The Morning News.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO, AND OF THE STATE. VOL. 2. GREENSBORO, N. C., FRIDAY, AUG. 12, 1887. No. 32

THE LATEST NEWS.

Killed a Man and Was Lynched.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Charles Williams, a lawyer of Logan Court-House, lost a suit before a justice of the Peace a few days ago, and swore that he would kill Bob Peck and one James Aldridge, the County Surveyer, who were concerned in the case and against whom he entertained some petty spite.

Lively Times in a Prohibition Town.

ALLIANCE, O., Aug. 10.—This was one of the big towns of the State to vote for local option under the Dow law. The saloons were voted out several months ago, but they continue to violate the ordinance.

Mrs. Craighead Shoots a Burglar.

ANDOVER, Miss, Aug. 10.—The summer residence of Mr. Horace Craighead was entered by burglars at about 3.30 o'clock this morning, and Mrs. Craighead, who was alone with her children and servant girl, shot the burglar in the thigh, but he made his escape.

Hanged as Soon as He was Caught.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 10.—Thomas Scott, implicated in the assassination of two officers near Oak Ridge, was captured in Louisiana yesterday. The prisoner was being taken to Hamburg, Ark., under the escort of two or three men, when the party were set upon by a band of armed men, who seized Scott and hanged him to a limb of a tree.

A Fatal Salvation Army Row.

EATON RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 10.—For some time the Salvation Army barracks here has borne an unsavory reputation. On Saturday night John Williams was at the barracks, accompanied by Mrs. William Matthews, a grass widow. In the course of the services Frank Clark approached the couple, and demanded an introduction to the woman.

MORE ABOUT THE FRIENDS NOW IN SESSION AT HIGH POINT.

In 1681 George Fox proposed the establishment of a yearly or half-yearly meeting, to be held, "somewhere in the middle country" between the Ashley and the Albermarle Rivers. The first yearly meeting was held in 1708, according to preserved records. In 1712 the Yearly Meeting was held at Perquimans. In 1717, B. Holmes says it was held at the meeting-house in Surry County in the eighth month, August. It was afterward held at New Garden, in the first of November till 1880 when it was held that year at Friendsville in the 8th month, then again at New Garden till four years ago when it was moved permanently to High Point to be held beginning on 5th day, Thursday, before the second, first day, Sunday, in 8th mo.

The membership is not so numerous as in the years before the war say in 1840 to 1850 but more than double the number in 1860. They emigrated to free states: The Yearly Meetings of Western, Indiana, Iowa and Kansas were established principally by Friends and their descendants from North Carolina. It is not worthy that while harmony has been marred, and secessions have occurred in most of the Yearly Meetings on this continent, North Carolina's Yearly Meeting has maintained its position as the advocate of sound christian doctrine.

When Lord Carter was one of the Lords proprietors, he caused the Assembly to pass a law making the Episcopal church the State church as in England. The Baptists and Quakers were numerous and both stood shoulder to shoulder in opposition to any such regulation. The law was passed. The Quakers and Baptists continued their opposition till it was repealed.

These conscientious convictions are respected by all the advanced governments at least, and Friends have special privileges favoring their peace and principles. And in the convention which framed the present constitution of our State through the influence of a few Friends—members of the Convention and a few outside that claims exempting from militia and military service—not Friends only, but all people who have religious scruples was inserted.

Friends insist upon what they deem right for themselves, and they desire as much that the same shall be extended to their brethren of other denominations.

Thus while the Friends do not engage in war they have so aided the cause of peace in the world and diminished so much the destruction of life and property by war that from that view they are entitled to life time exemption from all military service.

The opening session of N. C. Y. M., styled, "The Representative Meeting of N. C. Yearly Meeting" convened at 10 o'clock with F. S. Blair, of Summerfield, as the apparent presiding officer who is styled clerk of the meeting.

FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

HIGH POINT, Aug. 10, 1887. The Friends Meeting convened today in the capacity of "The Representative Meeting" which is a body composed of members of the church by appointment and have delegated to them certain work in regard to church property, difficulties in the church and was once styled "The Meeting for Sufferings" and it can be called on short notice in case of emergency as in time of war or other calamities. Prayer preceded the transaction of business.

To-day no business outside of organization and routine affairs occurred save some difficulty in a section of the Church in E. Tennessee which was referred to a committee with direction and authority to act in the case. Another session of this body is set for 6th day Friday next.

At 2 o'clock p. m. a session of "The Meeting on Ministry and Oversight" was held. This body is composed of the ministers, elders and overseers of the Church.

A season of devotion and vocal prayer preceded the minutes of the meeting last year. Abram Fisher of North Carolina and Rebecca Collins of New York a minister 83 years old led in prayer.

David J. McMillan a Minister of Indiana and W. H. Perry of Kansas were in attendance. Abram Fisher of North Carolina thought Ministers should not so often as some do relate their own experience publicly at length nor say if I had no seals in the way of converts to my ministry. I would remain but one year in the ministry. He cited Noah a preacher of Righteousness who preached righteousness 120 years without converts.

Rebecca Collins, the aged prophetess said, "It is not so much the words of ministers as the power of the Lord dwelling with and upon us that accomplishes the work to which we are called.

She should have God's complete forgiveness is illustrated by the scapegoat which carried the sin of the Israelite away into the wilderness never to return. She spoke of our difficulties one with another leading us to tell of them to others so making the breach wider and wider. Not so with our God who promised to remember them again no more forever when we sought and found his forgiving love.

It would melt the hearts of all christian pilgrims to hear this child like yearning pilgrim of more than four score years delineate the love and mercy of our God.

Joseph Moore, a minister and L. D. Principal of Friends School, New Garden, addressed the meeting in a manner at once interesting and edifying on "Workers together with God receive not the grace of God in vain &c."

The power of the Holy Ghost will not supercede the necessity of physical and intellectual activity. But we must work and think more actively if guided by the Holy Spirit in unison and obedience with and to him.

Our Early Friend that is in the rise of the church in England went on foot over most of the Kingdom and when spoken to as how he made such long journeys with so much expedition said, "The Lord gives me hurs feet."

Though George Fox was an unlettered youth when he realized that he was called of the Holy Ghost to the Masters service he studied the laws of England, in short increased his mental and physical activity to do all good possible.

Henry Outland of Northampton Co., said Job tells us: "I have heard with the ear, but now mine eye seeth thee; and he said in substance, I am desirous that we may be gathered wholly to the source of blessing &c."

In the closing prayer Mary C. Woody, of New-Garden, president of the W. C. T. U. of N. C. gave thanks to God for permitting us to be co-workers together with him and invoked his blessing and to make us more efficient in the Masters service.
