Love Forced to Give Way Policy.

BERLIN, June 2.- A marriage has been arranged between Duke Albrecht of Wurtemberg and Princess Victoria of Prussia, daughter of Crown Prince Frederick William. This project is connected with the Wartemberg succession question. It will be remembered that a kind of romantic attachment existed between the Princess and Prince Alexander of Bulgaria. Prince Alexander's attentions and courtship were strongly objected to by Prince Bismarck, and his official request for her hand in marriage received a curt and contemptuous refusal from the Prussian Government.

Form of Introduction.

As the old world question of rank does not hold good in our society, it is customary when introducing two vomen to present the younger or ess important to the elder woman. When the difference between the two parties is debatable or any emphatic distinction seems undesirable, it is quite the custom to strike a balance of respect by saying : "Mrs. A., this is Mrs. Y.; Mrs. Y., Mrs. A." A gentleman is always presented to a lady with some such formula as "Mrs. A., allow me to present Mr-B.," or "Miss C., Mr. B. desires the honor of knowing you." If obliged to introduce herself, when making a first call, a lady will mention her name with its proper prefix of Mrs. or Miss.

An Indiana Hard-Shell.

The Democrat takes no stock in the so-called Puritanic Mugwumpery and its diabolical treachery. The essense Catholic churches of England in honor of Mugwumpery is political treason. of Queen Victoria's jubilee. A satelite of this abortion is either an old barnacle cuffed off the hull of one of the old parties by reason of his stricken conscience and infidelity to his friends, or he is a leech on the neck of the party, sapping it of its vitality. The former is an aggregation of egotism and pomposity, while the latter is the butt of all that is contemptible and volgar. Such as the opinion of the Democrat touching a monumental nuisance.

7 O'clock Sharp!

A Famous Jump.

The falling of Mr. Richard Wil flams, of Manchester, from the Petersburg railroad bridge on Monday recalls a somewhat similar octed by 600 police troops thoroughly currence of twenty-five or thirty years ago, which is yet remembered by some of the older residents of Richmond and Manchester. The memorable event occurred on north-bound passenger train over the Petersburg road was a man whose name if the writer remembers cor-rectly was Pellock. While the train was crossing the bridge he walked out on the rear platform and attempted to commit suicide by deliberately jumping into the river. Strange to say he came out unscratched and unhurt.

Not being satisfied with that experience he the next day made another effort to put an end to his earthly existence by drowning in the James-River and Kanawha canal, now called the basin, but his plans were again frustrated.

Not yet daunted, and being still strongly determined to sever his connection with this world, he a short while later went to Charleston, S. C., and there jumped from the steeple of the market house and accomplished | Ayer's Gathartic Pills. what he had twice before made unsuccessful efforts to do, killing himself almost instantly when he struck the street.

Bob Ingersoll's Latest.

There is no wittier story-teller than

Col. "Bob" Ingersoll. His application of old stories is never at fault. He was at a dinner the other day where a New Yorker, who has a wide reputation as an after-dinner speaker, was somewhat disappointing to the guests. Col, Ingersoll had a neighbor at the table who leaned over and said:

"Colonel, how in the world did Blank come to have such a reputation, as an after-dinner speaker? It does not seem warranted by what he has done to-night."

"That reminds me," said the Cofonel "of a Georgian who came up to Illinois after the war and wanted to sell his. 'uniform.' He asked around at several places, "Do you want to buy a uniform?' Finally some one asked him what grade of uniform it was, when he said; 'It was a private's uniform in Georgia, but I reckon it mout do for a Cunnel in Illinois."
