

Table with rates of subscription in advance, listing terms like One Year, Six Months, Three Months, Two Months, One Month.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENTS.

No advertisements inserted in Local column at any price. An extra charge will be made for double-column or triple-column advertisements.

THE RAILROADS.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS.

Table listing arrival and departure times for Richmond and Danville, North Carolina, and North-Western N. C. Railroads.

THE POSTOFFICE.

Mails for the North close at 8.00 a. m. and 9.00 p. m. Charlotte 9.00, Raleigh 9.00, Salem 9.00, Fayetteville 9.00.

RESIDENT CLERGYMEN.

- Presbyterian: Dr. J. Henry Smith, N. Church St. Rev. E. W. Smith, Ashboro St. S. Greensboro.

PRODUCE MARKET.

Table listing prices for various produce items like Apples, Bacon, Butter, Eggs, Flour, etc.

RETAIL PRICES OF GROCERIES.

Table listing retail prices for items like Bacon, Sides, Hams, Shoulders, Cheese, Coffee, etc.

PATENTS.

Inventors and patentees and all having business with the U. S. Patent-Office are invited to communicate with me.

The Morning News.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO, AND OF THE STATE. VOL. I GREENSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1887. No. 78

THE LATEST NEWS.

KILLED HIS RIVAL WITH A CANE.

A Boyish Murder Resulting Each Loving the Same Girl.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., April 13.—A quarrel over a girl away back in the holidays resulted to-night in a boyish murder at Darlington, a village eleven miles from here.

Another International Yacht Race.

LONDON, April 11.—Certain sporting yachtsmen at Portsmouth, who are ever to the fore, have in contemplation an international yacht race which, by its admirably chosen course from Spithead to the Shambles Lightship off Portland and back, and by the generous concession to Americans in allowing the free use of the vexed centreboard, bids fair to rank among the chief events of the year.

A Singular Accident on the Cape Fear River.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 11.—News was received here to-day of an accident on the Cape Fear river, about eighteen miles below Fayetteville, by which John Atkinson lost his life.

Governor Hill's Veto.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 12.—Gov. Hill this morning sent to the Assembly a strong veto of the bill prohibiting the sale of liquor in the Capitol restaurant.

The Boycotters' Sentence.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 12.—Benjamin F. Glidden, David T. McNamara and Thos. Malchoy, members of typographical union, No. 4, of this city, convicted for boycotting the Journal of Commerce, were before Judge Sanford in the Supreme Court this morning for sentence.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

About Easter—A Call—Pic Nics—Hymeneal—Newspapers—Closed—A Reminder—&c., &c.

Easter Sunday was a most beautiful day, and the floral decorations in the Episcopal churches and the Catholic church in this city were magnificent.

Rumors of War.

LONDON, April 12.—War rumors are widely circulated to-night. The Standard started the new series to-day with specials from its Paris correspondent, declaring that the French arsenals have resumed their activity and that the French armaments by land and sea show no sign of abatement.

The Times editorials on the Irish question are extraordinarily bitter and attract attention to-day. Mr. Gladstone is savagely assailed for the leading part he has taken in arousing the British masses to sympathise with the Irish democracy and the Parnellites are again denounced in effect as public and private robbers.

The India office this morning received an official dispatch stating that the Amers troops had met the insurgent Ghilzais and inflicted on them a signal defeat. After a signal and bloody fight the Ghilzais sustained heavy losses and are in full retreat.

Death of Dr. Eben S. Stearns.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 13.—Eben S. Stearns, LL. D., Chancellor of the University of Tennessee and President of the State Normal College, died at the Chancellor's residence on the college grounds at 5 o'clock this morning.

A Ghastly Discovery.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 12.—A ghastly discovery was made by Charles G. Corley while hunting, about a mile east of Mud lake yesterday. A skeleton in broadcloth clothes and grand army slouch hat was found in a quagmire where the unfortunate had evidently been smothered to death or stuck in the mud and starved to death.

Mr. Randall Gradually Improving.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Mr. Randall, who has been sick for some days with his old disease, rheumatic gout, is gradually improving and hopes to be able to be out in a few days.

The New York World says convicts in the Massachusetts State Prison have rebelled against baked beans.

The New York World says convicts in the Massachusetts State Prison have rebelled against baked beans. Innovation and iconoclasm keep up their vandal assaults on the most cherished idols of New England.

PEEPS AT AUTHORS.

William Walter Phelps is writing a biography of James A. Garfield for Appleton's encyclopaedia.

Miss Braddon gets about $5,000 for the serial rights of a new story, and, as she writes something like two a year, her earnings are considerable.

The friends of Walt Whitman will give him a reception at the Madison Square theatre, New York, April 14. Mr. Whitman will deliver a new lecture.

George C. Gorham, of Washington, formerly secretary of the Senate, is to write a biography of Edwin M. Stanton. He hopes to complete it in two years.

Mrs. Louise Chandler Moulton has a home on Rutland square, Boston, although she passes much of the year in England. She is not a good sailor, and with all her voyages has no great love for the sea.

