

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION, IN ADVANCE: One Year by Mail, Postage paid, $4 00 Six Months, " " " 2 00 Three Months, " " " 1 00 Two Months, " " " 75 One Month, " " " 40

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENTS.

No advertisements inserted in Local column at any price. An extra charge will be made for double-column or triple-column advertisements.

THE RAILROADS.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS.

Table with 2 columns: Train Name/Route and Time. Includes Richmond and Danville Railroad, North Carolina Railroad, and North-Western N. C. Railroad.

THE POSTOFFICE.

Table with 2 columns: Location and Time. Lists mail delivery times for North, South, and Eastern directions.

RESIDENT CLERGYMEN.

Presbyterian: Dr. J. Henry Smith, N. Church St. Rev. E. W. Smith, Asheboro St. S. Greensboro Baptist: Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, S. Elm St., South Greensboro.

PRODUCE MARKET.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Lists prices for various goods like Apples, Bacon, Beef, Butter, etc.

RETAIL PRICES OF GROCERIES.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Lists retail prices for items like Bacon, Hams, Shoulders, etc.

PATENTS.

Inventors and patentees and all having business with the U. S. Patent Office are invited to communicate with me with confident reliance upon my fidelity to their interests.

The Morning News.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO, AND OF THE STATE.

VOL. I GREENSBORO, N. C. MONDAY, APRIL 25, 1887. No. 87

THE LATEST NEWS.

Train Goes Through a Bridge.

MOORESBURG, Ont., April 23.—A freight train going west on the grand trunk railway went through the bridge at Nash Creek this morning.

Hail Storm in Mississippi.

YAZOO CITY, Miss., April 23.—One of the severest hail storms for many years prevailed here yesterday. At Rolling Forks the severity of the storm was unprecedented.

Land Caused His Ruin.

COOPERTOWN, N. Y., April 21.—Geo. Clarke, probably the largest land owner in the State, made a general assignment yesterday to Mr. Barnard, banker of Rome.

An Important Movement.

CHICAGO, April 22.—It is reported that the three great socialistic organizations of the United States, the socialist labor party, the international working man's party, and the working people's association—

Distillation to be Reduced.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 22.—The Kentucky distillers association has come to an agreement with a number of large distillers outside the association by which the production of Kentucky whisky will be limited.

Supplies Refused.

TORONTO, Ont., April 22.—United States Consul-General Phelan yesterday telegraphed to Ottawa inquiring whether several of the damaged fishing vessels in port could obtain supplies of salt, and a reply was received to the effect that such could not be allowed under the treaty.

The Queen of the Cannibal Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 23.—Queen Kapiolania, of the Hawaiian Kingdom, arrived this morning from Honolulu on the steamer Australia.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

NEW YORK, Apr. 23.—There was much excitement and active trading on the coffee exchange to-day. Coffee jumped up fifty points and three operators known as the cotton crowd, rushed in this afternoon to cover shorts.

PHILADELPHIA, Apr. 23.—Dr. D. Hayes Angew and James H. Bell yesterday successfully removed a morbid growth in the mouth of Dr. John H. Morton, of Dallas, Tex., an eminent physician and surgeon of the South.

that Congressman Culbertson will stump the State in advocacy of their cause. The Republicans are as yet undecided what course to pursue on the question of prohibition, but it is believed that they will decide against it.

CINCINNATI, Apr. 23.—The Law and Order League succeeded to-day in getting a fine of $25 imposed on each of the four variety actors for performing at a theatre last Sunday.

ST. JOHN, N. F., Apr. 23.—The bill for the total prohibition of the liquor traffic in this colony was defeated in the Assembly by the casting vote by the Speaker.

LIVERPOOL, Apr. 23.—Three hundred Mormon recruits, consisting mostly of Scandinavians and English, have just sailed from here for New York.

TREBUH'S BALEIGH LETTER.

Editor Morning News—Great excitement prevailed in the city last week on account of the revolt of convicts at the Penitentiary. I will not attempt to give a description of the mutiny, as that has been done already in a very creditable manner by your correspondent "Charles."

Rev. Thos. Dixon, Jr., of Goldsboro, a young Baptist minister, has accepted the call to the Second church of this city. He is a gifted speaker and will, no doubt, please the Raleigh people very much.

The Ladies' Memorial Association is making unusual preparations for the celebration of Memorial day on May 10th. The association is composed of some of the most hard working ladies of our city, and managed by their usual energy, we will have a fine celebration.

The Raleigh street railway has been bought by a stock company composed of Messrs. F. H. Busbee, R. T. Gray, Dr. V. E. Turner and others, who will have control of it in the future.

Messrs. A. D. Rovster & Bro., candy manufacturers of this city, are preparing to equip a steam engine in their factory and manufacture all the candy hereafter by steam.

