THE LATEST NEWS. OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

> Congratulations--Labor Statistics---Improvements---Still Booming - Municipal Election-Anti-Prohibition Campaign.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 21, 1887. Editor Morning News :- Congratulations being in order, allow me to tender mine, at the improved condition of THE MORNING NEWS in its silent contempt has been the fate of my epistles. Oh, please, good Mis-ter Postmaster-General, let me go, enlarged form. It is with pleasure ? note the prosperity which has followed your enterprise, and the old adage that Greensboro could not support e and I promise never to do so again. I daily, has taken wings and gona will never sign another petition to "where the woodbine twineth." Your paper, not yet two months old, is an am an offensive partisan and really Greensboro appreciate your efforts to evidence that the good people of furnish them with a morning paper I shall watch the incoming mails with eager eyes, hoping against hope that my pardon may come and set me free.

I shall watch the incoming mails with a morning paper creditable to the town. May prosperity always attend your effort to give the people the news.

In the city respectively.

In the city papers of yesterday, Mr. Commissioner Jones, of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, publishes his first circular, calling for correspondence from which to gather data for the department. It is predicted that much good will result from the labors of the Bureau, and his first report will be anxiously looked for.

Your correspondent was informed, on Saturday, by an attache of the penitentiary, that the authorities, regardless of the failure of the Legislature to provide an appropriation, seeing the pressing necessity of the Supreme Court and State Library, intend pushing that building to rapid completion, which, when finished, will reflect great credit upon Col. NEW ORLEANS, March 20.- A special Hicks, as an architect and builder.

about one and a half miles from the city, are a favorite resort for Sunday afternoon strolls. Pullen park has a as compared with the method now in ranging and beautifying the grounds. The Richmond and Danville railroad will soon commence the erection of a large and well-arranged depot. Col. Andrews, the Superintendent, is doing all in his power to give us better shipping facilities, and is the right man to look after the interest of our people when railroad accommodations are needed, and the time is not far off when we will compare favorably with any place in city affairs.

The municipal election in May is aiready being agitated, and several names brought forward who are willing to be members of the Board of Aldermen, with no pay and many curses, and serve the dear people.

The anti-prohibitionists presented a petition to the last Board of County Commissioners, asking for an election on license or no license, and it is ordered for June. With municipal and prohibition campaigns, an interesting time is looked for this summer. The colored voters, being the balance of power, say they are satisfied with prohibition and shall cast their votes that way. ON-DITER.

Arrest of Wash Thornton-Meeting of Citizens in Salem -An Eight Year Old Horse Thief, &c., &c.

WINSTON, March 21. - Wash Thornton, the man charged with making the assault on Mr. Rohert Crawford on the night of February 21st, was arrested in Washington N. C., several days ago, and the officials here were notified of his being held in custody there. officer J. C. Bessent was detailed to bring him to this city, and arrived with him Fri day morning tast. On arrival here the prisoner was liberated, his brother giving security in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the preliminary hearing which was appointed for this evening at 3 o'clock. The prosecution for the State, however, asked a postponement of the case until Friday morning at 9 o'clock, on account of the absence of Mr. Tom Crawford, who is supposed to have been the man the defendant thought he was attacking. The defence will attempt to prove an alibi, but it is thought the evidence of the State is sufficient to convict.

Some of the prominent citizens of Salem held a meeting a lew nights ago. for the purpose of inaugurating some measures to counteract a sentiment which was being lostered against the railroad subscription. Some of the citizens were opposing the subscription on the ground that it would impose burdensome taxes. At the meeting held, a circular was drawn up setting forth the advantages of the road, and urging the people to vote in favor of the subscription. The issue remains a problem and grows more uncertain every day.

When a Gentleman Should Call.

No gentleman should call on a lady unless she asks him to do so, or unless he brings a letter of introduction or he is taken by a lady who is sufficiently intimate to invite him to call. When a lady desires to have a newly made gentleman acquaintance call she says, "I hope that we shall soon see you," or "I am at home on Monday," or something of that sort. If he receives an invitation to dinner or to a ball from a stranger he is bound to send an immediate answer, call the next day, leave his card and then call after the entertainment.

Before the Wedding.

The reception of an engaged girl by the family of her future husband should be most cordial, and no time should be lost in giving ber a warm welcome. It is the fashion for the mother of the groom to invite both the family of the expectant bride and herself to dinner as soon as possible after the formal announcement of the engagement.
