At the same time a mother should not hamper her child with unnecessary, foolish restrictions. It is a great mistake to fancy that your boy is made of glass, and to be always telling him not to do this, and not to do that, for fear of his breaking himself. On the principle never to give pain unless it is to prevent a greater pain, you should grant every request which is at all reasonable, and let him see that your denial of a thing is for his own good, and not simply to save trouble; but once having duly settled a thing, hold to it. Unless a child learns from the first that his mother's yea is yea, and and her nay nay, it will get into the habit of whining and endeavoring to coax her out of her refusal, and her authority will soon be gone. Happiness is the natural condition of every normal child, and if the small boy or girl has a peculiar facility for any one thing, it is for self entertainment; with certain granted conditions, of course. One of these is physical freedom, and a few rude and simple playthings. Agreeable occupation is as great a necessity for children as for adults, and beyond this almost nothing can be contributed to the real happiness of a child.

"I try so hard to make my children happy!" said a mother, with a sigh, one day, in despair at her efforts. "Stop trying," exclaimed a practical friend at her eblow," and do as a neighbor of mine does." And how is that?" she asked dolefully. "Why, she simply lets her children grow and develope naturally, only directing their growth properly. She has always thrown them, as far as practical, upon their own resources, taught them to wait upon themselves-no matter how many servants she had-and to construct their own playthings. When she returns home from an absence they await but one thing-their mother's kiss. Whatever has been bought for them is bestowed when the needed time comes. Nothing exciting is allowed to them at night, and they go to bed and to sleep in a wholesome mental state, that insures restful slumber. They are taught to love nature, and to feel that there is nothing arrayed so finely as the lily of the field, the bees and the butterflies, that there is nothing so mean as a lie, nor anything so miserable as disobedience, that it is a disgrace to be sick, and that good health, good teeth and good temper come from plain food, plenty of sleep and being good." In order to thrive, children require a certain amount of "letting alone." Supreme faith, in the mother, few toys, no finery, plain food, no drugs and early to bed are the best things for making them happy .- For the Quiver.

A Queer Patient.

Living with a prominent physician of this city, and undergoing treatment for a nervous disorder, is a young woman whose name it is not material to the story to make public. Soon after she went to live in the family, or soon before, it is not exactly known which, money was missed from the house, but nothing was said of it. One day the patient walked into the parlor and informed the family which was assembled there, that they had lost money, but requested them not to worry about the loss as the money would be returned, though perhaps in small sums. Sure enough in a few days the lost money began to flow back through the mails, $1 or $2 at a time. When spoken to subsequently about the revelation she had made, the young woman seemed utterly amazed, and denied that she had ever made any such disclosure. Then it dawned upon the family, they say, that this young woman was a somnambulist, if not possessed of supernatural powers. One day members of the household went out to do some shopping. While in a shoestore the young woman_talked very intelligently to a clerk about shoes, and finally concluded that she could not afford just then to purchase a pair. Next day she knew nothing at all about the event, and insisted that she had not been out of doors on the day in question. On another occasion she came down-stairs and told the family the house was to be burglarized on a certain night at a given hour and minute, which she named. About 8 o'clock on the evening of the night when the burglary was to occur she again sauntered down-stairs, and with the same unconcerned air told the family that at 7 p'clock that evening the burglars had changed their plans regarding the time, but that the burglary would take place in precisely the manner already described. A few nights afterward a noise in the front hall caused an alarm to be raised. A lamp was lighted, when it was discovered that the door had been forced in just as the young woman said it would be, but nothing had been stolen. This story has been told the police.—Syracuse Journal.

The Swiss people appreciate the value of their natural scenery in attracting the foreigner. A short time ago it was announced that manufacturers were making arrangements to construct a huge dam, by means of which they hoped to subsidize the Rhine to a degree of fifteen thousand horse-power for the service of their factories. The government of the place immediately forbade the scheme on the plea of beauty and business, and another, though smaller, Niagara

"It Saved My Life"

Is a common expression, often heard from those who have realized, by personal use, the curative powers of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, believing as I do that, but for its use, I should long since have died from lung troubles. - E. Bragdon, Palestine, Tex.

About six months ago I had a severe Hemorrhage of the Lungs, brought on by a distressing Cough, which deprived me of sleep and rest. I had used various cough balsams and expectorants, without obtaining relief. A friend advised me to try vised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and am happy to say that it helped me at once. By continued use this medicine cured my cough, and, I am satisfied, saved my life.—Mrs. E.

Coburn, 18 Second st., Lowell, Mass. I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave, had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy .- D. A. McMullen, Windsor, Province of Ontario.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years ago I took a very severe Cold which settled on my lungs. I consulted physicians, and took the remedies they prescribed, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health. - Lizzia M. Allen, West Lancaster, Ohio.

GOOD COFFEE.

Everybody wants it, but very few get it, because most people do not know how to select coffee, or it is spoiled in the roasting or making. To obviate these difficulties has been our study. Thurber's package Coffees are selected by an expert who understands the art of blending various flavors. They are roasted in the most perfect manner (it is impossible to roast well in small quantities), then put in pound packages (in the bean, not ground;) bearing our signature as a guarantee of genuineness, and each package contains the Thurber recipe for making good Coffee. We pack two kinds, Thurber's "No. 34," strong and pungent, Thurber's "No. 41," mild and rich. One or the other will suit every taste. They have the three great points, good quality, honest quantity, reasonable price. Ask your Grocer for Thurber's roasted Coffee in pound packages, "No. 84" or "No. 41." Do not be put off with any other kind-your own palate will tell you what is best. Where persons desire it we also, furnish the "Ideal" Coffee-pot, the simplest, best and cheapest coffee-pot in existence. Grocers who sell our Coffee keep them. Ask for descriptive circular. Respectfully, &c.,

Your Children

Are constantly exposed to danger from Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, and diseases peculiar to the throat and lungs. For such ailments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, promptly administered, affords speedy relief and cure.

As a remedy for Whooping Cough, with which many of our children were afflicted, we used, during the past winter, with much satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For this affection, we consider this preparation the most effi-cacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge. - Mary Park-hurst, Preceptress, Home for Little Wanderers, Doncaster, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint. — David G. Starks, Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Cough. This medicine allays all irritation, prevents inflammation from extending to the lungs, and quickly subdues any tendency to Lang Complaint.
- J. B. Wellington, Plainville, Mich. I find no medicine so effective, for Croup and Whooping Cough, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It was the means of saving the life of my little boy, only six months old, carrying him safely through the worst case of Whooping Cough I ever saw.—Jane Malone, Pincy Flats, Tenn. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
