I see that the preliminary meeting to decide on a place to lold the Tobacco Convention, will be held at Greensboro. That is a good thing for your town. As to the Convention itself, I think it ought to be held here. The News and Observer has given several excellent reasons why it should be held at Raleigh. Raleigh is certainly the central point and the largest town in the "Golden Belt." Six fountains arrived in the city last week, and they will be put up as soon as possible. There are four drinking fountains and two ornamental ones. There are also many private fountains Two arrived last week. Raleigh is still on the bom! The city was made lively Thursday by excursionists from the Bethany Methodist Church of Dyrham. They were about 250 in number and were exceedingly well behaved. How Cragic Tolliver Died. From the Louisville Post. "It has not been published yet, but it is a fact that Craig Tolliver did not die with his boots on." said a gentleman who returned from Morehead last night. "I talked with the woman who keeps the Central Hotel yesterday, and she told me how it happened. She told me that Craig knew that his hour had come, and he had no hope of reaching the brush when he made the break for liberty. Just before starting out he declared 'They've always said I'd die with my boots on, but I'll be---- if I do,' and with that he stooped down and pulled off his shoes and started for the railroad in his sock feet From what this woman told me I'm sure that Craig Tolliver was not afraid to meet his death at the hands of his enemies. He was very much excited and somewhat rattled because he couldn't see anybody to shoot at, but he was not at all afraid to die. He received a letter from Cincinnati five days before the attack warning him of his fate, but he would not escape."

A Cowboy in Rotten Row.

From London Society.

On Whit Sunday Rotten row was desecrated in the alternoon by the appearance of one of Buffalo Bill's cowboys in his customary working costume of red shirt and white sombrero. He was mounted on a mustang, and put it over track at an unsabbalic pace. Everybody was greatly shocked, of course, and apparently expected an upheaval of the earth to take place, but the cowboy loooked delightfully unconcerned, and enjoyed his ride in cursion from Greensboro to Raleigh on the last Friday in July for the purpose of enlarging the cemetery referred to. Rev. C. L. Davis and Rev. C. H. Garland were appointed as a committee to negotiate or make the necessary arrangements with the railroad company, preparetory to the excursion mentioned.

A cordial invitation was extended the Union by Rev. E. H. Garland to attend the dedication of his church, (Hannah, North Buffalo), which will take place next Sabbath at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. H. Williams is appointed to make the dedicational prayer. Rev. J. W. Scott kindly invited the brethren to attend the baptising at his church which will come off Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock, at the usual place. Much regret was entertained on account of the absence of Rev. C. Sampson (Moderator) who was called off to Wilmington (in company with his family), to spend a week with his people and friends. Bro. Gibson was expected to have been present, but failed as usual. He still retains a standing invitation to attend when ever he may make it convenient to do so. The time having arrived the meeting adjourned by prayer by Rev. E. H. Garland to meet at the Providence Baptist Church, Thursday, the 30th inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.
