

GREENSBORO ALMANAC.—Sun rises 4:14. Sun sets 7:09. Moon rises 10:31.

—Old newspapers for sale at this office at 25 cents per hundred.

—Capitalists who wish to make investments in North Carolina lands, are invited to correspond with the editor of the MORNING NEWS.

—Savings Bank meeting to night at the Court House, at 8 o'clock, sharp.

—“A thing of beauty is a joy forever.” See Sample Brown's show windows.

—Hon. John S. Henderson, of Salisbury, will deliver the literary address at Concordia College commencement.

—Editor Roberson, of the Charlotte Chronicle, spent yesterday in this city. We were not surprised to hear from him that the Chronicle is in a prosperous condition.

—Rev. Mr. Stubbs, Rector of St. Barnabas Episcopal church went down to Raleigh last night to attend the Episcopal Convention which convenes in that city to-morrow.

—We have received the handsome circular of the Atlantic Hotel, of Morehead City, setting forth the new and varied attractions, for this year, of this delightful summer resort.

—Pure candy is wholesome, but adulterated stuff—one-third terra alba—is highly injurious to health. Read the announcement of the Greensboro Candy Company in this day's paper.

—Messrs. C. D. Benbow and C. H. Doughty, of this city, delegates to the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, went down to Raleigh on the freight last night to be present at the organization to-day.

—Yesterday afternoon we were visited by a terrific thunder storm, and the rain poured down in torrents. The lightning was very severe, but if any serious damage was done we did not hear of it.

—The Cora Van Tassel Dramatic Company commenced yesterday a week's engagement in the city of Charleston, after which the company will make another tour of North Carolina.

—Henry Clay Bruce, colored, has been detected in robbing a store at New Supply, of letters, stamps, &c., and has acknowledged his guilt. He is under arrest and in a bad way. We got this item from the Wilmington Review.

—Miss Mattie Hopkins was the name of the young lady who was burned to death by the kerosine explosion in Salisbury, on Sunday, and whose remains passed through this city yesterday morning on the way to Graham for interment.

—Mr. G. Will Armfield got home yesterday from his trip to the northern cities, and, besides having a good time generally, in visiting places of interest, he bought a large and beautiful stock of goods for his wholesale and retail trade.

—A German writer gives this as a remedy for inflammatory rheumatism, of which malady he was cured in two days' time:—Make a soup of the stalks and roots of celery, cut the celery into bits, boil it in water till soft, then serve warm on pieces of toasted bread; drink the celery water.

—The Argus in speaking of the many improvements now being made in “Willowdale” cemetery at Goldsboro, aptly says, “nothing gives a stranger a better opinion of a community than to see proper care and attention paid to the home of the dead.” Is Green Hill what it should be?

—The third Sunday in this month—the 15th instant—has been set apart by the Methodist Church in this State, as “Children's Day,” and it is expected that appropriate services will be held in all the churches, and a collection taken up to aid in the establishment of Sunday Schools in destitute localities.

—The ladies of the Baptist Church request us to announce, that the Coffee House will be open from 12 o'clock noon to-day, to enable those attending the Memorial Exercises to obtain refreshments, and at the same time assist them in a good cause, the finishing of their house of worship. They will serve strawberries with real cream. Ice-cream of various flavors and cake of all kinds.

—Grand Secretary Donald Bain, having issued an order for the purpose, the Masonic Grand Lodge of North Carolina will assemble at Smithfield, Johnston county, to-day, for the purpose of laying the cornerstone and unveiling the Confederate monument erected to the memory of the heroes who fell at the battle of Bentonville. A great crowd will be in attendance.

—It is a pleasure to note new enterprises, and especially in the manufacturing line, and it gratifies us to be able to say that Messrs. Peterfish & Gibbs, two energetic young men of Staunton, Va., have leased Houston & Bro's vacant room, in which they will open a cigar factory in about ten days. These young men come highly recommended, and are expert at the cigar business. They are just such men as succeed wherever they go. Success to them.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES TO-DAY.

PROGRAMME.
The procession will be formed promptly at 9 o'clock at the Court House and proceed to Green Hill cemetery in the following order:

Greensboro Cornet Band.
Fire Company.

Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of the various orders, Teachers and Pupils of G. F. College and other schools.

In carriages will follow Soldiers of the late war, Mayor and City Council, Orator of the Day and Ministers, Ladies of Memorial Association, citizens in carriages and on foot.

