Philippines Opposed to Independence Gaining Ascendency Among Insurgents.

GEN. OTIS MAKES NO PROMISES

He is Enforcing the Law--Report of a Naval Engagement With the Insurgents Not Believed--An Attempt of the Spanish to Show Our Inability to Hold More Than the City of Manila.

The Report of the Wainwright Board--Positions of the Warships at Seven Stages of the Battle of Santiago.

Washington, October 20--The war department today posted the following bulletin, under date of yesterday: "General Otis cables the war department that the situation in Luzon is somewhat improved. The influence of Filipino education and property, not desiring an independent government, but hostile to Spain, is gaining ascendancy in the revolutionary councils. I am promising nothing, but am enforcing the law. The complications seriously affect the commerce and diminish revenue. Affairs are progressing favorably, though the sick report is increasing, owing mostly to carelessness of the enlisted men. Health of the officers is good. Fever is decreasing. Intestinal troubles are about the same. During the month there were twenty-eight deaths--eight smallpox, eight typhoid fever, five malaria and intestinal complaints, three accidental. General Otis called considerably more than the above, but the department does not deem it advisable to make the other portions of the dispatch public, because of its bearing upon the peace negotiations. It contains suggestions made by General Otis regarding the disposition of the Philippines and also information about the insurgents. The sensational Spanish report of a naval battle between Admiral Dewey's fleet and the insurgents' navy in the Philippines, is received with absolute incredulity in both the navy and war departments. If there has been any recent action, Admiral Dewey would mention it, and neither General Otis nor United States Consul Wildman have regarded it as worthy of notice. It is believed that the navy department that the Spanish authorities reported to the seizure of the little steamer Abby by the McCulloch on September 23rd last. The steamer was of American register, though formerly known as the Pacific. It was reported to Admiral Dewey that she was bringing arms and supplies of war to the insurgents and he sent the McCulloch to stop this movement, but when the cutter found the Abby in Batangas bay, the latter vessel had handed her cargo of arms, and the insurgents refused to give them up. Thereupon the Abby was seized and taken by the McCulloch to Manila. This affair could not be identified with the name of a naval engagement and Admiral Dewey in reporting the seizure of the navy department made little of it. It is just possible that there have been some similar incidents, not deemed worthy of report, in the islands of Cebu or Panay, as it has been reported that some insurgent vessels have been carrying arms to spread the insurrection to those islands, and Dewey would have repressed them, but the reports to the navy department show that it is absurd to speak of an insurgent navy seriously. For the entire force consists of a few schooners and one or two little coasting steamers, all put together not being a match for the least of the vessels under Dewey's command. The explanation of the admiral's interference with these vessels is not deemed to be a desire on his part to maintain the status quo in the Philippines pending the conclusion of the peace commission's work in Paris. It is said there that it is not surprising that the Spanish cabinet is trying to make a point of any incident that can be twisted into a demonstration of actual hostilities between the occupying American forces in the Philippines and the insurgents, for that would make to insure all the contention they are sure to put forward when the Philippines come under consideration by the Paris commission and that the United States forces have not been able to take possession of territory outside of Manila proper. Under the rules of international law such a point would be entitled to serious consideration in determining what disposition should be made of the territory.

REPORT OF THE WAINWRIGHT BOARD. The report of the Wainwright Board. The Royal is the highest quality of baking powder known. Actual tests show it gives one-third further than any of its kind.

