OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

The Grape Show—The Address—The Exhibit—A Grand Success.

RALEIGH, August 4th, 1887.

The first grape exhibit of the Wake County Horticultural Society was held here Thursday, Aug. 4, in Stronach's Warehouse. The doors were opened at 11 a. m. The building, which is very large and well lighted began to fill up immediately. As one surveyed the whole scene with the eye on entering the door, it presented a picture of exquisite beauty. The bunches of grapes hanging in clusters and spread out on the tables were very beautiful. I heard a well known Raleigh gentleman who is deeply interested in the culture of grapes, say, as he looked over the grapes on the tables, that there were some of the finest grapes that could be found anywhere.

At 12 o'clock an address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Thompson who welcomed the visitors to the city in behalf of the Wake County Horticultural Society. This was responded to in a neat little speech by Mr. J. Van Lindley, of Guilford County. After these exercises were concluded, the people began to look around and examine the grapes, &c. Among the principal exhibitors were, Col. J. M. Heck, Capt. B. P. Williams, W. G. Upchurch, Esq., Womble Bros., and Batchelor, S. Otho, Wilson, Geo. Shellem, H. Bilyen and Dr. R. H. Lewis, of Raleigh; N. W. Craft, of Shore, N. C.; Scott Bros., Baxter & Oldham, Ridgeway, Mr. C. B. Edward, of Raleigh, exhibited some very fine clusters of the "Niagara" which were sold at auction at night for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. Some very magnificent displays of vines were made by C. W. Garrett & Co., of Halifax County N. C., and Col. W. J. Green, of Fayetteville. Mr. H. Bilyen of Raleigh, had an instrument for packing grapes and he illustrated the mode of packing grapes for shipping. Grapes were pressed in the building and sparkling grape-soda was dispensed from a fountain in the centre of the building.

At 5 o'clock the judges, Messrs. J. W. Cole, V. C. Royster of Raleigh, and Prof. P. W. Johnson of Wake Forest, went round and examined the grapes. The doors were then closed for the day.

At 8 o'clock the doors were again opened. The large building shone forth with great brilliancy. It was lighted with gas and as the light was shed on the grapes they looked very beautiful. The Black Diamond Quartette were in the rear of the building pouring forth some of their sweet, melodious selections. The Raleigh Cornet Band furnished some of its fine music to the delight of every one.

At 9 o'clock an essay of great power and eloquence was read by Hon. Wharton J. Green, his subject being, "Wines: American vs. Foreign." It was an able effort characteristic of Col. Green and was finely delivered.

After the address the announcements of the judges' decisions were read by Mr. S. Otho Wilson, Secretary of the State Horticultural Society. The premium for the best display was awarded to Capt. B. P. Williams of Raleigh. Col. J. M. Heck secured the premium for the greatest number of varieties. Mr. S. Otho Wilson received that for the greatest number of pounds by one exhibitor. Womble Bros. and Batchelor received nearly a dozen premiums of $5.00 each for best single plates of grapes of different varieties. The premium for the best display of wines was given to C. W. Garrett & Co. This premium was given not upon the merits of the wines at all, but upon the display only. At 11 o'clock p. m. the grape show ended. Everybody was highly pleased and everybody wants another grape show. It was certainly a grand success.

T. E. COOK.

When to Use the spoon.

The fork is so much used of late that it is well to know just when the spoon properly comes into play. The latter is used for soup, for all stewed fruit and preserves, for melons which from their juiciness cannot be conveniently eaten with a fork, for strawberries and cream, peaches and cream and like dishes.

THE FARMERS.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Aug. 6th '87.

At a meeting of the Guilford County Farmers Club held here to day, Present, Thos. E. Cook, Chairman; W. P. Wharton, John Van Lindley and D. W. C. Benbow.

Upon motion D. W. C. Benbow was asked to act as Sec'y.

The invitation of the President, W. E. Benbow to the New Garden Agricultural Society, to meet with us on the 20th inst., was endorsed and the chairman instructed to invite the members of the New Garden Agricultural Society to be present. It was agreed that Martin Cude prepare and read a paper on "Wheat and Clover," W. P. McLean one on "Does raising tobacco pay?" W. A. Coo, "Plowing," Robt. C. Rankin, "Garden truck," Thos. E. Cook, "Drainage."

This Committee urge upon the farmers of the county the importance of meeting with us and learning the ideas of the speakers above named, and enter into discussions of the subjects treated of in order that we may all learn the results of experiments by thus consulting together rather than by the tedious and expensive process of each testing for himself.

