DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO, AND OF THE STATE.

VOL. I.

GREENSBORO, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1887.

No. 101

THE LATEST NEWS.

Whipped for "General Cussedness."

LOUISVILLE, May 9.—A special from Corydon, Ind., to the Post, says: "A man named Thomas Techy living on a small farm five miles south of this place, was taken from his house last night by an organization of regulators, known as the 'Knights of the Switch,' and tied to a tree and whipped so severely that his life is despaired of. His offence is alleged to be non-support of his family and general worthlessness."

Important Discovery.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Thomas A. Eddison, who has returned from Florida, says that he made experiments while South, which convince him that telegraphing through water without the aid of a wire, will ultimately be made possible. So that, for instance, ships several miles apart at sea, may communicate with one another.

Sentenced.

MT. HOLLY, N. J., May 9.—William Agnew who was convicted of murder in the second degree for killing his wife at Palmyra, was today sentenced to the State prison at hard labor for twenty years.

Female Tramps.

BALTIMORE, May 9.—A six days go-as-you-please walking match for female contestants, was begun at Keenan's Monumental Theatre at 11:30 this morning. There were ten starters.

Trumped with the Ace.

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind., May 9.—C. W. Welch, a saloon keeper, died of heart disease Saturday, while playing cards with a party of friends. He had just flourished in the air an ace with which he was about to take up a trick, and when his hand struck the table he was dead.

Fisticuff Editorial.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 9.—A. M. Gardner, editor of the Atlanta World, and H. J. Whittemore, of the Gate City Guards, quarreled yesterday while discussing the recent fight between editor Atwood, of the Capital, and Col. Burke, of the Guards. Mr. Gardner defended Atwood, and Mr. Whittemore stood up for Burke. The controversy ended in a fist fight, the result of which was a badly battered face for Mr. Whittemore and the arrest of both men. The prisoners were soon afterwards released.

The Interminable B. & O. Deal.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Interest in the Baltimore and Ohio deal has been revived by the story that a meeting of the Baltimore and Ohio directors will soon be held, at which the resignation of several of the present directors will be received, and their places filled by members chosen by the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, Lake Erie and Western, and Richmond Terminal Companies. There is some hitch in regard to the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago, and another road joining the system, but outside of this plan, it is said to be complete for the use of the Baltimore and Ohio as a thorough line to Philadelphia, and thence to New York, as soon as the extension can be built. Several directors of the roads named have been questioned in regard to the story, and they admit that it is practically true, but that the minor details have not yet been arranged.

Robert Garrett, C. E. Brice, Sam'l. Thomas, Henry S. Ives, George Iseney, Alfred H. Sully and George H. Stayner are mentioned as among the members of the syndicate buying control of the road, but it is said that some of them will only have but a slight interest in it.

More Blingham Bosh.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 9.—The report that Blingham, the deaf and dumb murderer of Lizzie Turlington, of Raleigh, N. C., was hiding in the deaf mute institute here, is unfounded. Some of the teachers who know Blingham, believe that he is being kept in a private asylum in New York by his friends.

Another Royal Visitor.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Prince Leopold, of Prussia arrived this morning, from Rochester, and took rooms at the Albemarle Hotel. The train was two hours late, and the loyal Germans, who got up early to meet the train, grew somewhat impatient. He was accompanied by Baron Rosenitz and the Count of Kanitz. M. M. Janisch, of the German legation, at Washington met the Prince and escorted him to his apartments in the hotel. He speaks English fluently. He will sail for England, on Saturday, in the steamer Elder.

A Preacher Poisoned.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 9.—Rev. J. W. Maxwell, of the Holiness Band church, is quite ill from the effects of arsenic contained in a glass of lemonade which he found on his pulpit Friday night and drank. He says that this is the fourth time an attempt has been made upon his life.

A New Issue.