Position No. 1--9:30 a. m. When the Maria Teresa came out of the harbor the New York was nine miles east of Morro, the Brooklyn was three miles southwest of Morro, being two and two-tenths miles from the shore at the mouth of the harbor. The Texas was three-tenths of a mile east of the Brooklyn. The Iowa one and one-tenth miles south of the Brooklyn and the Oregon a half mile east of the Brooklyn. The Indiana was three miles directly south of Morro. The Indiana was two and two-tenths miles southwest of Morro and the Gloucester one and one-tenth miles almost directly north of the Indiana and a mile and four-tenths from Morro. Position No. 2--9:50 a. m. When the Pluton came out, all the Spanish vessels had come out of the harbor and their positions were: Maria Teresa two and one-half miles southwest of Morro, the Vizcaya, Colon and Oquendo, in the order named behind the Teresa, and from four-tenths to half a mile apart. The positions of the American vessels were as follows: The New York had moved up two and one-tenth miles westward. The Brooklyn had started north, swerved to the northeast and toward the mouth of the harbor, and was turning east on the swing she made to the right and around the westward course. She was three-tenths of a mile from the Vizcaya at Position No. 2. The Texas went east at a mile, swinging toward the harbor and turning to the left she is at Position No. 2, a half mile directly north of her first position. The Iowa moved by a varying course northwest and was a mile and four-tenths from the Vizcaya. The Oregon being two and one-tenths miles behind the Iowa, the Indiana three and one-tenth behind the Iowa. The Gloucester's first start was a half mile directly away from the Vizcaya, and swinging to the right had advanced toward the Spanish ships, being one and seven-tenths miles from the nearest, the Oquendo. Position No. 3--10:15 a. m. The Maria Teresa turned to run ashore. She was five and one-half miles from Morro. The Brooklyn was two and three-tenths miles westward from the Teresa, the Oquendo one and two-tenths miles and the Colon one and four-tenths miles in advance of the Teresa. The American vessels were as follows: The New York had come within three miles of Morro, being southeast of that point. The Brooklyn had made her swing to the westward, crossing the Vizcaya and was two and one-half miles south and west of the Teresa and one and three-tenths miles directly south of the Colon, one and one-tenth miles and a little behind the Vizcaya. The Indiana and three-tenths miles in advance of the Oquendo. The Texas was one and two-tenths miles from the Teresa a little behind her and one and four-tenths miles from and behind the next Spanish ship, the Oquendo. The Iowa, was one and one-tenth miles from the Teresa and a little closer in, but not quite as far west as the Texas. The Texas and Iowa being a little further inshore than the Texas and little further than the Iowa. She was in advance of the Teresa, being one and seven-tenths miles from that vessel, six-tenths of a mile from and directly in the line of the Oquendo, seven-tenths of a mile from the Colon and one and two-tenths miles behind the Vizcaya. The Indiana was two miles from the Texas and two and six-tenths miles from the Oquendo, the nearest Spanish vessel. The Gloucester had moved up six-tenths of a mile and just a mile directly south of Morro. Position No. 4--10:20 a. m. The Oquendo turned to run ashore. One-fifth minutes elapsed from Position No. 3. All vessels had been running westward without material changes in their positions. The Colon had run one and three-tenths miles from the Vizcaya about a tenth of a mile less and swerved to the left, bringing her to within one and one-tenth miles of the Brooklyn. The Iowa was the same distance, but a trifle west of the Oregon was one and three-tenths miles from the Vizcaya, but farther out to sea. The Iowa was then three-tenths of a mile from the Oquendo. The Indiana had advanced six-tenths of a mile. The New York had advanced merely a mile, but not yet abreast of Morro. The Gloucester had run over two miles and was now well west of Morro, but five miles east of the Oquendo. Position No. 5--10:30 a. m. Furor blew up and Pluton turned to run ashore. This is ten minutes later than position 4. The Gloucester had run a little more than two miles and was four-tenths of a mile from the Furor and but little farther from the Pluton. The New York had run two and two-tenths miles and was three and three-tenths miles from the Furor, the nearest Spanish ship, and two and two-tenths

REPEL AN WHITE ELEPHANT.

Their Congressional Nominee in the Second District a Heavy Burden. Fusion Candidate Stunned by Negroes. Fusionists Battered by Chadburn's Second After-State Volunteer Notes.

Messenger Bureau. Raleigh, N. C., October 20. The insurance agents in the state meet here next Wednesday to effect a new organization. A. S. Page, of the populist state committee makes the declaration that there is this year greater changing of the vote of white republicans than of populists. He says a great many of the white republicans cannot withstand the demand for a "white man's government" in North Carolina and are going over to the democrats. He insists that the populists are hardened and not touched by that cry. The attorney general has given an opinion as to the right of students to vote at a place where they are attending university or college. He says that they have no right to vote at such place, but that two things are necessary to constitute a domicile--residence and the intention to make it a home. The attorney general advises Secretary of State Thompson that it is the latter's duty to examine all insurance companies doing business in North Carolina, whether they are chartered in this state or not. Mr. A. S. Page, the oldest and best known politician in this state and the principal owner of the Asheville and Ashcroft railways, is to be married next week to Mrs. McLeod, of Moore. Mr. Page is 83 years of age, but is remarkably well preserved. It was reported here by the fusionists that the democrats in the Second district will nominate Dr. Mercer for congress this week. Now they say it will not be done. There is a great deal of feeling against George H. White, the negro republican candidate. His opponent, in fact, boastful and arrogant speech before the state convention here and also some of his other speeches and actions have caused much feeling against him by white republicans and by his party's committee and a populist state committee says the republicans would like to withdraw White as a candidate if they could. White has made the negroes angry by refusing to sign a resolution, but by sitting among the white people and being elected from that seat. Republicans say White's candidacy has injured their party. Republicans and populists have not yet settled on their judicial nominees. The hitch in the First district continues. Leary, the republican who wants to be the joint candidate, was here several days trying to associate his name, but left last night, no wiser than when he came. The Georgian has not yet put up the name of any of the fusion nominees. The true reason is it is not yet agreed in the congressional caucus. The Ninth district Regan, populist nominee for congress, has written a letter saying he is for fusion. This is construed to mean he intends to drop out in favor of fusion. The supreme court grants a new trial in the notorious case of Grigg, the man who with dynamite blew up a "shack" in which there were two men, killing them both. He was convicted in the county court, but now removed his case to another county. The murder he committed two years ago. The railway commission asked all the street railways to make report of their condition. The Asheville street railway makes reply saying: "The only serious accident the road ever had was when it invested its money in the concern collapsed." Colonel Taylor, in the Third district, is certain that Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, D. Cowles will remain with the First North Carolina regiment. He did not wish to leave the regiment nor did he wish to lose his valuable officers. The Second division in camp here. The government will give sixty of them transportation home. Mr. J. S. Montague, so long at the Oregon hotel, manager of the Carrollton hotel here. The post guard of the Second regiment was at one time a very good one. It is now in its last days, worth nothing. The officers are not made into officers, are near by. Republican State Chairman Holton and W. H. Hyams, his committee secretary, are off on a "scout." They are making a barroom tour close to all the public speaking. A local preacher says he intends to prosecute Charles Thomas if he goes to the jail.