Sidney Luska (Harry Harland), the popular young author, is but 25 years of age. "As it was written" has had a sale of 50,000 copies, and the French translation of it is in the fortieth edition.

George W. Cable owns a house on Paradise Road, Northampton, Mass., where he lives and labors, and enjoys domestic life with his wife and six children.

Beecher's last literary work was the story of his experiences in England at the time of the rebellion, which he was writing for the Century. He had finished twenty-six sheets of note paper, and these pages with the pen beside them, still wet from the last dip in the inkstand, lay on the desk in the room where he died.

LADIES' GOSSIP.

Tailor-made suits for women grow more and more masculine. Bonnets remain very close at the sides, the trimming being massed on top.

Corduroy jackets, bound and faced with red, are among the spring novelties. Bracelets are worn more than ever and are out in a great variety of new designs.

Late vests from London are of navy blue flannel embroidered in white and red. Moire antique, in which our grandmothers used to flourish, is revived in all its glory this season.

Small diamond earrings are crowding out the hazelnut size. The Princess of Wales began the pushing. A desperate attempt is making in fashionable circles in Paris to discountenance frizzes of every description.

Leather buttons are a novelty. They come in alligator skin or smooth Russia leather and are suitable for walking suits and jackets. At a recent aristocratic carnival ball at Vienna the toilets of the 120 ladies who formed the cortege represented a value of £50,000.

Suede gloves have nothing on earth to do with Sweden. They are made of ordinary kid with the outer cuticle, as it were, stripped off. Danish gloves have no affinity with Denmark; they are prepared in Germany.

A peculiar genius advertises a new kind of watch for a "society belle." Within the case he has arranged receptacles for a powder puff, pencils for the cheeks, and a tiny mirror, in order that the decorating may be done artistically.

Fashionable ladies will still wear their hair high this spring and summer. For ordinary wear the back hair is twisted on the top of the head with two loops forming a bow knot.

The fair ladies who are usually present at the queen's drawing rooms make such a chatter her majesty has had the barrier which separates them from those who pass before her set back ten feet.

At the last court ball before Lent, Queen Marguerite, of Italy, wore a skirt of very pale green faille, embroidered with gold, the train of a somewhat darker shade, being trimmed with a raised brocade of leaves in varied shades.

The cost of an ordinary glass of pure whiskey is said to be 13-10 cents, yet we continue to pay the regulation price—fifteen cents—for slough water, colored with tobacco juice and tempered with soldier's coat buttons and ash hopper nails.

Tuberose Bulbs. In quantities to suit purchases. Will bloom this season. Very cheap at GEORGE J. STARR'S.

EDITORIAL BRIEFINGS.

"Over two thousand men can go to work to-day, and we consider the strike virtually over," said President Campbell, of the Carpenters Union, Chicago, on Tuesday last.

Lieutenant C. V. Morris, a retired United States naval officer and a grandson of Robert Morris, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, died at Sacketts Harbor, N. Y., Monday, aged 85 years.

Rev. Charles Howard, Rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church, of Englewood, who shot his wife and attempted to shoot his daughter some time since, was arraigned in the Bergen county court Monday. He pleaded not guilty to both indictments.

President Cleveland has appointed as the Commission to investigate the affairs of the Pacific railways, under the act of the late Congress, ex-Gov. Pattison, of Pennsylvania; E. Ellery Anderson, of New York, and David L. Littler, of Illinois—two Democrats and one Republican.

W. J. Bigwood, a saloon keeper at Eddysville, Ky., was shot and killed without provocation Monday afternoon, by Hyland Skinner. Skinner is of a prominent family, only 21 years old, but a desperate character.

The Republicans of Rhode Island and all along shore, will no doubt be pleased to learn that the Democrats were badly whipped in the municipal contest at Trenton, N. J., Monday. For the first time in twenty-five years a Republican was chosen Mayor of the city.

A part of the crew of the Coronet is back at home, and the charges that the hard-worked sailors are making against Mr. Bush, the owner, are anything but pleasant. The men claim that they were promised a share of the $20,000 purse if the Coronet won. Not a cent have they received.

St. Augustine, the oldest city in the United States, was afflicted, on Tuesday last, with a two hundred thousand dollar fire. It broke out in the St. Augustine hotel, which was burned, and out of about one hundred occupants only one person is missing—Bridget Murphy, an employee. Loss of the hotel, $100,000; insured for $40,000.

Small diamonds are crowding out the hazelnut size. The Princess of Wales began the pushing. A desperate attempt is making in fashionable circles in Paris to discountenance frizzes of every description.

Leather buttons are a novelty. They come in alligator skin or smooth Russia leather and are suitable for walking suits and jackets. At a recent aristocratic carnival ball at Vienna the toilets of the 120 ladies who formed the cortege represented a value of £50,000.

Suede gloves have nothing on earth to do with Sweden. They are made of ordinary kid with the outer cuticle, as it were, stripped off. Danish gloves have no affinity with Denmark; they are prepared in Germany.

A peculiar genius advertises a new kind of watch for a "society belle." Within the case he has arranged receptacles for a powder puff, pencils for the cheeks, and a tiny mirror, in order that the decorating may be done artistically.

