$10,000 DAMAGES

Against Ben F. Butler for False Imprisonment.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Gen. Benj. F. Butler was promptly on hand today in the United States Circuit Court when the suit of John H. Lester against him for $10,000 damages for false imprisonment was resumed. The charge is, that Mr. Lester went to Washington from his home in Richmond, Va., in January 1864, and took the oath of allegiance and was afterwards arrested on the orders of Gen. Butler, then in command of the forces. Gen. Butler moved to dismiss the complaint on the ground that there was a statute which distinctly provided that no suit for damages for imprisonment during the war of the rebellion, or for any act done under orders of the President of the United States or the Secretary of War, by a military commander shall be maintained except such suits are commenced within two years from the expiration of such sentence or imprisonment. He contended that more than that time had elapsed between Mr. Lester's imprisonment and the commencement of the suit. Counsel for the complainant said that the General was wrong on his law and his facts. Mr. John E. Devlin for Gen. Butler, argued that the military commissioner, who tried and sentenced Mr. Lester to ten years imprisonment, were responsible for their action, and that Gen. Butler had nothing to do with the case beyond designating the prison where Mr. Lester was taken to, and this he was compelled to do by law. The sentence of the military commissioner was that John Lester, being convicted shall therefore be sentenced to imprisonment for ten years, and shall also wear a ball and chain during such imprisonment at such place as the Major General in command shall designate. Judge Cox denied the motion to dismiss the complaint at the present time.

Overtures Made the Strikers.

JERSEY CITY, N. Y., Feb. 14.—At some of the steamship piers this morning overtures were made to the old Longshoremen to resume work at 15 or on a basis of 30 cents an hour for day work and 45 cents for overtime. The men refused and left the docks. The striking coal handlers and freight handlers are siding with the Longshoremen, and say that they will not return to work until a uniform rate of wages is agreed upon in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City. Chief Murphy, of the Jersey City police, said this morning that none of the special policemen had been relieved from duty and they would not be until there was a more definite settlement of the strike than at present. The strikers seem to be well supplied with money, but are careful how they expend it—keeping away from saloons and discussing the situation on the streets.

Secretary Manning Resigns.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Secretary Manning, after formally resigning his position in the cabinet to-day, took an afternoon train for New York, intending to go home for rest and recuperation, and on private business. He was undecided as to whether he would return to the department but is scarcely expected to do so. He left with the President his formal letter of resignation to which the President will reply. Assistant Secretary Fairchild assumes the duties of Secretary and will continue to act, if Mr. Manning does not return, until Mr. Manning's successor is nominated and confirmed. Mr. Jordan will continue as Treasurer until his successor is nominated; probably towards the end of the month. The President is not supposed to have reached a decision, but it is believed that Secretary Manning has recommended the appointment of Mr. Fairchild as Secretary and Mr. Graves as Treasurer. Treasurer Jordan is understood to favor Mr. Whelpy, at present assistant U. S. Treasurer, as the proper person to be promoted to the position he is about to vacate.

A Counterfeiter Captured.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 14.—Capt. C. F. Ives, in charge of the government secret service in this city, last night arrested William Teal, a well known counterfeiter, who has already served two years in the penitentiary. On the way to the station house Teal managed to dispose of a number of counterfeit coins by throwing them in the street. A search of the rooms occupied by Teal resulted in the securing of 160 in counterfeit silver dollars and the capture of a quantity of metal, moulds, etc.

WILL PORTUGAL FIGHT?

Her Quarrel With Zanzibar—Threatened Bombardment of Tungi.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Advices from Zanzibar state that the Sultan has refused to comply with the demands of the Portuguese Governor of Mozambique to surrender the territory claimed by Portugal but recognized in the Anglo-German agreement with the Sultan as belonging to Zanzibar, and has referred the matter to the friendly Powers. Portugal has on this account ruptured diplomatic relations with the Sultan and has hauled down the Portuguese flag from the consulate at Zanzibar. In addition to this a number of Portuguese men-of-war have proceeded to Tungi, the bombardment of which is threatened.

FOR THE LADIES.

The Latest Parisian Fashion.

PARIS, Feb. 14.—The white poodle toilet has a corsage in white satin, the skirt being covered with rows of silky Algerian fringes in white mohair and the back drapery being in white satin. The gloves and stockings are in pink silk and the boots in white satin. The details of the dress are precisely those of the black costume, the cap being composed of white Astrakhan cloth, as are also the bands that trim the corsage, the boots and the gloves.

THE "DIANA" COIFFURE.

The latest styles of dressing the hair are much less exaggerated than at one time they threatened to become. High structures of puffs and curls and aigrettes have been replaced by much simpler and less elevated modes of arrangement, though in the same style. The "Diana" coiffure, formed by bringing the back hair forward and turning it over to form a single roll at the top of the head, is new and very graceful.

