at the palace in regard to the proceeding, but the recent reformatory edicts probably caused the change, While the emperor was subservient and a mere figurehead, the dowager empress permitted him to remain in peace, but as soon as he attempted to act on his own initiative his practical deposition was the result. His principal advisor, Hang Yumoi, the Cantonese reformer, fled, in spite of the vigorous attempts made to arrest him, and it is said he is now on his way to Shanghai. The effect of the change must be great. In all probability Li Hung Chang will be reinstated in power and Japanese statesman recently came to Pekin with the object of trying lefensive, between Japan and China. The new order of things will unloubtedly prejudice British interests edict will give the full reasons for the edict is not yet obtainable, but it is in effect that the emperor requested the dowager empress to assume power,