We have had two "strikes" here during the past week. The hands employed on the water works struck Monday, and Tuesday the brick masons, working on the extension of the store of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., struck for higher wages.

The operatic "Red Riding Hood" was presented in a most charming manner by the young people of the Second Baptist church, Thursday and Friday nights.

The Board of Agriculture was in session the latter part of last week, but up to this writing no election has been announced.

Rev. F. L. Smith, evangelist, held meetings all last week in the Christian church.

The Democratic city primaries for the election of Aldermen will be held Monday night, April 25th.

I regret to announce the death of Mrs. C. M. Busbee. She died Thursday afternoon, of pneumonia, after an illness of to days.

STATE NEWS.

Federal Court will begin the third day of May. As there is no jury trial, there will perhaps be no jury trials during the term.—Asheville Advance.

It is stated that on account of scarcity of funds, Judge Dick allowed but three days court at Greensboro and Statesville, Asheville one week, and the Spring Court at Charlotte will go by default. This, notwithstanding the large surplus in the treasury. Who is to blame?—Newbern Journal.

Nathaniel Greene, of Newport, R. I., visited William Wayne, of Paoli, several days ago. The former is a grandson of the famous Revolutionary general of the same name, who, while William Wayne's ancestor, General Anthony Wayne, held the Hessians in check at Chadd's Ford, ran to his relief from Birmingham Meeting House in forty-five minutes.

PHILADELPHIA, Apr. 23.—Dr. D. Hayes Angew and James H. Bell yesterday successfully removed a morbid growth in the mouth of Dr. John H. Morton, of Dallas, Tex., an eminent physician and surgeon of the South.

AUSTIN, Tex., Apr. 23.—The prohibitionists are elated over the report maximum price offered.—S. B. Burton, a colored man, has a mocking bird that imitates to perfection the crowing cock, the cackling hen, and birds of every species. It also whistles "Yahkee Doodle," "Go and tell Aunt Patsy," "The Star Spangled Banner," and "Do you Love me Mollie Darling?"

A delegation of gentlemen representing the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley R. R. were in this city last week to see the Inter State Commerce Commission. The Commission is located in the fifth story of the new marble building recently built and owned by the Baltimore Sun.

Mr. E. B. Thomas, general manager of the Richmond & Danville system, has been appointed to a corresponding position on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad, and will assume active management of the same during the present month.

As Jacob of old sent the boys down into Egypt to buy corn so did the authorities of Henry county send D. W. Spencer, Esq., to Danville a few days ago to purchase a supply of corn for the suffering poor of that county.

The bill to authorize the carrying out the death sentences by electricity was lost on the third reading in the Pennsylvania Senate.

One breach of faith will always be remembered, no matter how loyal your subsequent life may be. People may imagine that they trust you, yet all the time they have an eye to the former breach.

The dress reform fever has caught the students of Wabash college and a number of them have already made appearance in knee breeches. More will follow. The student who doesn't wear knickerbockers isn't in style.

Is the sermon done? was once asked of an old woman as she was leaving the church. No, was the prompt reply, the sermon is preached, but it will have to be done (and practiced) by us hearers during the week.

A little fellow of four years old went to a blacksmith's to see his father's horse shod, and was watching closely the work of the shoeing. The Blacksmith began to pare the horse's hoof, and thinking this wrong, the boy said earnestly, "My pa don't want his horse made any smaller."

The English army is experimenting with bicycles for scouting work. The trials, so far, have been very satisfactory. In every instance they exceeded in swiftness the cavalry, and did their work more secretly. This is largely due, no doubt, to the excellence of the English roads.

One of the laws enacted by the late North Carolina Legislature is in regard to mechanics' liens, though its object was good, its enforcement will certainly cause a great deal of trouble, it is thought. It requires that on contracts for any building or vessel the contractor shall furnish an itemized statement of the amount due each laborer before receiving the price for the work, and the owner of the property is to retain an amount sufficient to pay the laborers.

Persons wishing instruction in Guitar music, will call on Prof. C. L. Wilson, at Mrs. Dixon's, near the Court House. A course of twenty lessons will enable one to play several instrumental pieces, and accompany the voice in song, if the pupil possesses such talent. Terms moderate. Two vocal classes are now in progress under his instruction.

Energy will do almost anything, but it cannot exist if the blood is impure and moves sluggishly in the veins. There is nothing so good for cleansing the blood and imparting energy to the system as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Price $1. Six bottles $5. Sold by all druggists.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The debt committee will meet in Richmond to-day.

Senator Edmund's most constant companion is a fine bull-dog.

Rt. Rev. Alfred Lee, Bishop of Delaware, died in Wilmington, Del., last week.