NEW YORK, May 9.—A Washington special to the Evening Post says: The Inter-State Commerce Commission has had a new problem submitted to it, namely: Whether the railroads can discriminate against color and force men who pay first-class fare to ride in separate cars. The case has been submitted to the Commission, on complaint of Rev. William H. Council, of Huntsville, Ala., a colored Methodist preacher. He paid first-class fare, was ejected from a regular coach, and was injured. His lawyer claims that the complaint does not come within the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the civil rights case because the Inter-State law comes within the plain provisions of the Federal Constitution.

In too Big a Hurry!

CHICAGO, May 9.—A special to the Tribune from Vincennes, Ind., says: During the afternoon session of the Lutheran Evangelical Synod at Boonville, Philip Gyer, a wealthy citizen of Mount Auburn, Ohio, who was present as a delegate, fell, as it was supposed, dead from apoplexy. The remains were hurriedly prepared for burial and shipped to the home of the deceased. Ten hours after the supposed death, the remains arrived there. The baggage man who had handled the coffin, declared he had heard the dead man kick against the box three or four times, and that it did not handle like dead weight. He suggested an examination, but it was objected to by the gentleman who accompanied the remains. Word was sent to the chief of police of Cincinnati, and the information was telegraphed that on the coffin being opened the man was lying on his face, his shroud was torn, and there were other indications going to show that Gyer had come to life after having been placed in the coffin.

The Southern Baptists.

LOUISVILLE, May 8.—Every Protestant pulpit in the city today except in the Episcopal Churches, was filled by a Baptist preacher, both night and morning. Many of the sermons were notable for the profundity and eloquence with which they were delivered.

And it is generally conceded that the body of delegates to the Convention embraces more scholarship, eloquence and ability than any previous assemblage in the history of the Southern Church. It is now thought that adjournment will be taken by Tuesday afternoon, when the delegates will participate in a grand excursion to the Mammoth Cave.

News by Telegraph.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, May 9.—A private letter received here today from a well-known gentleman at present living in Halle, Germany, says that the announcement has just been made there of the engagement of the daughter of Bayard Taylor and a young officer named Otto Killiani, who is attending medical lectures at Halle. It is said to be a genuine love match. The marriage will be celebrated at Halle during the summer. Killiani is without fortune or family connections.

LONDON, May 8.—Dispatches from Madrid say that rumors are current there that a party of filibusters has landed in Cuba.

After a suspension of four years, work has been resumed on the Hudson tunnel at New York. The tunnel will be used by all railroads which now terminate at Jersey City, the trains of which will run through it to the Union depot, in the vicinity of Washington square, New York.

The dwelling of Leonard Robinson, a wealthy farmer near Marshall, Ill., was broken into on Thursday night last, in the absence of the family, and robbed of $6,000 in cash. Mr. Robinson always distrusted the banks, and kept his money secreted on his premises.

Charles E. Locke, manager of the National Opera Company, has brought suit against the New York Times on behalf of the company for libel. Damages laid at $50,000.

Charleston a Phantom.

"Has Charleston recovered from the effects of the earthquake?"

"Yes, almost completely. It looks like a new town, so well is it built up. Some insist that the earthquake has been a blessing to the town, as it forced all the old fogies to put up new buildings. We would not have put up a new building ourselves had not the earthquake cracked our old ones and compelled us to."

Posy trimmings for hats continue to be the prettiest style yet seen here; the artistic bow which fastens the stems of the flowers together is a very essential part of their beauty.

FASHION NOTES.

Fancy Russian net in color, is the stylish veil.

Pique, in white and color, is stylish for ladies' vests.

Chinese silk handkerchiefs trim children's shade hats prettily.

Gray, blue and Suede color are the favorite shades in straw.

Straw lace is used as a trimming on some English costumes of light fabrics.

Puffed sleeves will be tried again this season; they were not successful last season.

A soft white girdle of trilled silk is worn by young girls with very becoming effect.