Prayer at the cemetery by Rev. E. W. Smith.

Music.

Decorations of graves.

Benediction by Rev. G. F. Smith.

The procession will then return to the Court House and hear the address of the Orator of the Day, J. M. Leach, Jr., of Lexington.

The following young gentlemen are requested to act as assistant marshals: S. L. Alderman, Marshall Williams, D. Schenck, Jr., W. T. Chichester, Rob't Mebane, and H. W. Holcombe.

The marshals are requested to be present at the Court House square at 8:30 o'clock.

C. G. WRIGHT,
Chief Marshal.

Editor Morning News:—We notice with much pleasure the announcement of a Farmers' Institute, to be held in the City of Greensboro on the 20th and 21st instant. We hope that every township in Guilford county will be strongly represented by energetic, wide awake farmers on that occasion, and organize a Farmers' Association of Guilford county, and through it every township in the county into clubs. It would, no doubt, result in great good to the farming interests of the county.

Will our county papers be so kind as to publish this call, and urge upon their farmer readers its importance? MANY FARMERS.

Is It a Genuine Volcano?

NOGALES, Ari., May 7.—Parties from Sonora reported a volcanic eruption three days ago, thirty-five miles southeast of Magdalena, and that great volumes of smoke and lava are being thrown out. From the position of the fire, which is distinctly seen from several stations on the Sonora Railroad, it is supposed to be in the Sierra Azul Mountains. The reported volcano in the Whetstone Mountains is a timber fire.

NEW STYLES.

Lace and tulle bonnets are all the rage just at this moment, but those of straw are in preparation.

The back of basques is gradually becoming much larger, and may be plain or shirred or cut with bias forms.

The new bonnets are heaped with flowers, and have bees and butterflies, emerald beetles and lady bugs upon them.

An English lady fashion writer says that hoods should extend below the waist like a Watteau pleat. Watteau, by the way, is a Watteau pleat?

CERTAINTIES.

“Before the Throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal.”—Rev. iv. 6.

On the glassy sea of green,
Flooded with God's noontide keen,
Can there be for sin a screen?
Omnipresence none can flee;
Flight from God to God must be.

Evermore with God must I
Dwell in strife or harmony;
Evermore my changeless past
Gaze on me out the vast;
Thou art first and Thou art last.

Oh! if now before Thy face,
In Thy brightness I had place,
With the past unscreeened from me,
Thou from whom I cannot flee,
How could peace abide with me?

Since from Thee in heart estranged,
If this instant I, unchanged,
Where in Heaven, Thou, God, dost know,
Highest Heaven were deepest woe,
I and it are variant so.

God, O God! Thy likeness give;
In and of Thee let me live;
God, O God! for sin atone,
By Thy love awake my own;
I must face Thy great White Throne.

—Joseph Cook.

Our Prices Tell The Tale.

In spite of the oft-repeated complaint of hard times, we have been doing a fair amount of business since the weather turned warmer. When there is any trade going on at all, we get a liberal share, and the big majority of buyers is with us, because we keep the goods they want, and because our prices convince them that they can save Money by dealing with us. We try to make it to the interest of the people to trade with us—to have them so well pleased with the goods they buy that they will be sure to call again. A man who buys one of our $10 all wool Cheviot Business Suits, will give us another call when he needs clothing again—especially when he finds that other houses sell the same suits for $2.50 more money.

We sell Jeans and Cottonades at 8, 10, 12½, 15 cents and upwards, and have this season a very full line of Cassimeres for Suits and Pants, ranging from 50 cents to $1.25. Among the goods we are pushing this week are White Dress Goods, Embroideries and Laces, an elegant line of Lawns, Batistes and Satteens, and a large stock of all kinds of Worsted Dress Goods.

In our Clothing Department we have just opened a nice line of Square-Cut Sack Suits in light colors at $8.00. They are worth more money, but we bought them low and want them to sell fast. We have a nice line of Double-breast Prince Albert Suits at $20.00 good enough for any occasion. Those nobby straw hats with straw bands you see worn on the streets are from BROWN'S.

We sell a nice pair of Lace Curtains, three and a half yards long for $1.25; better ones for more money. Straw matting at 15, 18, 20 cents and upwards. But you cannot realize how far a little money goes nowadays unless you call and see us. Some of the goods we offer so low this week will all be gone by next; be wise in time and call early and often.
