Citizens of the Two Towns of Coronado and Leoti, Armed to the Teeth, Prepared For a ARepetition of Sunday's Trag. edy.

WALLACE, Kan., March 7 .- The situation in the Coronado-Leoti war remains unchanged. Both towns are surrounded by a srtong cordon of armed men, who challenge every comer. The men in both towns sleep with their guns, and after gaining admission a stranger finds a Winchester rifle at every turn. Armed men stand in doorways and merchants carry their guns while they wait on customers. Men patrol the streets of the town all day and night.

The country surrounding is as excited as the towns, and equally devided. Coronado sympathizers are for the most part in town with their ammunition and guns, and the Coronado men said to-day that within an hour 500 men could be recruited in the town, ready to defend it with their lives. At Leoti the cry is for revenge. The citizens are as excited as they were on the day following the shooting, and they are unanimous in their determination to sack Coronado at the first opportunity. This will probably be offered Thursday night when the county election occurs. Immediately after the shooting, Sunday, some men from Leoti came to Wallace and secured all the guns similar visits to Garden City, so that

On next Monday the Danville system will put on an additional fast mail train (connecting with the train that leaves New York at 4.30 a. m.,) between Washington, Atlanta, Ga., thence by Lynchburg, Va., and thence to New Orleans, The expedited time at the latter point will be twenty four hours less than the present schedule.

This train will connect with the fast mail on the Coast Line from New York to Jacksonville and will make direct connection from New York for all points throughout the Southern and Southwestern States, connecting with the Caio, & West Point leaving Mobile one tull day earlier advancing.

How Mme. Janish was not Married.

Mme. Janish, the pretty actress, held the boards at the Opera house last night, but she is not enjoying a honey moon, as the New York special to the Courier Journal relative to her marriage to George W. More, an actor of her company, would imply. She laughed heartily when questioned by your correspondent as to whether or not she was a bride, and gave a ready explanation of how the report originated. While at Danvilla, Va., Mr. Moore, while chatting on the subject of marriage, remarked npon the ease with which a license to marry could be obtained. This was incomprehensible to the madame, and Moore said that he would prove his assertion by incontroverand ammunition they could get, and tible evidence. Thereupon he went to the representatives from Coronado paid proper office and procured a license for himself and Mme. Janish to wed. He both towns are well equipped with showed it to her as a joke, and for the ammunition for war, which every first time found out the affair would be man believes will occur before the a matter of record and source of gossip.

Metcalt, county jailer, bid him in for one dollar and immediately turned him loose. Crowds from every section of the county came to witness the affair. The insignificant sum goes toward defraying expenses of the sale.

STATE NEWS.

A company with a cash capital of $30,000 has been formed in Shelby, N.C., for the purpose of erecting and running a cotton factory.

The Argus says: Greene county is noted for taking the cake for many things of merit. This time Mr. Isaac Williams, one of the most reliable and thrity citizens of that good county, comes to us with the report that he has just killed an 18 months old hog that balanced the scales at 560 pounds.

-A lovely Park is being laid off in East Winston, ---- All kinds of business in our town is improving and will continue to improve, the worst is undoubtedly over, as all our tobacco factories will soon be in full blast, and we trust that before another season comes lor them to close, that new industries and new enterprises will have intused so much lile and energy into our towns that no depression will be telt on account of their closing .- Winston Daily.

Hints and Recipes.

"Old-fashioned" apple sauce of deep red brown color is very nice. Fill a deep pudding dish with chopped apples put in two cups of sugar and one cup of water, and bake slowly two br three hours.

Paint brushes may be cleaned by putting them into soft soap for a day or two, when the paint can be washed out. Care should be taken that the soap does