The blouse-basque is a novelty in waists, which promises to be very stylish for young girls.

Turbans with crowns of straw lace are stylish, and are to be much worn for dressy headgear.

In some of the new fabrics the selvage is used as a trimming, or at least as a finish in neck and sleeves.

The high collar, wrist bands, and belt of fancy jets, are in sets, and lend to a simple costume a very dressy effect.

The stylish chamois skin jackets are for summer wear, otherwise they are pretty with seaside costumes. They are washed easily if the buttons are taken off.

Black silk or Sea Island cotton stockings are worn with fashionable low-cut patent leather shoes which are so generally worn as the weather gets warmer.

The kerchief-rest is the latest, and is altogether a novelty in this line. It is soon in place, and has the effect of being a kerchief knotted carelessly at the waist.

STATE NEWS.

Wilmington Review: The work of erecting the necessary kitchen on the Canaday field for the use of the military encampment has already been commenced.

Washington Progress: Enormous catches of herring are reported from Roanoke river the past week. Our fishermen on the Pamlico are meeting with splendid success this season, the catch being larger than for many years past.

The cattle show takes place in Raleigh on Thursday. The North Carolina Yearly Meeting of Friends will convene this year at High Point on Wednesday, August 10th. We learn from a correspondent at Dudley that a colored man, named Alfred Best, was killed there by train No. 78 on Saturday, being run over while seated on the cross ties evidently asleep or under the influence of liquor. The Progress is the name of a new paper just started at Endfield by ex-Congressman Jas. E. O'Hara, colored. It advocates Republican ideas and is strongly in favor of a well regulated tariff for protection. It is published weekly. A colored man named Wm. Lindsay, while engaged in coupling two cars, at Grant's Brick Yard on Saturday evening, was so fearfully crushed that he died from his injuries a few hours later. Dr. M. E. Robinson attended the unfortunate man, but could do nothing for him but to lighten his agony.—Goldsboro Messenger.

Maj. Wm. A. Smith, of Johnson's who is probably as well known as any man in North Carolina, has become a joint proprietor with Capt. J. B. Edgerly in the conduct of the Gregory House in Goldsboro. Several thousand dollars worth of new furniture has been added to the house and it will be otherwise improved. The Major has moved his family to Goldsboro and occupies his private residence there.—Raleigh Visitor.

It is claimed, and with good reason, that the population of Wilmington will approximate 25,000. The total number of registered voters in the city, as shown by the recent scrutiny of the lists made by direction of the County Commissioners, is over 5,000. The last census, which gave Wilmington some 17,000 population, is it well known was grossly inaccurate. Shortly after it was taken it was ascertained that there were 1,600 taxpayers whose names were not on the census takers' lists.—Wilmington Star.

Ayer's Pills are the best cathartic for correcting irregularities of the stomach and bowels. Gentle, yet thorough in their action, they cure constipation, stimulate the appetite and digestive organs, and strengthen the system.

For Sale.

20,000 first class, hart pine, shaved shingles, call on W. R. Land, Star Warehouse.

Wood for Sale.

I have at South Buffalo, two miles south of town a lot of two foot wood corded, seasoned and for sale there. D. W. C. BENBOW.

As a hair dressing and renovator, Ayer's Hair Vigor is universally commended. It eradicates dandruff, cures itching of the scalp, invigorates and beautifies the hair, and prevents its fading or turning gray.

Room Enough for All.

Mr. D. E. Thomas' old building, which was removed from the corner near the Market and put at the lower end of the long building opposite the Star Warehouse, has been nicely fitted up for Mr. S. B. Bullock, who has made some notoriety for keeping good eatables. Hereafter this house will be called the "National Hotel." Several rooms are furnished for boarders to sleep in and after this date ready meals can be had at all hours. Mr. N. B. Short, who cooked so long for Capt. Hawkins' eating house, has been employed to do the cooking, he needs no recommendation. m5 tm
