The movement of currency the interior is nearly $900,000 less in last week, while the receipts by standing deposits with that institution for transfer to the interior of over $1,000,000. The gain on this account is due to the fact that the government has paid out for redemption of bonds at New York this week no less than $4,320,181. The net result to the banks on all accounts indicates a gain in cash of considerably more than $2,000,000.

Bankers generally expect a large loan contraction as a result of the week's iquidation in stocks, promising a notable recuperation of the surplus re-serves. There was a good demand for regular. Total sales, par value, were $2,255,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the ast call. The
