The high tariff experiences latterly have been a great surprise to these fellows and their superanuated blarkey. The exports have enormously increasvast quantities. While importations fell off; the Chinese Wall agrangement shutting out foreign competition, the exports of produce and manufactured goods increased immensely. The old rule has failed. The Dingley tariff has failed to put up goods to the old "artificial level" of former years. The New York Evening Post explains how the present very high tariff falled to work out results anticipated. We copy

"For many years the tariff-makers and the protected manufacturers accomplished their purpose, the result being that we could not compete in the export market with European exporters. Dingley, too, would have struck down this trade, if his scheme for raising domestic prices had succeeded; but development of domestic capital and American common sense was stronger even than Dingley. The protective tariff now resembles the old due laws' of New England; it may, like them, be made a petty annoyance to our chizens, but sensible people Five years ago in South American cities American hardware competed easily with English, French and German manufacturers and 4,000 miles from New York. There was no bounty to

The Greenville (S. C.) News is kind towards and appreciative of North Carolina soldiers. It takes occasion to say pleasant things of this state in mentioning the fact that the First North Carolina regiment was the first American troops to march through the streets of Havana upon its occupancy

We are glad the North Carolinians had the honor. Their state furnished more soldiers to the -confederacy in proportion to population than any other him were such extraordinary men a and whenever there was a desperate John Wilson (the "Kit North" charge or a dangerous stand the bodies of North Carolina then were found among the dead, lying nearest the enemy's lines. Therefore, it is beautifully and eloquently significant and appropriate that the hands of North Caro-linians should be the first to carry the flag of the Union through the streets of the Cuban capital

WINE OF CARDUI

Aches in The Head.

AZLE, Tarrant Co., Texas, January 30. I suffered from swimming and dizziness in the head and from sick headache, and couldn't get relief. One day I read an advertisement of Wine of Cardui. I tried it, and began to feel better at once. By the time I finished the bottle I was ANNIE FRAZIER.

Headaches in women are symptoms and danger signals. They are warnings that something is seriously wrong-not in the head, but in those intricate delicate and sensitive organs that distinguish her sex. Here it is that the wrong must be righted. While headache and dizziness are signs of danger, it is such an easy matter to drive them out. Wine of Cardui does it by regulating the menses. When regularity is established, the pains not only leave the head, but the sufferer finds herself feeling splendidly in every fibre. Her health comes back, and there is great satisfaction in knowing that life can be enjoyed to the full. Wine of Cardui is putting gladness and sunshine into many wo-
