THE PRESENT POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

Mr. James Creelman, the able correspondent of the New York Journal, after investigating political matters and inspecting the field, gives as his opinion "that if the presidential election were to take place now Mr. Bryan would be elected by a decided majority. Four years ago the plain facts compelled me to predict Mr. Bryan's defeat, and I repeated that prediction almost every day."

His opinion is in accord with that of other observers of the "signs of the times." But the outlook now and five years hence may vary greatly. Mr. Hill, of New York, is for Bryan and declares he will work for him. There is no hope now of silver being the chief factor. That is plain, and Bryan sees it. Creelman says of Hill: "He sees victory in sight for the first time since Mr. Hill will support Mr. Bryan, Chicago platform or no Chicago platform. The abandonment of silver in support of equal rights everywhere under the flag for the British policy of subject colonies overshadow all other issues."

Mr. Creelman thinks it would be full of hazard to change the platform of 1896. The eastern men are fighting for a change, radical and thorough, in the platform. Creelman says that the full and says that "to bring the body of the Chicago platform into the convention for mutilation or amendment would bring on a bitter and useless fight, in which the conservative men would be beaten." He thinks there will be no open fight in the convention over the financial question. He says the party will be united, and if true it is hopeful.

"Not only have men like Mr. Hill and Mr. Croker, who were silent in 1896, placed themselves earnestly in support of Mr. Bryan, but thousands and thousands of 'gold democrats' in New York and other eastern states who voted for McKinley have returned to the party which stands for the preservation of the republic and opposes a military empire with colonies."

"Men like John De Witt Warner are heartily preparing to assist in the election of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Cleveland's law partner, and afterward postmaster-general, is ready to stump the state for Mr. Bryan. He reports that eastern democrats are now 'loyal.' We note here that a leading republican paper, the New York Press, last week said there was much doubt as to the republicans getting the vote this year that McKinley received in 1896. Here is the state plain and direct as made by the brilliant and general well posted Creelman:

"The change which the brutal and corrupt policy of the McKinley administration has wrought in politics is almost without a parallel in America. Mr. Bryan has become a platform man, standing as he does for honesty, decency, fairness, plain speech and true Americanism as opposed to hypocrisy, corruption, duplicity, evasion, imperialism and shamless servitude to trust domination. Mr. Bryan has become a vice president; I can say that advisedly."

There is a movement on the part of some democrats to start Schley for the second place. That would provoke a great deal of discussion and the McKinley-Sampson crowd would exhaust the dictionary in terms of abuse. Mr. E. Danforth, prominent for the democratic nomination for governor in New York, says: "In the last presidential contest the issues were most prominent. As a result of a foreign war new national questions are occupying the attention of the people. The people are directed us toward military imperialism and financial and industrial concentration."

From twenty-three members of the national democratic committee, the following replies were elicited by the New York Journal: Anti-imperialism as a leading issue. 2 Anti-trust as a leading issue. 3 Money question as a leading issue. 18 Anti-imperialism as a leading issue. 30 Chicago platform as reaffirmed. 16 Non-committal as to Chicago platform. Form the idea from the first. You could not keep them apart. The Butler fellows—those who duped him so willingly at—were at heart radicals or populists according to the way the political winds set. They are really for a swap or trade, the best that can be made, and so far as they really care for the welfare of the state or what befalls the white people in the negro counties, the state may go to the devil and the whites may go to the end of life in the mills of the negro Philistines.

There will be an amalgamation, a fusion, a conspiracy, and it behooves the white men of North Carolina to get together and fight the campaign with a vigor and determination and pertinacity that will lay in the shade all other campaigns known in North Carolina. Victory must be won and the state must be saved from the consciences, vandals who prowl and prey for selfish ends solely.

It is reported by our Raleigh correspondent that there is danger of overconfidence on the part of the democrats. Of course there is danger just here. It is stated that the organization of the opposition is simply remarkable—more thorough even than in 1896. Democrats ought to heed this warning."

It is not so long that the Messenger will take hope that when the election in several campaigns will be perfected in this campaign of 1900. It has exhausted paper and patience in trying to have all the counties for one time really, systematically, thoroughly organized. It has never been done, strange to say, and it is a wonder that the state has not remained all the time in the hands of the heels of its robbers and oppressors.