ON THE RIVIERA.

In spite of snow storms the Riviera continues very gay. The Prince of Wales and his son Prince George of Wales highly enjoyed themselves during the famous "battle of flowers" at Cannes. There are more Americans at Cannes, Monte Carlo and Nice this year than ever before.

Murder in the First Degree.

DANVILLE, Va., Feb. 14.—In the Hustings Court today, the trial of John Gwynn, colored, charged with the murder of J. Lucius Motley in North Danville on the 14th of September last, was concluded. The jury, after an absence of one hour, rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree. Gwynn, when asked by a reporter if the verdict was a surprise to him, said, "Yes, sir. I thought they would tell me to go home. I had no more to do with that murder than you." Motion for a new trial will be heard Wednesday, and if overruled the prisoner will be sentenced to be hanged.

Agreeing to an Amendment.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The House Committee on Naval Affairs to-day agreed to affix an amendment to its regular appropriation which was reported several days ago, providing that $3,000 be given to Coasters' Harbor Rhode Island training school. The committee agreed also to report favorably resolutions accepting the sword of Capt. Reed. A favorable report was agreed to on the Boutelle resolution calling on the Secretary of the Navy for a list of the employees discharged from the navy yards since January 1, 1886, together with their rates of compensation, reason for discharge, etc.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The Woman's Suffrage party's State Committee have notified the Legislative committee on the Constitutional Convention that the women's right to vote under the existing law will be claimed at the election of that convention, even if the proposed special provision ratifying that claim is not enacted.

Killed by a Bursting Saw.

CALIFORNIA, Mo., Feb. 14.—A distressing accident occurred yesterday at the farm of L. D. Wright, a prominent farmer, living eight miles south of town. A portable saw-mill was just commencing operations when the saw, which was cracked, broke in pieces, one section of which struck Mr. Wright in the right breast, killing him instantly. Another piece struck Miss Thompson, who had come to call the parties to dinner, on the head, cutting it open and killing her also.

A Cincinnati Passtime.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 14.—John Morrisey, a cart driver, and Joe Collins, a rolling mill puddler, fought four ten desperate and bloody rounds in an unoccupied house last night. At the end of that time both men were so exhausted that they decided to call it a draw and divide the small purse. The fight lasted over an hour and took place almost in the heart of the city.

Threatenings of War.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Dispatches from Zanzibar state that the Sultan of Zanzibar has refused the demand of the Portuguese government of Mozambique to surrender the territory which Anglo-German agreement has recognized as having belonged to the Sultan of Zanzibar who had referred the matter to friendly powers for a settlement. The refusal of the Sultan has ruptured relations with Portugal, and the latter power has hauled down its flag at the consulate at Zanzibar.

Death of a Prominent Stock Raiser.

In addition to the indemnity, protection is to be given the missionaries in their return to their posts.

$10,000 for a Release.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The Boston base ball club has paid Chicago $10,000 for the release of Mike Kelly. Kelly to-day signed a contract to play in Boston the coming season for $5,000. He will probably captain the nine. Glascock will probably play in Chicago.

THE BRIDE'S ROSE.

Latest Product of the Flower Propagator's Art.

Florists are ever trying to introduce something novel in the way of new and attractive flowers. This winter they have imported a variety of rose from New York known as "The Bride." It has figured frequently throughout the season at fashionable receptions and weddings, and bids fair to become as much a part of bridal adornment as the white veil and orange blossoms. It figured conspicuously at the Samuel-Nicolls wedding on Thursday, the bride carrying a bouquet composed entirely of this flower. It is a thing of beauty, much prized by all young ladies contemplating a fashionable marriage, and retails at the modest price of $5 per dozen. It is very large and beautiful, and does not bloom in the spring, it being a forced plant of winter growth. While not unlike the Cook rose, it differs from it in being of a more creamy white, its distinctive feature lying in the outside petals, which are tinged on the upper half with a delicate shade of pink. Though used largely for bridal bouquets, there is quite a demand for it by the escorts of fair theatre-goers. The only successful propagator is said to be a gardener of Summit, N. J.

Terrible Suffering from Fire and Exposure.

ST. IGNEZ, Mich., Feb. 14.—A story of terrible suffering from fire and exposure comes from Grafts Chap to-day. Louis Obespa's house was burned to the ground Saturday night. The whole house was in flames before they escaped, and Obespa and wife were burned terribly before they could be rescued, but with their two little children, when they got out, were exposed to the cold and had to walk a mile and a half very scantily clothed to their nearest neighbors. They were nearly frozen besides being badly burned.

The Strasburg police are busily engaged in the work of searching the houses of the people, for the alleged purpose of ascertaining the nature of the relations of the French populace of Alsace-Lorraine with the organization known as the "French Patriotic League."
