

WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—For North Carolina, fair weather, with slightly higher temperature.

GREENSBORO ALMANAC.—Sun rises 6:41. Sun sets 5:46. Moon sets 9:26.

—MORNING NEWS one week for only 10 cents.

—Old newspapers for sale at this office for 25 cents a hundred.

The MORNING NEWS is kept on sale at the Dike Book Co.'s News STAND.

—Let this day be properly observed by all.

—We are indebted to Senator Vance for a batch of public documents.

The Greensboro market is now well supplied with eggs.

—Merchants report good trade during the week, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather.

—People are looking to the new coal mines for cheapened coal, near Egypt, say a reduction to $4 per ton.

—Those who have building lots to sell could not do better than advertise them in the MORNING NEWS.

—The Russell gold mine is beginning to be worked. It promises well, and we hope it will pan out according to promise.

—A subscriber writes to inform us that three guano warehouses, in the heart of the city, has just been refilled.

—It is rumored that Mr. Josephus Daniels, of the Raleigh Chronicle, and printer to the State, was married yesterday.

—The nurseries hereabouts are just now sending out great quantities of young fruit trees. Great bundles are seen at the depots, on drays and deposited about the streets. A great industry, in this section.

—Friday night a number of "solid" men from the North stopped at the McAdoo House. It is said that they are prospecting for an opportunity to put some of their "rocks" into manufactures here or hereabouts.

—Yesterday afternoon, while Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were in Farrior's shoe store, their horse, attached to a covered buggy, which they left standing in front of the store, took fright and started on a run toward the depot. He was stopped, without damage, in front of Mr. West's store.

—Mr. M. G. Newell, the enterprising and attentive young merchant of South Greensboro, has recently opened in connection with his grocery a complete stock of dry goods and notions. This supplies a long-felt want in South Greensboro, and no doubt will be a grand success.

Country produce, such as eggs, poultry, potatoes, &c., is commanding high prices on account of the bad condition of the roads. Then let the city people and the country people take hold and build good roads leading out from town in every direction, that the farmers may come in at any time with their produce.

The News and Observer says petitions to the county commissioners to order an election in Raleigh on the local option questions are being circulated by the "anti-prohibitionists." If an election is ordered, Raleigh will have a lively time during the spring and summer months over the municipal and local option campaigns.

—The farmers are complaining a great deal about the bad roads leading from their homes to the city. One said that although he only lived three miles from the city in good weather, it is fully ten miles when the roads are all mud. When people have suffered enough they will go earnestly to work and build good and permanent roads. If you have a good thing it must be paid for.

On to Canada.

Up rose the bold McGinnis. "Ho, comrades!" thus he cried, "Let's strike while hot's the iron A blow at British pride. I go to sack Toronto, To scuttle Montreal, To kidnap in his castle, The governor general. Ho! fill your flasks with lightning; There's no such word as fall. He best shall serve his country Who twists the lion's tail."

HE HANGED HIMSELF.

James Reesor, a Lunatic, Ends His Life With a Trace-Chain.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 26.—Several days ago an inquest of lunacy was held upon James D. Reesor, a young man twenty-five years old, who lived with his parents near Galena (seven miles north of New Albany,) and he was declared insane. The order for his admission to the insane asylum was received Tuesday evening, and Constable Cannon went to his home for the purpose of carrying him to New Albany, in order that he might be taken by the Sheriff to Indianapolis. When he reached the home of the insane man's parents he learned that Reesor had left home, and he was accordingly compelled to return without him.

Shortly after the officer had left, the lunatic returned home, went to bed and slept soundly until yesterday morning. Some time during the morning, he stated to the other members of the family that he wished to go to one of the buildings on the farm. He was given the key and departed. After waiting his return for some time, one of the members of the family proceeded to the building and found Reesor suspended from a beam by a trace-chain and quite dead. He was taken down and efforts were made to resuscitate him, but they were of no effect. Coroner Starr held an inquest yesterday evening, and returned a verdict of suicide.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—In the Senate yesterday a bill to amend the Arthur Kill act was reported adversely. Senator Ingalls was elected President pro tem. Mr. Hoar's resolution opposing joint investigation with Great Britain of the difficulties with the Canadian Provinces was referred to the Finance Committee. A resolution was adopted calling for a statement from the Treasury Department whether the Whiskey Ring had been allowed to evade the revenue laws. The Pleuro-pneumonia bill was further discussed. The contested election conference report was agreed to. The Pacific Railroad resolution was considered. In the House the Agricultural Department bill, as amended by the Senate, was referred to the Agricultural Committee. Conference on the Retaliation bill were appointed. The Senate Agricultural Experiment Station bill was passed. The General Deficiency bill was reported. The Pension Appropriation bill is now ready for the President's approval. The Naval Appropriation bill was considered. The President signed the Chinese indemnity bill.

Hanged for Rape.

PRINCESS ANN, Md., Feb. 25.—Jas. Stevens, colored, was hanged in the jail yard here to-day, for having committed an outrageous assault upon the person of Mrs. Trehearne, an aged lady, living in the Dublin district, on July 11th, 1886. He made no confession and died with stolidity.

Bismarck has a big majority after all. At last accounts the members of the new Reichstag stand 220 to 177. Alsace and Lorraine (taken from the French in the war of 1870) remain true to France, and elected every member opposed to annexation and Bismarck.

The Beautiful Life and Death.

Beautiful faces are those that wear—It matters little if dark or fair—Whole-souled honesty printed there.

Beautiful eyes are those that show, Like crystal panes where health fires glow, Beautiful thoughts that burn below.

Beautiful lips are those whose words Leap from the heart like the hearts of birds Yet whose utterance produces birds.

Beautiful hands are those that do Work that is earnest, and brave, and true, Moment by moment a long life through.

Beautiful feet are those that go On kindly ministries to and fro—Down lowliest ways, if God wills it so.

Beautiful shoulders are those that bear Ceaseless burdens of homely care With patient grace and daily prayer.

Beautiful lives are those that bless— Silent rivers of happiness, Whose hidden fountains but few may guess.

Beautiful twilight at set of sun, Beautiful goal with race well won. Beautiful rest with work well-done.

Beautiful graves where grasses creep, Where brown leaves fall, where drifts life deep Over worn-out hands—oh, beautiful sleep.
