

The Morning News.

J. S. HAMPTON, City Editor.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—For North Carolina, fair weather, slightly warmer.

GREENSBORO ALMANAC.—Sun rises 7:01. Sun sets 5:23. Moon rises 1:50.

—MORNING NEWS one week for only 10 cents.

—Old newspapers for sale at this office for 25 cents a hundred.

—The Messrs. Woodroffe are building a neat office on the corner of the lumber yard.

—To-morrow is St Valentines day—a day of fun and frolic for the young people and the birds.

—The R. & D. Railroad is having the crossing on South Elm street graded and cleaned, for which we commend them.

—The pews in all the churches of this city are free, and you will not be considered an intruder if you enter without ceremony.

—Mrs. Bingham, of Alamance, the mother of Walter Bingham, the deaf-mute, was registered at the Benbow last night. She was on her way home from a visit west of this point.

—Subscriptions came pouring in at a lively rate during yesterday forenoon. Several young ladies were among the number who called at the office and ordered the paper. If the News succeed in pleasing the ladies and winning their favor, we shall count ourselves most happy.

—The play of "Princess Andrea," as presented by the Janish Dramatic Company last night, took all by storm, and some of our oldest theatre goers say that Greensboro has never before seen any such actress as Mme. Janish. We regret that a better house did not greet her.

—For the freshest news from our enterprising sister town of Winston, the reader is referred to the special letter on our second page this morning. These letters are from the facile pen of our young friend Greek O. Andrews, who is now on the editorial staff of that excellent journal, the Winston Sentinel.

—Yesterday an old man of German nationality, it is supposed, fell in the street with an epileptic fit. A crowd soon gathered around and Mr. Mun. Rees, Chief of Police, arrived and had him carried into Drury Howell's restaurant where he soon recovered under the treatment of Dr. C. M. Glenn. He is from Savannah, Ga., and is on his way to Richmond where he has some relatives.

—Mr. W. B. Crump who was assaulted on the street night before last, was in a very critical condition all day yesterday and last night. It has been discovered that his skull is fractured. His mind is wandering, his muttering incoherent, and his recovery is despaired of. At 11 p. m., Mr. Crump took five swallows of water, and afterwards slept well for a couple of hours. Messrs. P. D. Weaver, Ned Lee and Mr. Webster attended the patient during the night.

THE CHURCHES TO-DAY.

Services will be held to-day as follows:

Preaching in Bogart Hall to-day at 11, a. m., and 7:30, p. m., by Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, pastor of the Baptist church. Sunday school at 9:30, a. m.

Preaching at Centenary Methodist church to-day at 11 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. G. F. Smith. Sabbath school at 3, p. m., J. R. Mendenhall, Supt. Prayer meeting at 7:15, p. m.

Preaching to-day at West Market street (Methodist) church at 11, a. m., and 7:30, p. m. Sunday school at 9:30, Prof. W. F. Alderman, Supt. Young people's meeting at 3 p. m.

At the Presbyterian church Dr. Smith will preach from 1 Cor., 16:12: "If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be anathema, maranatha," and at the Chapel at 4 p. m., from Jer. 7:4: "Trust ye not in lying words."

Mayor's Court.

The following case was tried before his honor the mayor, yesterday: Martha Conrad (col.) for assault on Mollie Richardson (col.) Two dollars and costs.

The Presidency of a Bank Tendered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—U. S. Treasurer Jordan, who returned from New York last night, called on Secretary Manning to-day, and on behalf of the directors of the new National New York Bank tendered to the Secretary the presidency of the bank. The Secretary this afternoon said he had sent no definite answer yet whether he will accept the position or not, and this is all he would say about the matter.

Parallel of Sexes.

Man is strong—woman is beautiful.
Man is daring and confident—woman is diffident and unassuming.
Man is great in action—woman in suffering.
Man shines abroad—woman at home.
Man talks to convince—woman to persuade and please.
Man has a rugged heart—woman a soft and tender one.
Man prevents misery—woman relieves it.
Man has science—woman taste.
Man has judgment—woman sensibility.
Man is a being of justice—woman an angel of mercy.

ART AND ARTISTS.

There are now five Rembrandts of undoubted genuineness in New York.

A portrait of Sir Moses Montefiore, by G. D. M. Piexott, has been hung temporarily in the Corcoran art gallery at Washington.

The heirs of the late Baron Meyer Charles de Rothschild, of Frankfort, will establish a museum containing the works of art belonging to the deceased.

Only $300 has been contributed thus far for the medalion of Sir Walter Scott which it was proposed a year ago to place in the poet's corner of Westminster abbey. About $1,300 is needed.
