Sherman Wants an Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, April 10 .- Senator Sherman said to-night that he thought the President should by all means call a special session of Congress to convene as early as October. The Senator thought by doing this the President would be able to bring about the necessary legislation for the good of the country previous to the immediate approach of the Presidential canvass of 1888.

In Washington, on Monday, an exciting scene took place in the Supreme Court room in the District. A defendant threatened to shoot the attorney of the plaintiff, whereupon a friend of the defendant assaulted the plaintiff's lawyer. He felled him with a stick. The judge said he would attend to these threateners and assaulters in a court of justice, on the next day.

The Inter-State Commerce Commissioners vary in height from the gigantic Walker, who is much over six feet in height, to Judge Cooley, who is only about five feet six. Commissioner Bragg is the typical Southerner. In his dress he evidently takes Attorney-General Gar land for a model. Commissioner Schoonmaker looks like a conservative business man. His features much resemble Blaine's.

Mr. Morrow, clerk of the Superior Court of Mecklenburg county, says the Charlotte Chronicle of Monday, received from Mr. T. E. Addressing the clerk, Mr. McCorkle says ; " I have an old patent in my office for 200 acres of land, granted to Robert McDowell in 1768, by George the Third. The tract in question is described as situated on the east side of Little Buffalo, a branch of Rocky River, adjoining Moses White's land and following Governor Dobb's lines to some extent, etc. Should the present owner have use for the plot and lines in the original survey, he will know where to find them. The survey was made by Wm. Dickson.

Friends of Ireland.

LONDON, April 11.-To-day, the day appointed for the great radical demonstration at Hyde Park, to protest against the passage of the Irish Coercion bill, dawned bright and clear with a balmy atmosphere and brilliant sunshine. At an early hour large masses of workmen assembled at the various designed rendezvous, and forming in long processions began wending their way toward Hyde Park, Vast crowds were soon marching from every district of London, headed by bands of music. The leaders came first in carriages. A number of banners with the portraits of Mr. Gladstone, Davitt and Father Keller inscribed, with the words 'Justice to Ireland,' were carried by the processionists. The greatest enthusiasm prevails. In the park, fourteen stands for speakers have been erected along the whole frontage facing the fashionable park lane.

The meeting was the largest ever held in this city, and was a most orderly and enthusiastic gathering. After a number of speeches had been delivered denouncing the enactment of the coercive measure now before Parliament, an anti-coercion motion was put simultaneously from the fourteen platforms, and unanimously carried with the wildest enthusiasm. Mr. Gladstone watched the procession from a ward in Piccadilly, and received an ovation.

The attendance was estimated upwards of 250,000, including delegations from leading centres of population and industry in England. The masses voted Home Rule and anti-Coercion resolutions and confidence in Mr. Gladstone with deafening roars, applause, and continuous rounds of cheering.

The demonstration was in all respects the most remarkable known in the history of British reform since the Anti-Corn law agitation movement in the provinces, developing in most extraordinary manner. There were 170 meetings of radical workingmen's clubs on Sunday night, and over 300 were recorded in different parts of the country to-day.

The movement is almost equal as a popular verdict to a general parliamentary election. A bid for Mr. Par-

LONDON, April 9 .- None of the morning papers speak of the memorandum issued by President Cleveland yesterday containing his views on the retaliatory legislation passed by Congress against Canada. The Times, however, devotes a great deal of space to a new phase of the Canadian fishery question. It appears that the Newfoundland Legislature has passed an act recently prohibiting French fishermen from coming to their inland waters for the purpose of either taking or purchasing bait. The Imperial Government here has declined to approve this act until after the present fishing season is over, basing their refusal on protests received from the French government to the effect that the French fishermen are now under weigh, and that great loss would ensue if they should now be shut off from this source of supply. Meanwhile the fishermen of Newtoundland, it is said, are threatened with starvation. The ports of the United States are to be closed against them, and the French fishermen undersell them in France, so that they cannot go there. Therefore have made an appeal to the Imperial Government here for relief in the shape of damages. The Times advocates the payment of a bounty to these fishermen and the exclusion of the French fishermen from the privileges of the inland waters during the next fishing season.

The President Declines.

WASHINGTON, April 11.-A committee called at the White House this morning to invite the President to attend a meeting to be held at Masonic Temple on Thursday evening to protest against the passage of a coercion government. Col. Lamar met the delegation and told them that whatever might be the President's feelings there would be manifest impropriety in his taking any action in this matter in his official capacity. The comto present the invitation and withdrew without seeing the President.

No effort was made today to prevent the sale of newspapers or cigars, nor were the restaurantkeepers notified to close their places. The Chief of Police has been ordered, however, to arrange for the enforcement of the statute to the letter on next Sunday.

"There is much excitement in Ottawa, Canada, over an official notice to the effect that during the presence of Lord Landsdowne in the Senate chamber at the opening of Parliament on the 14th inst. the galleries of the Senate will be closed. This is the first time in the history of the Dominion that such a step has been taken, the galleries of the Senate always on such occasions being open to the public, who are admitted by ticket. The explanation is given that it will prevent confusion. The opinion is that Landsdowne has received letters, the threats contained in which, he is afraid, will be carried into effect if a crowd is permitted to enter the gallery of the Chamber while he is opening Parliament on lem yesterday (Sunday).
