AN EDITOR'S HOLIDAY.

A Trip to the head of the Road - Good, Railroad - Fine Scenery - Walnut Cove, Past, Present and Future.

(Editorial Correspondence.)

As stated in Wednesday's paper, the editor took the C. F. & Y. V. train on that morning to make a trip "up the road" in the interest of THE MORNING NEWS.

Arriving at Summerfield we stepped off the train and booked two subscribers - Mr. Jesse F. Hoskins and Mr. J. H. Siddings. The train stops here only five minutes.

Reaching the next station, Archdale, we found quite a crowd of people assembled on the platform, to see the cars come in.

Through the courtesy of Maj. Atkinson and Treasurer R. P. Gray, who were going to the head of the road to pay off the hands, we were offered a seat on the construction engine.

The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway runs through this town. It is situated twenty-nine miles north of Greensboro, and is distant from the State capital (by rail) one hundred and ten miles.

The social event of the season was the grand ball given by the young men of the town on Monday night. Among the ladies present we note the following: Misses Cornelia and Mildred Hill, Miss Crews, Miss Kate Nelson, Miss Burchfield, Miss Gillie Chofin and Miss Poindexter of Germantown.

The thermal belt runs six miles north of Walnut Cove and is a fine fruit country on account of the quality and quantity raised. A large number of brandy distilleries are located in Stokes, but there are no whisky distilleries in the county.

Academy, for males and females, will be erected during the summer, the materials for which are now being hauled to the spot. Fifteen lots have been sold for stores, eight of which are now in course of construction.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway will be held in Walnut Cove on the 5th of May next.

The town of Stokesburg is just a half mile from Walnut Cove and receives its mail at the Walnut Cove postoffice. The two towns are of about equal size and are separated from each other by the railroad and Town Fork creek, which run parallel between them.

On and after Monday next the passenger trains will be run regularly to Walnut Cove. The grand ball given by the young men of the town on Monday night.

The high license law will crowd out several of our saloons. We learn that only about six out of the twenty-four will continue business.

The Beauford Record says a resident of that town, who is over sixty years of age, served for the first time in his life on a jury at the last term of court.

THE LATEST NEWS.

Judge Lynch Defends Himself.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 13.—Owing to the sharp criticism by the State press of the recent lynching of the five negroes at Yorkville, one of the lynchers, over the signature of Judge Lynch, will publish a long manifesto to-morrow in a local paper.

A Woman Banker Skipped.

EDITORIAL BRIEFINGS.

Parts of Michigan last week had the heaviest snow storm of the season.

One mill at Minneapolis, Minnesota, turns out 5,000 barrels of flour per day.

The Texas cattle business is not a third as large as it was a year ago. Prices also are much lower.

An equestrian statue of Albert Sidney Johnston was unveiled at New Orleans, last week, with imposing ceremonies.

The Prohibitionists carried Rankin county, Mississippi, last week, and at the same time the anti-Prohibitionists carried Staunton, Va.

Onancock, Accomac county, Va., had a large fire, on Tuesday night last. The business portion of the town was consumed. Loss, $50,000; insured for $19,000.

No news, yet, of the murderer of the girl at Rahway, N. J. On our first page may be seen an account of another mysterious woman murder in Chicago.

It is said that one of the effects of the free pass feature of the Interstate Commerce act is to greatly lessen the pilgrimage of office seekers to the Federal capital, to the great relief to the President and heads of the Departments.

Over 1,000 miles of railroad track has been laid during the first quarter of 1887. It is wonderful how many new roads are projected and under way. Some double tracks will have to be laid on the principal lines in this country.

The President has lately pardoned H. H. Mango, W. R. Brannum,

Some weeks ago a man named Lits, at Walworth, Wisconsin, attempted to commit an unlawful act upon a married lady, and skipped. He returned a few days ago, and on Tuesday night last some men from an adjoining town caught, tarred and feathered him openly. He had his tormentors arrested next day.

The other day, over in Union City, Tennessee, John Thomas, a young negro, was taken from the hands of the court which was trying him for assaulting a younger white girl and hung him over a beam in a court room. It was done in open day light by undisguised men, who cannot be punished for their crime, because the lynching was generally commended.

At the examination of C. Rourke, at Utica, N. Y., on Thursday last, the cowboy express robber, messenger, Leake positively identified Rourke as his assassin and related the story of the robbery between Clark's mills and Utica substantially as heretofore published. Rourke entered the car unobserved, shot Leake, bound and gagged him and rifled the safe.

WHAT IT WILL NOT DO, AND WHAT IT WILL DO.

Editor Morning News.—Knowing that where one person will read a page of law, fifty will read every word in your columns, I beg the privilege of saying a few things more as to what Savings Banks can not do and what they can do.

- 1. They cannot issue currency. 2. They cannot sell drafts. 3. They cannot make collections. 4. They cannot buy commercial paper. 5. They are not conveniently arranged so as to keep mercantile accounts subject to check.

These are some of the cans and canots of the law. A remarkable and deep interest is being expressed touching the opening of the Savings Bank, due largely to the kindly office of the MORNING NEWS.

Gov. Hill's Veto.

The Crosby High License bill has been vetoed by Gov. Hill, of New York. The veto is based upon the grounds that the bill is special legislation, applies to only two cities in the State—New York and Brooklyn—and is clearly unconstitutional.

Catarrh, when chronic, becomes very offensive.

It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time, afflicted with catarrh. This disagreeable disease, in its most obstinate and dangerous forms, can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

All who are in want of Groceries and General Family supplies, will consult their best interest by calling at J. A. Groom & Co's new store on the corner of Sycamore and South Elm sts., and getting their prices. Fine Cigars and Tobacco are specialties. They keep only the best. J. K.
