The Morning News.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO, AND OF THE STATE. VOL. 2. GREENSBORO, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1887. No. 15

THE LATEST NEWS.

SCREAMING WITH CIRCUS MEN.

Revolvers, Wagon-Poles and Iron Tent-Pins Used by the Belligerents.

BOSTON, July 18.—A circus which had been exhibiting at Woburn for several days finished its performances Saturday night and struck tents. While the animals were being loaded on the cars and the baggage and camp equipage packed some of the people stood about watching the work and making disparaging remarks.

Dynamite in a Ball-Room.

STUBENVILLE, O., July 18.—One of the most diabolical outrages ever committed in this vicinity occurred at Mingo, just south of this city, last night, it being the partial destruction by dynamite of the building in which a large ball was in progress.

Burned to Death in His Drug Store.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 17.—Frank Coy, of Davenport, was found burned to death in his drug store there today. About 1 o'clock in the morning he attempted to go downstairs with a lighted lamp when he fell headlong, breaking the lamp at the turn in the stairway.

Hottest Day in Raleigh.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 18.—To-day was exceedingly hot, the hottest in fact than was ever before known. The temperature ranged from one hundred to one hundred and five; the figures are given by the U. S. Signal Observer.

Dr. Manly was sunstruck late this afternoon while walking on the street. There are no signs of rain or of any abatement of the heat, and people look forward with dread to tomorrow. The nights are marked by absolute stillness and sleep is nearly impossible.

W. C. Overby, stall 4, city market, will have this morning stall feed beef and mutton, and every other day this week. Persons in want of good beef will please call on him.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

Mr. Blaine is greatly enjoying his tally-ho drives in Scotland.

The Berkshire Hills are becoming more and more popular with aristocratic Bostonians.

Ex Senator Spencer, of Alabama, thinks that the Southern boom business is being overdone.

Prince Ferdinand is not packing his trunk and will wait awhile before buying a ticket to Bulgaria.

Alfonso XIII., King of Spain, is now seventeen years old and receives a salary of $1,500,000 a year.

Senator Vance has named his new home "Gombroon," after the capital of De Quincey's imaginary kingdom.

The Earl of Desart, ex-husband of the countess who ran away with the actor Snyder, has published a novel entitled "Lord and Lady Piccadilly."

Mme. Chaistine Nilsson owns two buildings in Boston that are assessed at $125,000. It must not be supposed that this property was bought for a song.

Gardner F. Williams, a well-known mining man of California, has been appointed manager of the De Beer diamond-mine in Southern Africa, one of the largest in the world.

A new six-penny illustrated magazine is to be published in England under the name of Atalanta. Mr. Ruskin will write the preface, and Andrew Lang and Rider Haggard will contribute to the first number.

Elam Brown, one of the early California pioneers now ninety years old, owns the valuable Ascalenes ranch in California. At the celebration of his last birthday anniversary 75 of his family and immediate kin sat down to together.

SUMMER SQUABS.

Washing on Critic: "Deeds, not words," is the motto of the real estate man.

Lowell Citizen: It all men were to pay as they go there would be less going and more paying.

New Orleans Picayune: Give a weakling punch enough and he will soon make a Judy of himself.

Troy Times: Brown—Hello! Jones! How's your wife? Jones (a little dead)—Very blustering and disagreeable this morning.

New Orleans Picayune: When a man belongs to they past it is a great pity to keep digging him up and crowding him into the present.

Philadelphia News: Queen Vicky Tory is so feeble that she walks with a stick. She also promenades with the Marquis of Salisbury.

Chicago Times: Judging by recent events in Honolulu, the sandwich Islanders, if in our place, would make short work of Garland.

Journal of Education: It is bad enough to have to live in a one-horse town, but life there is heavenly compared with existence in a wheelbarrow village.

Philadelphia News: The croton-oil divorce case has been settled at Glou by payment of lawyers' fees. It sometimes looks as if almost anything might be settled that way.

San Francisco Alto: A Spanish officer has invented a war boat that will stay under water four days. The great trick in this country is to get one that will stay above water that long.

Philadelphia Press: The Hon. William F. Cody writes from London to say that he has not got the big head. Yet we must bear in mind that a man who has the big head never knows it.

Philadelphia Record: It was "Crockett Baldwin," the Zoo's crack cockatoo, who, remembering the happy days when he was a mere egg in the tropics, cocked a wise eye and remarked: "Is it hot enough for you?"