George W. Childs has a maxim that is good: "Do the best and leave the rest."

In Kansas the husband votes and then goes home and holds the baby while the wife votes.

The latest decision of the Kansas Supreme Court is that a woman may retain her own name when she marries.

Over seventy-five elections have been ordered in different portions of the State on the prohibition question.

Der man who figures dot dis world vhas created simply to git him a chance to lif vhas shenerally buried mit a very short funeral procession.

No matter how bad and destructive a boy may be, he rarely becomes so degraded or loses his self-respect sufficiently to throw mud on a circus poster.

Scott Bar, Cal., has the tallest post-master in the United States. He stands over seven feet in his stockings and weighs 280 pounds.

The post sings: "April showers bring spring flowers." The tobacco man sings April showers make good tobacco seasons. Every man to his business.—Danville Register.

Forest fires have been raging in Connecticut, and near Meriden, on the 15th, 500 acres were destroyed.

Salvation Army in Quebec, Canada, was attacked by a mob; one of the female members was dangerously hurt.

We sleep but the loom of life never stops; and the pattern which was weaving when the sun went down, is weaving when it comes up to-morrow.

The World says that there is a great reform in parliamentary language in the New York Legislature, by substituting crank for the old favorite liar.

It is asserted that in some parts of Kentucky the acreage in tobacco for 1887 will be only about one fourth of last year's crop.

The Texas drought continues in all its terrible severity. Over 800 square miles of territory is affected and great suffering prevails.

The bill to authorize the carrying out the death sentences by electricity was lost on the third reading in the Pennsylvania Senate.

One breach of faith will always be remembered, no matter how loyal your subsequent life may be. People may imagine that they trust you, yet all the time they have an eye to the former breach.

The dress reform fever has caught the students of Wabash college and a number of them have already made appearance in knee breeches. More will follow. The student who doesn't wear knickerbockers isn't in style.

Is the sermon done? was once asked of an old woman as she was leaving the church. No, was the prompt reply, the sermon is preached, but it will have to be done (and practiced) by us hearers during the week.

A little fellow of four years old went to a blacksmith's to see his father's horse shod, and was watching closely the work of the shoeing. The Blacksmith began to pare the horse's hoof, and thinking this wrong, the boy said earnestly, "My pa don't want his horse made any smaller."

The English army is experimenting with bicycles for scouting work. The trials, so far, have been very satisfactory. In every instance they exceeded in swiftness the cavalry, and did their work more secretly. This is largely due, no doubt, to the excellence of the English roads.

One of the laws enacted by the late North Carolina Legislature is in regard to mechanics' liens, though its object was good, its enforcement will certainly cause a great deal of trouble, it is thought. It requires that on contracts for any building or vessel the contractor shall furnish an itemized statement of the amount due each laborer before receiving the price for the work, and the owner of the property is to retain an amount sufficient to pay the laborers.

Persons wishing instruction in Guitar music, will call on Prof. C. L. Wilson, at Mrs. Dixon's, near the Court House. A course of twenty lessons will enable one to play several instrumental pieces, and accompany the voice in song, if the pupil possesses such talent. Terms moderate. Two vocal classes are now in progress under his instruction.

Energy will do almost anything, but it cannot exist if the blood is impure and moves sluggishly in the veins. There is nothing so good for cleansing the blood and imparting energy to the system as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Price $1. Six bottles $5. Sold by all druggists.

RATES OF ADVERTISING: One Square One Day, $1.00 Two Days, $1.75 Three Days, $2.50 Four Days, $3.25 Five Days, $4.00 One Week, $7.50 Two Weeks, $13.00 Three Weeks, $18.50 One Month, $30.00

WILMINGTON & WELDON RAILROAD COMPANY.

CONDENSED SCHEDULE.

Table with 4 columns: Date, Train Name, Time, and Destination. Includes trains going south and north.

CONDENSED SCHEDULE. TRAINS RUN BY MERIDIAN TIME.

Table with 4 columns: Date, Train Name, Time, and Destination. Includes trains going south and north.

CONDENSED SCHEDULE. TRAINS RUN BY MERIDIAN TIME.

Table with 4 columns: Date, Train Name, Time, and Destination. Includes trains going south and north.

CONDENSED SCHEDULE. TRAINS RUN BY MERIDIAN TIME.

Table with 4 columns: Date, Train Name, Time, and Destination. Includes trains going south and north.

CONDENSED SCHEDULE. TRAINS RUN BY MERIDIAN TIME.

SLEEPING CAR SERVICE. On trains 50 and 51, Pullman Buffet Sleeper between Atlanta and New York. New Orleans and Washington via Danville. On trains 52 and 53, Pullman Buffet Sleeper—Montgomery and Washington, Aiken and Washington, via Danville.