Fashionable ladies will still wear their hair high this spring and summer. For ordinary wear the back hair is twisted on the top of the head with two loops forming a bow knot.

The fair ladies who are usually present at the queen's drawing rooms make such a chatter her majesty has had the barrier which separates them from those who pass before her set back ten feet.

At the last court ball before Lent, Queen Marguerite, of Italy, wore a skirt of very pale green faille, embroidered with gold, the train of a somewhat darker shade, being trimmed with a raised brocade of leaves in varied shades.

The cost of an ordinary glass of pure whiskey is said to be 13-10 cents, yet we continue to pay the regulation price—fifteen cents—for slough water, colored with tobacco juice and tempered with soldier's coat buttons and ash hopper nails.

Tuberose Bulbs. In quantities to suit purchases. Will bloom this season. Very cheap at GEORGE J. STARR'S.

EDITORIAL BRIEFINGS.

"Over two thousand men can go to work to-day, and we consider the strike virtually over," said President Campbell, of the Carpenters Union, Chicago, on Tuesday last.

Lieutenant C. V. Morris, a retired United States naval officer and a grandson of Robert Morris, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, died at Sacketts Harbor, N. Y., Monday, aged 85 years.

Rev. Charles Howard, Rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church, of Englewood, who shot his wife and attempted to shoot his daughter some time since, was arraigned in the Bergen county court Monday. He pleaded not guilty to both indictments.

President Cleveland has appointed as the Commission to investigate the affairs of the Pacific railways, under the act of the late Congress, ex-Gov. Pattison, of Pennsylvania; E. Ellery Anderson, of New York, and David L. Littler, of Illinois—two Democrats and one Republican.

W. J. Bigwood, a saloon keeper at Eddysville, Ky., was shot and killed without provocation Monday afternoon, by Hyland Skinner. Skinner is of a prominent family, only 21 years old, but a desperate character.

The Republicans of Rhode Island and all along shore, will no doubt be pleased to learn that the Democrats were badly whipped in the municipal contest at Trenton, N. J., Monday. For the first time in twenty-five years a Republican was chosen Mayor of the city.

A part of the crew of the Coronet is back at home, and the charges that the hard-worked sailors are making against Mr. Bush, the owner, are anything but pleasant. The men claim that they were promised a share of the $20,000 purse if the Coronet won. Not a cent have they received.

St. Augustine, the oldest city in the United States, was afflicted, on Tuesday last, with a two hundred thousand dollar fire. It broke out in the St. Augustine hotel, which was burned, and out of about one hundred occupants only one person is missing—Bridget Murphy, an employee. Loss of the hotel, $100,000; insured for $40,000.

Small diamonds are crowding out the hazelnut size. The Princess of Wales began the pushing. A desperate attempt is making in fashionable circles in Paris to discountenance frizzes of every description.

Leather buttons are a novelty. They come in alligator skin or smooth Russia leather and are suitable for walking suits and jackets. At a recent aristocratic carnival ball at Vienna the toilets of the 120 ladies who formed the cortege represented a value of £50,000.

Suede gloves have nothing on earth to do with Sweden. They are made of ordinary kid with the outer cuticle, as it were, stripped off. Danish gloves have no affinity with Denmark; they are prepared in Germany.

A peculiar genius advertises a new kind of watch for a "society belle." Within the case he has arranged receptacles for a powder puff, pencils for the cheeks, and a tiny mirror, in order that the decorating may be done artistically.

Fashionable ladies will still wear their hair high this spring and summer. For ordinary wear the back hair is twisted on the top of the head with two loops forming a bow knot.

The fair ladies who are usually present at the queen's drawing rooms make such a chatter her majesty has had the barrier which separates them from those who pass before her set back ten feet.

At the last court ball before Lent, Queen Marguerite, of Italy, wore a skirt of very pale green faille, embroidered with gold, the train of a somewhat darker shade, being trimmed with a raised brocade of leaves in varied shades.

The cost of an ordinary glass of pure whiskey is said to be 13-10 cents, yet we continue to pay the regulation price—fifteen cents—for slough water, colored with tobacco juice and tempered with soldier's coat buttons and ash hopper nails.

Tuberose Bulbs. In quantities to suit purchases. Will bloom this season. Very cheap at GEORGE J. STARR'S.

For Rent. Store room on Davis street. Will be rented cheap. Apply to D. E. Sherwood, lock box 325, Greensboro, N. C.

Ice Notice. Persons wishing to use ice during the summer will find it to their advantage to get ice from J. R. Hughes, as he is now ready to deliver and can furnish it longer than any other dealer.

To the Citizens. Having bought P. L. Groom's stock of new Goods and added largely to the same, I am prepared to supply the citizens of Greensboro with everything nice and fresh in the way of Fancy Groceries, Confections, Cigars and Tobacco. Come examine my stock and get prices before you buy. I will treat you right. Respectfully, W. A. BRAME, Under Benbow Hall.

No Mistake! I have decided to discontinue the Millinery business, and any one wishing to engage in business would do well to call and see me at once. My stock is entirely of new spring and summer goods. Mrs. T. A. LYON, Under Benbow Hall, Grove Form.