The Morning News.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO, AND OF THE STATE. VOL. 2. GREENSBORO, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1887. No. 17

THE LATEST NEWS.

Niagara Falls to be Utilized.

BUEFALO, N. Y., July 20.—The solution of the problem of what the city will do with the tremendous water power of Niagara river, which runs to waste, is being considered seriously by some of the leading men.

Harper to Get a Taste of Jail Life.

CINCINNATI, July 20.—Judge Sage, of the United States Court, found that ex-Vice-President E. L. Harper and ex-Assistant Cashier Ben E. Hopkins, of the late Fidelity National Bank of this city, were domesticating at the county jail and were taking evening excursions in a carriage with the jailer through the parks and suburbs, and he ordered to-day the immediate transfer of Harper to the Montgomery County Jail at Dayton and that a Deputy United States Marshal should guard each of these prisoners and see that they are not given opportunity to escape.

Not Exactly $300,000.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 20.—A story has been going the rounds of some of the Northern papers, telegraphed from here, to the effect that one "Col." Reynolds the richest farmer in the State, and who had had an unfortunate love affair in his youth, recently died, leaving a fortune of some $300,000 to a negro woman, with whom he had lived, and their children. There is just this much truth in the story, that an obscure farmer in the interior named Reynolds died a month ago, leaving his entire property to a negro woman. The property amounted to less than $2,000.

He Helped the Lynchers Lynch Him.

RUTHERFORD, Tenn., July 20.—John Vanderford, a negro who a few weeks ago assaulted a white girl only six years old, was arrested yesterday by the police of Fulton, Ky. When it was made public in Fulton that the negro was arrested for a mob attempted to take him from the police, but met resistance. The negro acknowledged the crime and said he wanted to come back to Rutherford and bear the consequences. He said he was ready and willing to die at any time. When the mob went to the town prison again they soon pulled him to the nearest tree and hanged him. He was then shot above the right eye. He made no attempt to resist the mob, and when the rope was tied around his neck he helped to pull himself up.

The President and His Party Arrived in Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The President and Mrs. Cleveland, Secretary and Mrs. Fairchild, and Col. Lamont arrived in Washington at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The President and Mrs. Cleveland proceeded directly to the White House, and the other members of the party went to their respective homes. They are all in good health and speak enthusiastically of their tour in New York. Though somewhat tired, the President went to work soon after reaching the White House. The most of the day was devoted to considering the mail which had accumulated during his absence. He was assisted in this duty by Col. Lamont. Secretary Fairchild spent the day at home and will resume his duties at Treasury Department tomorrow.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

Hall Storm—Sudden Deaths—The Truth About the Haywood Forgery Case.

RALEIGH, July 20, 1887. A very refreshing rain fell here Tuesday evening to the delight and satisfaction of every one. The rain was accompanied by thunder and lightning and also hail stones as large as chestnuts fell for a while. (You may think that this is a "chestnut" story, but it's not.) The rain completely changed the atmosphere and we are having some pleasant weather this morning.

Raleigh has been shocked this week by the unusual number of deaths which have occurred during the week. Col. Ed. Graham Haywood, who, in his time, was one of the finest lawyers in the State, died suddenly Monday night at 8:30 o'clock in the 56th year of his age. Dr. L. C. Manly, who has been a citizen of Raleigh for a long time was stricken with apoplexy Monday afternoon and died that night about 12 o'clock. The funeral services of Miss Pattie Smith, who died Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the First Baptist church. Her brother Hunter Smith, aged 8 years, died yesterday afternoon of typhoid fever. The funeral services were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock. All these deaths were deeply regretted. Most of them were sudden. Truly "in the midst of life we are in death."

The city hands are grading that portion of Fayetteville street between Hargett and Martin, preparatory to paving it. The work should be pushed. If there is any town in North Carolina that does need paved streets, it is Raleigh.

The jury in the case of state vs. Duncan C. Haywood, after a consultation of half an hour on Monday brought in the answer that he was sane and capable of conducting his trial. He will now be put on trial for forgery, probably at the next term of court.

