Saved by His Horse.

speaking to an old horse-trainer rt time ago about one of his ite animals he soon became warm e subject, and gave it as his opinhat the saying, "Women first of was a mistake, and the inventor e saving had never seen a good or he would have been ashamed

My old favorite horse, Duke," he inued, "had more sense than half people, and I never saw him exin my life. I could always rely old Duke in time of trouble. There a time in the country when it was safe for any one to travel, espely if he was known to be a man t usually had money, but, while I not mean to say that I always had pleasure, yet I was considered a neymaker. It was the custom in se days to go from town to town, as Duke and I were going through country one evening I stopped at country inn and asked for lodging. was informed that they could accomodate the horse, but I was one too any. It was then growing late and concluded to make the best of it, and greed to share the bed with Duke in e log stable. I had hardly lain down efore I was sleeping soundly, and did near the noise on the roof: but my Id friend did, and, no doubt, used ery possible means to awaken me,

"When I awakened, however, I was he worst scared man that ever lived o tell a story. There was Duke down pon his knees, snorting and pawing some object, but I could not tell what it was in the dark, and I struck a light. No sooner had I made the discovery than something was upon me, and we three were having a lively time in that old stable. Duke managed to break his bridle and come to my assistance, otherwise I would not be here. After we had fought for some time I was knocked senseless and fell beside my old horse. I did not regain consciousness until daybreak, when, to my horror, I found a large panther at my feet, with Duke on his knees, apparently holding it down. I at once went to his assistance, and found that the panther in his death struggle had buried his teeth in Duke's nose, from which the old fellow could not free himself, and which also compelled him to continue in the kneeling posi-

"Was your protector much injured?" "Well I should say he was. He was as bloody as any butcher you ever laid your eyes upon. His nose was forever after a sorry looking object, and while I loved that brute more than many persons do their children, I was robbed of him by Morgan while I was giving lessons with him in Jennings county. Since that day I have never been able to buy a duplicate of old Duke.

"What did I do with the panther? Well, to tell the truth about it, I was not able to do anything for some time. The people who gave us their shelter came down to the stable in the morning to see where we were, as no sign of us was to be had about the premises, and they found us both in a disfigured condition. The lady at once prepared a bandage for my mangled legs and also fixed up the warrior. The cause of all the trouble was also attended to, and his pelt was soon alongside a coonskin on the side of the house. It was the largest panther ever killed in that section, and no one seemed to be aware of the fact more than Duke. It must have weighed at the very least seventyfive pounds, and was as long as the average hunting-dog." - Indianapolis

There are few men who possess as much cheek as a citizen of New London, Conn. He rented a house, and for three months paid no attention to the landlord's request for the rentmoney. At the end of that time he called upon the owner, handed him the key, and said that he was sorry, but he would have to give up the house, as the rent was too high for his means. The landlord was so amazed that he took the key, and the man with the cheek walked off.

There is a family in Polk county, Ga. whose children possess names that are, to say the least, rather original. They answer to the following appellations; Mollie Necklane, Quincy Ann, Sis Tommie, Happie Josie, Nestor Chestor, and I Wonder. It is said that the happy mother takes pride in calling each child!

"It Saved My Life"

Is a common expression, often heard from those who have realized, by personal use, the curative powers of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.  I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, believing as I do that, but for its use, I should long since have died from lung troubles. - E. Bragdon, Palestine, Tex.

About six months ago I had a severe Hemorrhage of the Lungs, brought on by a distressing Cough, which deprived me of sleep and rest. I had used various cough balsams and expectorants, without obtaining relief. A friend advised me to the vised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

I did so, and am happy to say that it helped me at once. By continued use this medicine cured my cough, and, I am satisfied, saved my life.—Mrs. E. Coburn, 18 Second st., Loweli, Mass.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave, had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy. - D. A. McMullen, Windsor, Province of Ontario.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years ago I took a very severe Cold which settled on my lungs. I consulted physicians, and took the remedies they prescribed, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pec-toral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health. - Lizzia M. Allen, West Lancaster, Ohio.

GOOD COFFEE.

Everybody wants it, but very few get it, because most people do not know how to select coffee, or it is spoiled in the roasting or making. To obviate these difficulties has been our study. Thurber's package Coffees are selected by an expert who understands the art of blending various flavors. They are roasted in the most perfect manner (it is impossible to roast well in small quantities), then put in pound packages (in the bean, not ground,) bearing our signature as a guarantee of genuineness, and each package contains the Thurber recipe for making good Coffee. We pack two kinds, Thurber's "No. 34," strong and pungent, Thurber's "No. 41," mild and rich. One or the other will suit every taste. They have the three great points, good quality, honest quantity, reasonable price. Ask your Grocer for Thurber's roasted Coffee in pound packages, "No. 34" or "No. 41." Do not be put off with any other kind-your own palate will tell you what is best. Where persons desire it we also, furnish the "Ideal" Coffee-pot, the simplest, best and cheapest coffee-pot in existence. Grocers who sell our Coffee keep them. Ask for descriptive circular.

Respectfully, &c., H. K. & F. B. THURBER & CO., Importers, Wholesale Grocers and Coffee Roasters, New York.

P. S.-As the largest dealers in food products in the world, we consider it our interest to manufacture only pure and wholesome goods and pack them in a tidy and satisfactory manner. All goods bearing our name are guaranteed to be of superior quality, pure and wholesome, and dealers are authorized to refund the purchase price in any case where customers have rause for dissatisfaction. It is therefore to the interest of both dealers and consurgers to use Thurber's brands.

Your Children

Are constantly exposed to danger from Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, and diseases peculiar to the throat and lungs. For such ailments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, promptly administered, affords speedy relief and cure.

As a remedy for Whooping Cough, with which many of our children were afflicted, we used, during the past win-ter, with much satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For this affection, we consider this preparation the most efficacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge. — Mary Park-hurst, Preceptress, Home for Little Wanderers, Doncaster, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint. - David G. Starks, Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Cough. This medicine allays extending to the lungs, and quickly subdues any tendency to Lung Complaint. - J. B. Wellington, Plainville, Mich.

I find no medicine so effective, for Croup and Whooping Cough, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It was the means of saving the life of my little boy, only six months old, carrying him safely through the worst case of Whooping Cough I ever saw.—Jane Malone, Piney Flats, Tenn. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
