American Prima Donna.

CLEVELAND, O., June 1 .-- Miss Amelia Louise Groll, the young singer who is engaged by Carl Rosa to sing in London during the queen's jubilee, is an Ohio ady. She is scarcely 23 years of age and is a striking type of a blonde. She studied at the Cincinnati College of Music when 17, and at 19 carried off Hamilton Fish. William W. Astor fails to have its crowd. The large hall the highest honors of that institution. She traveled for a seanson with an opera company through the western States in 1883. In 1885 she went to Paris and studied for the stage, at the same time singing in an English church. After a year of hard study she went to Berlin and Vienna, and sang acceptably at both places. During the last carnival at Rome she sang under the management of Zonfondi. She also sang in Bologna with success, the Gazetta dell' Emilia, of Bologna, praising her voice and execution. Miss Grall has received many flattering offers to visit America, but it is not Leaves for Charlotte at .......... 9.8 am likely that she will return to the United States for several years. When her season in London expires, she is under contract to go on a South American tour. She will then return to Rome.

She Was Married in Secret.

A secret marriage in fashionable society leaked out in Louisville on Sunday. The contracting parties were Dr. John Y. Oldham, of that city, and Miss Mary S. Flood, of term of the county court. Lynchburg, Va. She is the daughter of Major John Flood, and came to Louisville on a visit to her brother, who is a broker in that city. She is a remarkably beautiful girl, and went out into society a great deal, where she met Dr. Oldham. She was engaged to A. G. White, of Virginia, and the latter suitor being strongly favored by her father, she was unwilling to break off with him. Dr. Oldham urged his suit strongly, and she finally yielded so far as to consent to a secret marriage. The young couple went over to Jeffersonville over a month ago, and after the ceremony was performed returned to their homes. They intended to keep the secret until next fall, when they proposed having a gay wedding in Lynchburg. A few days ago, however, the young lady received a note from Mr. White, announcing that he would pay her a visit, and upon consultation with her husband they decided to disclose the marriage, which was accordingly done Sunday.

The Colored Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 1.-The national convention of colored men called to meet in this city to-day for the purpose of considering the political bondage in which the race has been held since the war, was but slimly attended, and adjourned without transacting any bussiness of importance. For several weeks prominent Republicans here have been writing to colored men of influence in cities denouncing the purposed meeting and claiming that it owed its inception to democratic influence, and that the colored men who would take part in it here were under demooratic influence. Mr. Mopley, who had charge of the local part of the programme, denounces these statements to day and declared that the Republicans were opposed to any meeting of the colored men which would tend to awaken a spirit of independence among them. A reso. lution was adopted calling for national convention next June.

A Plucky Miss.

CHATTANOOGA, June, 1.-Miss Mary Childers, a pretty school teacher of Trenton, Ga., heard some time ago that John Mogars had been circulatwith confident reliance upon my fidelity | ing slanderous reports about her. She rode across Lookout mountain, a dis tance of 15 miles, and at the muzzle of a shot gun forced her traducer to apotogize. Then published Mogars as an "infamous scoundrel" and a bad man generally, and Mogars sent her a challenge to fight. The little woman went to the spot to meet him, but Mogars didn't show up. At last accounts Miss Childers was hunting for him with a horse-whip.

The Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, June 1 .- The reduction, on the public debt during May amounted to $8,888,997, and for the eleven months of the current fiscal year, $92,855,921. The national debt to day less cash in the treasury, is $1,296,281,561. The net cash in the treasury to day is $23.951,692, or about $11,000,0 to less than on May 1st.

Twenty-Seven Days Without Food.

JACKSON, Tenn., June 1.-Yesterday was the twenty-seventh day since Capt. Wm. Murcheson, of Medon, tasted food or drink. He is very teeble, but still retains his mental faculties. He is troubled with paralysis of the throat and refuses all medical attendance as he thinks the doctor would only aggravate the case.

Savings on Lights.

WASHINGTON, June 1. - The gradual substitution of electric light for gas and the adoption of better mechanical methods, and the more judicious purchase of coal for the public buildings throughout the country have resulted in a saving of about $60,000 under the appropriation for fuel, light and water for the current fiscal year.