This afternoon, Duncan C. Haywood, of this city, was taken before the Superior Court. He submitted on the plea of guilty of forgery, and was sentenced to two years in the workhouse as a reformatory institution.

A Fiendish Assault.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 20.—News has just reached here of a fiendish assault upon Ella Abels, fourteen years old, daughter of Mr. John Ables, living two miles north of Argenta, which is just across the river from here. The child was in the apple orchard, half a mile from the house, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon gathering fruit, when a negro came up to the fence and, despite her screams, succeeded in assaulting her. She crawled to her home, where she told what had happened, and half the officers of the county were sent in pursuit, but the negro escaped.

Had Her Decks Damaged.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The Sun says it is learned from private letters of a naval officer that serious damage was done to the decks of the cruiser Atlanta by the firing of her eight inch guns during the recent test at Annapolis. It is alleged that guns of that calibre will be too large for use on the Atlanta and her sister ship, the Boston.

TELEGRAPHIC TICKS.

The town of Abacair, Mexico, has been destroyed by an earthquake.

Large forest fires have been raging near Lockport, N. Y., since Saturday last week.

The Democratic primary elections held in Baltimore on Wednesday were the most excited for over twenty years.

The bursting of a hydrant at Madison Square, N. Y., Tuesday evening, turned Broadway into a river for awhile.

Ex-Alderman McCabe is said by his counsel to be at Hunter, Green county, N. Y., in the Catskills, and to have no intention of going to Canada.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland, Col. Lamont and Secretary, and Mrs. Fairchild, returned to Washington yesterday morning.

AN AFTERTHOUGHT.

'Twas in the garden, chatting. Amid the mignonette— She with her snowy taiting, I with my cigarette. I still can see her fingers Flit softly in and out; With rapture memory lingers To view her lips-a-pout.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

The Springfield Republican is "booming" Robert T. Lincoln for the Presidency.

E. Berry Wall pays rent for an extra room at a Long Branch hotel for his trunks, neckties cases, hat-boxes, etc.

Perhaps Dr. Morell Mackenzie will have to employ Gen. Boulanger to collect his bill for curing the Crown Prince's throat trouble.

Mrs. Old Bull has been chaperoning a party of young people from Cambridge, Mass., on a buckboard journey through the White Mountains.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox denies the report that she intends to remove from Meriden, Conn., to Wisconsin. Ella loves the golden sunlight of the cultured East.

The important announcement is made that Senator-elect Blodgett, of New Jersey, has discarded dark neckties for dainty light scarfs, and thus looks fully ten years younger.

Sitting Bull is living a life of laziness at Standing Rock Agency. Work he considers degrading and believes that his victory over Custer has entitled him to an existence of ease and indolence.

The coming sensation at Long Branch is Ed. Heron Allen, the expounder of Chirosofopy. He is to teach a class of New York and Philadelphia belles there the delightful but highly barbaric science, and it is announced in advance that it will be given a luncheon by George W. Childs.

Patrick Prince, an old colored man who has for a score of years blacked boots at the Ebbitt House, Washington is dead. He had in his time polished the shoes of nearly all the public men in the country. He was a war veteran and was covered with scars, of which he was very proud. He died from the effects of the recent excessive heat.

Yan Phon Lee, the Americanized Chinaman, and his wife are provoking more attention that they desire at Narragansett Pier. Wherever they go they are gazed at by curious eyes. Mrs. Lee is a young woman with dark complexion, blue eyes regular features and dark-brown hair. Mr. and Mrs. Lee were present recently at a Casino hop, but did not indulge in dancing.

Shot Him Dead.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 20.—John Hamilton, colored, attempted to outrage Delphee Ross, colored, at Cool Creek, Tenn., to-day when she resisted and shot Hamilton dead. The girl was acquitted.

Frank Allen, of Marble Hill, Tenn., who was about to be sent to the insane asylum, cut his throat this morning in the presence of his wife and died in a few minutes.

W. C. Overby, stall 4, city market, will have this morning stall led beef and mutton, and every other day this week. Persons in want of good beef will please call on him.

$3.50 for $1.00. $5.00 for $2.25 and $9.00 for $4.00.