The town papers are respectfully asked to publish the announcement of the meeting of the Farmer's Club of this County which will be held in Benbow Hall at 10 o'clock on Saturday August 20th next at which the above program will be offered. Ladies as well as all farmers of the County are invited.

Gems and Fancy Stones.

Perhaps the most popular jewel of the day next to the diamond, is the sapphire. The sort preferred and most costly, because rare is that in which the color appears blue by artificial light as well as by day, and in which the blue is pure and spread over the whole substance of the stone. In inferior sapphires the mixed with black, which gives an inky appearance when seen by artificial light.

Sapphires are set sometimes alone, but often with diamonds or rubies. A beautiful design for a pin seen recently represented a three leaf clover, with a diamond, a sapphire and a ruby set in each leaf. The sapphire is popular as the central stone to clusters, either for finger or ear rings. A good stone, when set round with diamonds, produces a remarkably brilliant effect.

Points New and Old.

Menu cards are never used at luncheon.

The pineapple is almost the only fruit that requires the use of both knife and fork.

Progressive dinner parties, modeled on the progressive euchre party, are the latest and most novel form of hospitality.

A Proof of Good Breeding.

It is a proof of fine breeding, says an authority in the world of fashion, to seem to be happy whether one is so or not. We have no right to permit physical tastes or moods to depress or annoy other persons. Moods should be our own secrets, and if we have them not well in hand we may be sure there is something for us to attain that we cannot afford to live without, and is a triumph over ourselves. One often feels the need of "a perfect self containedness" at a dinner table where feed and sentiments may not be to our liking.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

Sarah Bernhardt has been coining money in London. Her receipts have averaged over $2,500 for each performance. Will she invest in more Chicago real estate?

The oldest General of the United States army is William Selby Harney. He was born near Nashville, Tenn., in 1800 and entered the army in 1818. He was brevetted Major-General on March 13, 1865.

John Chamberlin, the famous Washington caterer, was at Long Branch Sunday with his wife and two daughters.

The younger of the girls promises to equal her mother in beauty of form and figure.

Mrs. Prescott Lawrence, of this city, who as Kate Buckley was a shining light in social circles, is now at Newport. Mrs. Lawrence is a most accomplished woman, speaks four or five different languages and is noted for her wit.

Berry Wall is not the only one of the family who is at present attracting public attention. His aunt by marriage, Mrs. M. W. Wall, of N. Y., is the best-dressed woman at Manchester-by-the-Sea. Mrs. Wall was formerly Miss Chaffee, of Boston.

There is a small-sized Cabinet meeting at "Grasslands" every night. Secretary Whitney, the host, is entertaining Secretary Endicott and his wife, while Secretary and Mrs. Fairchild drive out from Washington every evening and spend the night at the hospitable country seat.

McGarigle, the fugitive Chicago brawler, was a very vain man in his days of prosperity. He kept a scrapbook and pasted therein all newspaper notices concerning himself and his doings. A book made up of recent items concerning him would be more sensational than complimentary.

A New Boodle Dodge.

Rascality is abroad in the land. We are not surprised at any new development in these times of trickery and fraud. Think of sheriffs speculating on tramps! Such a thing has come to light. The Board of Supervisors of Sangamon county, Ill., in the course of their investigation of sheriff's accounts, have discovered a reason for the rapid increase in the number of tramps that prowl over the face of the country. It seems that the sheriffs of the country have been inviting tramp immigration in order to obtain fees for the care of vagrants, one sheriff, in the course of six months, making over four hundred illegal commitments. As he paid policemen to make the arrests, it is quite likely that he made things very pleasant for the tramps in order that they might not avoid the county, but hold themselves convenient for re-arrest when discharged.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Admiral Brown at Newport.

Says the New York Graphic: One of the veterans of the navy who are frequent visitors to this city is Vice-Admiral S. C. Brown. He is a charming old salt of the antique sailor pattern, whose services in the Mexican and late wars have secured for him one of the nicest little places in the Navy Department. He is chief of the Lighthouse Board, and though the duties of the place are anything but onerous, they serve to keep him in Washington during the winter session of Congress, when life is worth living there; and then when the dog days come the gallant old sailor finds it necessary in the performance of his duty to make a tour of inspection to all the lighthouses on the New England and New York coasts. He times his visit with careful precision, so that he can inspect during the most agreeable part of the season every pretty watering place from Coney Island to Bar Harbor. He draws $8,000 per year for his work, and is worth it all by the services he rendered to the county years ago.
