THE PUBLIC PRINTING

Under Discussion by the Democratic

Legislative Caucus.

(Special to the Messenger.)

Raleigh, N. C., February 11.-The democratic caucus tonight discussed the public printing, but reached no conclusion. It takes it up again tomorrow evening.

The printing committee wants the law, requiring the printing given to the lowest bidder, modified, so as to give it discretion.

Some speakers favored leaving the awarding of the contract to the governor, secretary and state treasurer. Some favored absolute repeal of the law, some allowing the legislature to elect the public printer. Four bids are in the committee's hands unopened.
