THE LATEST NEWS.

A GOLDEN STREAM.

Investments in the South During the Past Week.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 19.—The list of new industries established in the South during the past week, as published by the Manufacturers' Record, shows a large number of enterprises.

A Montgomery company has bought 158,000 acres of mineral and agricultural lands in Alabama, and will develop various manufactures. A $3,000,000 coal, coke and iron company was organized in Alabama by Connecticut and Alabama capitalists.

The Norfolk and Western Railroad Company will extend its Cripple Creek branch to Oreland, lately purchased by Philadelphians, who have contracted for a big furnace at Pulaski, Va.

In all other lines of industry there is a corresponding buoyancy, and in all parts of the South many new enterprises, including flour mills, saw mills, furniture factories, brick works, machine shops, &c., were reported during the week.

Bitter Political Struggle.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 18.—The bitterness of the present political struggle surpasses anything in the history of Canadian politics. The politicians have so far forgotten themselves that the names of the cabinet ministers wives have been dragged into the contest and all sorts of disgraceful stories are bruited about.

Burned to Death.

WOOSTER, O., Feb. 19.—A report comes from Dalton that the father and mother of State Representative Baughman, were burned to death last night at that place. Their house took fire and burned so quickly that the aged couple were unable to make their escape.

A Peculiar Accident.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 19.—High winds blew down the Western Union telegraph lines and poles crossing Court street bridge soon after noon to-day and carried away two spans of the bridge. An unknown woman was carried into the river and drowned.

The Rev. Dr. Baxter's Prophecy of the Coming Millennium.

Only thirteen years is the limited time which the wicked persons of this generation are given to enjoy the fruits of this earth by the Rev. Michael Baxter, editor of the London Christian Herald.

Yesterday he "preached" at Cooper Union, and about 200 people gathered there to hear him. The ordinary pictorial decorations of the smaller meeting-room had been removed, and in their places were hung highly colored and awful representations of the terrors that are so soon to make things unpleasant on this earth.

Mr. Baxter's prophecies of what will happen during the thirteen years left were unpleasant. Daniel, he said, had prophesied that at the beginning of the millennium there should be only ten kingdoms in Europe.

Mr. Baxter devoted much time to the discussion of the person who is to become the Antichrist. Everything pointed to Jerome Bonaparte.

Shrewd Mrs. Hetty Green.

Mrs. Hetty Green, the possessor of tens of millions of wealth, called at the banking house of Brown Brothers, in Wall street, yesterday and asked the firm to forward a million dollars' worth of Reading securities to Philadelphia for her.

"All right," she was told. "By the way," she asked, as she was drawing the certificates out, "will there be any charge?" "Of course, a small charge."

"How much?" "About a hundred dollars." "A hundred dollars!" "About that. The express company's charge is the main thing."

Charles Welse, the well-known pianist and composer, is dead.

A LADY'S GOWNS FOR SALE.

Rich and Beautiful Clothing Displayed in a Hotel.

In room 118 of the Victoria Hotel, yesterday, was displayed the elaborate and extensive wardrobe of a lady who had advertised her gowns for sale "because of going into mourning."

There seems a certain shadow of mystery over the transaction. It was impossible to elicit the least information from the well dressed and discreet young woman who presided, except that the seller had designed the costumes herself.

Yesterday he "preached" at Cooper Union, and about 200 people gathered there to hear him. The ordinary pictorial decorations of the smaller meeting-room had been removed, and in their places were hung highly colored and awful representations of the terrors that are so soon to make things unpleasant on this earth.

As the hour grew late the price of these gowns became less and less, the maids seeming anxious to be rid of them at any price, as the room was only hired for the day.

This is an uncommon proceeding in New York society, but it has had one or two precedents, a wardrobe just from Paris having been disposed of at the same hotel last year.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—In the Senate yesterday the Anti-Polygamy bill was agreed to as reported and now awaits the President's signature.

The Cause of an Accident.

BROCKTON, Mass., Feb. 19.—David Remillars, a passenger in the recently wrecked Vermont Central train has a theory of the cause of the disaster. He says that just before the accident occurred he was going from the smoking car to a back car in company with the conductor and that as they reached the platform the conductor said that the train was running faster than it ought, and reached up and pulled the signal cord and was followed by a sudden slacking of speed.

Table of advertising rates: One Square One Day, $1.00; Two Days, $1.75; Three Days, $2.00; Four Days, $2.25; Five Days, $2.50; One Week, $3.00; Two Weeks, $5.00; Three Weeks, $6.00; One Month, $10.00.

tant bearing of Mr. Remillars's statement lies in the fact that the signal to the engineer was given before the cars left the rails and was for the purpose of checking the speed of the train.

Garrett to Mackay.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—In connection with the completion of Postal Telegraph and Cable company's lines to California, Mr. Robert Garrett sends the following congratulatory telegram to Mr. John W. Mackay:

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Postmaster General Vilas went to Fortress Monroe to-day for a few days rest and recreation. Miss Vilas accompanied him.

The signal officer at Ocean City, Md., reports the Italian bark Quater, from Buenos Ayres to Delaware breakwater ashore five miles above that place. Wreckers are now at work.

The committee on postoffices and postroads non-concurred in the Senate's amendment to the regular post-office appropriation bill giving $500,000 to subsidize South and Central American mail ships.

Bound to be Married.

BROOKLYN, Io., Feb. 18.—W. L. Perkins and a 17 year old girl by the name of Savard have been passing as man and wife and were arrested here yesterday by sheriff McCord and taken home to Marshalltown.

Boodle's Sensation.

CHICAGO, February 18.—The developments in the boodle sensation in the county boards yesterday presage an earthquake shortly. It is believed that the county commissioners and others of the board who will be criminally held number thirteen.

One of the girls working in the mills at Biddford, Me., gets more letters than any other woman in town. She is the youngest of thirty-two children born to the same parents, and twenty-three brothers and sisters who still live write to her every week. How she manages her share of the correspondence has not yet been printed.—New York Sun.
