THE LATEST NEWS.

THEY PREFER BLAINE TO SHERMAN.

An Attempt to Boom the Senator in Ohio Meets Signal Failure.

CINCINNATI, July 11.—Yesterday's meeting of the Republican County Committee demonstrated for the first time to the deluded Shermanites of this section that Mr. Blaine has a following, and an organized one, too, in Hamilton County. It is a well known fact that Senator Sherman and his lieutenants are fearful of a break to Blaine in Ohio of greater dimensions than the one of four years ago. The cause needs bolstering, and therefore it has been proposed to indorse Mr. Sherman for the Presidency at the meeting of the different county committees throughout the State of Ohio.

The committee meeting was for the purpose of naming the time and place for electing delegates to the State Convention, and there was a good attendance. Two or three days ago there was a conference at the Lincoln Club, and it was unanimously agreed that those present would make themselves solid for Sherman if they could get the Hamilton County Committee to indorse the Ohio statesman. A series of resolutions were drawn up with a preamble of five "whereases," lauding the Senator to the skies and declaring him to be the unanimous choice of Ohio (including Hamilton County) Republicans for the Presidency. These were intrusted to John Fehrenbach. The carefully prepared and tally-smearing document was to be sneaked in without anybody being the wiser until the matter appeared in print.

Fehrenbach was on hand with the precious "roll." He was chuckling with delight. William B. Smith called him to one side and told him to keep the resolutions under cover. He explained that the Presidential question should not be brought up, as it might injure the party's chance in the fall. The truth of the matter was, William B. Smith had been told that if the resolutions were offered a motion would be made to strike out the name of John Sherman and insert the name of James G. Blaine. Evidently that he was informed that the amendment would carry. Noses were counted and everything was declared off. Thus died Sherman's first boom in Hamilton County.

Frightened at a Ball of Fire.

DETROIT, July 10.—A curious and frightful phenomenon occurred yesterday afternoon during a rain storm. It was in the shape of an intensely brilliant ball of electric fire, and greatly terrified the family of Capt. J. T. Patten, of No. 38 Hancock avenue west. Hearing a strange noise, Miss Patten entered the darkened sitting-room just in time to see a blazing ball of fire, which she subsequently described as larger than a coconut, burst through the wall-paper from the chimney. Mrs. Patten saw it at about the same time. The ball floated slowly around the room with the buoyancy of a toy balloon, emitting a hissing sound and throwing an intense glare on the surroundings. Clouds of soot burst out from the chimney with it and floated in the blinding glare. The ladies, full of terror, placed their hands over their eyes and turned from the sight.

Just then Mrs. Frank Frisbee, who lives across the street, ran over for a short call. She opened the door and a draft was created, and the blazing visitor darted out. Mrs. Frisbee, almost paralyzed with fear, dodged just in time, and the ball, with a loud hiss, swooped out the door and disappeared. One side of Mrs. Frisbee's face was blackened by the soot or discolored by the ball as it passed her.

To most children, the bare suggestion of a dose of castor oil is nauseating. When physic is necessary for the little ones, use Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take. Try them.

Brilliant Fire Display—Baptist Tabernacle Dedicated—Grape Fair.

RALEIGH, July 11, 1887.

The display of fireworks which was to have been given Monday night took place on Wednesday night at the foot of Fayetteville St. They were very fine and were enjoyed by a vast crowd. The rockets were exceptionally brilliant.

The dedicatory services of the Raleigh Baptist Tabernacle were held Sunday afternoon July 8 at 5 p. m. An original dedicatory hymn was read by the pastor, Rev. Thos. Dixon Jr., short talks were made by the pastors of other churches of the city. Services are held in the Tabernacle every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m.

The Raleigh Cornet Band gave an open air concert in the Capitol Square Friday night. They played only three selections before they were interrupted by the rain. The band will continue to give concerts every week during the Summer.

The Teachers' Excursion from Washington came back Wednesday night. They reported a pleasant trip.

A Grape Show will be held in Raleigh August 4th under the auspices of the Wake County Horticultural Society. This means business and I like to see it. "Old Wake" is coming to the front again. She produces just as many and as fine grapes as any place in the State.

Mr. J. W. Stephens, a plumber, who recently moved here from Portsmouth, Va., is having some fine bath rooms fitted up in the rear of his store on Fayetteville St. He will connect with the city water works and our people may take baths every day. The bath rooms will contain large tubs with all the modern appliances. This is a new enterprise in Raleigh and should be encouraged.

The State Agricultural Society has appointed Mr. A. D. Jones of this city, chief marshal for the next State Fair. This is an admirable selection. Mr. Jones is a lawyer of prominence in Raleigh and was Treasurer of Wake County in 1886.