Organization of the right kind can carry the amendment and by a good majority. Let us see first, what the chances are, and second what organization really means. In 1896, the vote for Judges was—democrat, 177,449; republican, 159,111. The congressional vote was democrat, 170,649; rep and pop 169,214. There were in 1890, 342,653 voters. After eight years of growth, the vote in 1898, was 329,960 including all the fraudulent voting done by the gang. It is probable that there were over 400,000 stay-aways in 1898. There were 12,000 less votes than the voting population of 1890. If the probable increase in the electorate is made, we think it not extravagant to put it at 32,907—enough to make the total 400,000. So it is not extravagant we believe, to say that there are now fully 40,000 non-voters to work upon. The probability is that the allies polled their strength, but leaving 10,000 for them to capture if they can, we have 30,000 who may be added to the regular democratic vote if proper efforts are made to induce them to vote. Here is a great and profitable field to work in.

As to what is organization we have so often stated it, that it is not necessary, we hope, to repeat in full. The real aim and purpose should be to bring out every voter in sympathy with the democratic party or with the white man's party. To do this every township must be thoroughly organized, with a chairman and working committee of three others—four in all. These should be active, discreet men who will give time to make systematic household visits, having free talks with voters, and then to give the entire election day to seeing that all their voters shall vote. If we shall think it necessary we will restate the best of all plans, that of Thomas J. Jarvis, in Pitt county. It is sure to carry the state if worked as he and his committee worked it in their county. What was done so well, so thoroughly in one county may be done in all the ninety-seven counties.

Let men this year can afford to give an amount of time and energy to the cause of good and honest and safe government for North Carolina. The amendment must be carried. To go beyond all peradventure is to organize. To organize is to copy the system put in motion in Pitt county that was so positively effective and decided. Let every citizen be the champion of the county democratic committee.

HOME FOLKS. An university alumnus protests against increasing President Alderman's salary. Let all the other alumni protest against his protests, and get together and raise the salary to $4,000 or more. A $4,000 salary is as much probably as $6,000 in New Orleans, an extravagant and very wicked city.

The Raleigh Post copies from the Messenger the "advantages of Wilmington" as given by Mr. W. E. Worth, and is pleased to say: "The prosperity of Wilmington, our chief seaport town, and the home of as many of our business men as of the past, but her day of deliverance came, and with the help of the good people of this state will soon be made permanent."

Mr. Bryan has become a platform man, standing as he does for honesty, decency, fairness, plain speech and true Americanism as opposed to hypocrisy, corruption, duplicity, evasion, imperialism and shamless servitude to trust domination. Mr. Bryan has become a vice president; I can say that advisedly."

WEARY WOMEN

Rest and help for weary women are found in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It makes women strong and healthy to bear their burdens, and overcomes those ills to which women are subject because they are women.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is known from coast to coast. It has cured more slok women than any other medicine. Its friends are everywhere and they are constantly writing thankful letters which appear in this paper.

If you are puzzled write for Mrs. Pinkham's advice. Her address is Lynn, Mass. She will charge you nothing and she has restored a million women to health.

presentation. The Richmond Dispatch in its account of the ceremonies says: "Dr. J. Allen Hodges, a native of North Carolina, but now a resident of Richmond, presented the portrait on behalf of the camp."

Both gentlemen made eloquent and chaste addresses. The portrait of the late General Grimes, which was presented by the late General Grimes, was a high tribute to the valor of the confederate officer. Mr. Hodges paid a high tribute to the valor of the confederate officer. Mr. Hodges paid a high tribute to the valor of the confederate officer.

After greatly over-estimating the Boers, one writer putting it at 80,000, now the British estimate is what the Messenger gave a week or two ago, 30,000.

For the nine completed months of the fiscal year, it is known that the exports over imports were $35,000,000 less than a year.

What means the continued exportation of gold? It is mentioned in a special to the Atlanta Constitution from Washington that from 1850 to 1890 the capital reported as invested in American manufactures was $1,000,000,000.

Lord Kitchener thinks that considering the nature of the country, the Republic of Cuba, might be able to maintain their resistance for two years.

Roberts spread his net in vain. The Boers were informed and failed to come in. Bobs will have to try his hand again.

Wheeler has assurance from Mr. C. J. Jones, of Salisbury, wrote it. But he did not. We gave the facts in print nearly or quite twenty years ago. It is of Virginia origin and was repeated often by a prominent lawyer on the Brunswick circuit as far back as 1812 or 1813.