GORED FATALY BY A BULL.

CANJOHARIE, N. Y., July 17.—John W. Smith, a prominent farmer of this town, was gored by a bull yesterday morning, and probably fatally hurt. He was badly cut up and his clothes were entirely striped from person.

Whether from swampy land or stagnant pool, or from the deadly gases of city sewers, malarial poisons are the same. Ayer's Malaria Cure, taken according to directions, is a warranted specific for malarial disorders.

RALEIGH BACKBITS.

Trebuh Talks About Things Around the Capital.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 18th, '87. Editors Morning News:—An important case is being tried here in the Wake Superior Court. It is the case of State vs. Duncan C. Haywood. The defendant is charged with forging notes in 1885. He was tried once and then given a new trial. He is now pleading insanity. The case will be continued this week.

Mr. Andrew Betts, an esteemed young gentleman of Raleigh, died Friday morning last at 3 o'clock; aged about 25 years. His funeral was held at the Baptist Tabernacle Friday evening at 6 o'clock.

Prof. Herman Dahlberg, lately of Paris, gave a concert here Friday night for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. He was a pupil of Liszt for 18 months and is a pianist of unusual merit. The Professor is a very pleasant gentleman and exceedingly well cultivated. I met him at the residence of a friend and found him very sociable. He is a native Swede and has been in America 22 months.

A new publishing company has been organized here and will begin operation in a few weeks. The old Central Hotel is to be fitted up for its work rooms, offices &c. Its specialty will be railroad printing, and it will be one of the largest establishments of the kind in the South. The Co. expects to have a lithographing establishment in connection with the printing.

It is scorching hot here now. The thermometer registered 102 in the shade Saturday. Pretty warm!

While it is so hot and dusty the hose companies are going to sprinkle the streets. They will attach their hose to the street hydrants, one of which is at every corner. This is a good thing. The water will make the atmosphere cooler and, at the same time, lay the dust. There is no doubt of the fact that the streets of Raleigh ought to be paved. The dust is just awful!

The State Horticultural Society will hold its annual meeting here in connection with the Grape Show, August 4th and 5th. We expect to have a big time. The meetings will be held in Metropolitan Hall. Speeches will be made by fruit growers from all parts of the State. The Grape Show will be held in Stronach's Warehouse and no doubt will be a fine exhibit. The grape crop around Raleigh is very fine and very abundant this year. An attractive programme has been arranged.

His Wife Gets Revenge by Elop-

CINCINNATI, July 18.—Mrs. Neil C. Kerr has created a sensation by eloping with a Kentuckian. Her husband was a traveling passenger agent of the Queen and Crescent Railroad. They lived together six years in this city. Mrs. Kerr discovered her husband two years ago in correspondence with an Indiana girl. Within the last two or three days she took her revenge. She went over into Kentucky and married Hose Duncan, of Pleasant, Pa., a boy twenty years old, and twelve years her junior. They have run away to Washington Territory, and Mr. Kerr is pursuing them with a detective.

K. of L. Men Who Did Not Stick.

BOSTON, July 18.—The membership of District Assembly 30, K. of L. which meets in quarterly session at Fall River to-morrow, has fallen from $5,000, one year ago, to 21,000, in round numbers, at the present time. This district sent twenty-five delegates to the Richmond General Assembly, but will be entitled to only eight at Minneapolis. A bitter fight is anticipated over the election of these delegates between the adherents of the Home Club and its opponents. The head of the anti-trades-unionists is George E. McNeill, recent candidate for Mayor of Boston on the working-men's ticket.

The Knights Stronger than Ever.

CINCINNATI, O., July 18.—Mr. Hugh Cavanaugh, Master Workman of this district, says that the Knights of Labor are a long way from losing their strength. The order, he says, is stronger than it was fourteen months ago. He thinks The World's estimate of the proportion of recruits the Union Labor party will draw from the two great parties is about correct.

PERSONAL.

Charlotte Wolter, the emigrant Austrian actress who is presently to make her first appearance in America is a native of Cologne.

Charles Spreckles, son of the Hawaii sugar King, frequently visits the East and has a large acquaintanceship in New York.

The Duchess of Cambridge is the oldest member of the English royal family. She is over 90 years old and George III was her father-in-law.

General Imboden, of Confederate fame, recently stated in a letter that if Virginia's mineral wealth had been as fully developed in 1860 as now there would have been no war.