I was very glad to note in the MORNING NEWS of to-day that Mr. Greek O. Andrews has become a partner and an editor of the NEWS. I congratulate Mr. Hampton on choosing such an able assistant. Mr. Andrews is a writer of power and a man of energy. I have read some of his correspondence to the NEWS and it was first class. I also congratulate Mr. Andrews on associating himself with such a valuable paper as the MORNING NEWS and with such an able man as Mr. Hampton. Mr. Hampton has been in the printing business for many years and knows how to "run" a paper. I anticipate a bright future for the NEWS.

NOTICE.

Miss Louise Jenkins, Hillsboro, a graduate of Hampton, Virginia, has been appointed soliciting agent of the Greensboro Normal and Theological Institute. She has been engaged for several years as teacher of public instruction and has proven to be a Christian young lady of character, veracity and integrity, and promises much good by her zealous labors, in educating, christianizing, and the lifting of her race in the scales of recognition and intelligence. May success attend her efforts, and that her labors among her people may redound to the glory of the master, and to the building up of frail humanity, wherever she may go.

Done by order of the Trustee Board of the Greensboro Normal and Theological Institute.

A Rich Find of Gold.

ISHPEMING, Mich., July 11.—Hundreds of mining men are flocking to see the gold specimens at the First National Bank and Lake Superior office. The assays show that the rock is richer in gold than anything ever yet found. The Lake Superior Iron Company has put a fence around the property. Everybody talks gold, and excitement throughout this part of the State is tremendous. A number of options and leases on adjoining lands were secured to day. Joseph S. Fay of Boston, General Manager of the Lake Superior Company, is expected here in a few days. The shaft in which gold was discovered is down twenty-two feet.

The Fraudulent Bacon.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—The accounts of Mr. Bacon of the Patent Office which were found to be $33,000 with a number of due bills from employees as an offset, are still undergoing examination. This examination declares the fact that many prominent officials of the Interior department, old and recent appointees were in the habit of borrowing from Mr. Bacon. One chief of division in the patent office whose due bill for several hundred dollars was found in Mr. Bacon's papers, was also in the habit of extracting loans from the lady clerks of his division, and the case is now under investigation. Much of the money due Mr. Bacon because of the publicity given the matter has been returned, a former commissioner in the Interior department having paid several hundred dollars due by his brother, while last pay day the entire salary was withheld from upwards of a dozen employees whose due bills graced Mr. Bacon's account books.

In Danger of Lynching.

PETERSBURG, Va., July 10.—The feeling against Reuben Coleman, the negro who assaulted Mrs. R. M. Savage in Surry County, and who is now confined in the county jail, is so bitter that the Surry Cavalry will be ordered out to guard the jail. Coleman has attempted to prove an alibi and has two witnesses who will testify that he was at home a short time before Mrs. Savage was attacked, but she is positive in her identification. The people of the county, white and black, are in for lynching Coleman. The jail is strongly guarded.

Beware of Negroes with Blue Gums.

From the Mobile Register.

Another policeman, this time Officer W. J. York, has been bitten by an enraged negro. The negro, Louis Williams, alias Hayes, was under arrest and in attempting to free himself bit the officer on the finger. The result of the bite is inflammation and pain, but not as yet of a serious nature.

It is stated as a fact that only the negroes with blue gums are poisonous. When Officer John King was bitten in February—from the effects of which poisoning he has been laid up ever since—it was said that the negro who did the biting had blue gums. This is not substantiated, but the negroes generally declare that in every instance where inflammation has resulted from the bite of a negro the biter has been found to have blue gums. In this last instance the negro actually has blue gums, the flesh around the teeth being of a marble blue color.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

One of the questions of the hour is, will Powderly give up his position?

Mr. Blaine now appreciates the parable about the guest who came without the wedding garment.

Secretary Lamar's son, who now has a Government clerkship, is not a bright young man but an excellent baseball player.

Yan Phon Lee, the Chinaman who climbed into notoriety by marrying a rich American lady, does not claim to be kin to the Virginia Lees.

It has come to light that Mr. John S. Wise is increasing his law business by repeatedly firing himself at Republican banquets. It is a poor cocanut that has no milk at all.

Mr. Conkling's avowed ignorance of current political affairs is accepted as a mild and amiable piece of humor. It is better than the noisy overflow of the man who knows everything.

Of the many speeches made on the Fourth of July, the only one that now lingers in the public mind and memory is the one made by Sunset Cox. His descriptive application of the braying of a jackass is a neat little thing that was not born to die in a hurry.
