THE LATEST NEWS.

DR. CRAWFORD DENIES ALL.

Except that He Did Make Love to Fifteen-Year-Old Eva White.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Deep interest is manifested here in the trial of Passed Assistant Surgeon Millard H. Crawford, of the navy, accused of violating the Edmunds law with Eva White.

Dr. Crawford was put on the stand to-day in his own defense. His counsel, Mr. Moore, read the information filed against him, and put the direct question:

"Is this true?"

"No, sir," said Dr. Crawford. Mr. Lipscomb took up a letter written by Dr. Crawford to the girl.

"This letter begins 'My darling Eva,'" said Mr. Lipscomb, "How long have you used such endearing terms?"

"Since a month or six weeks after I first met her."

"Did you ever tell her you loved her?"

"Yes; in a letter."

"Did she say she reciprocated?"

"Yes; in a note."

"Did you ever express your love verbally?"

"Yes."

Dr. Crawford said that the "risks" referred to in the letter, which she had incurred, were her meetings with him. By her "present misery" he said he meant the impending separation of themselves.

"What did you mean by the 'kid business,'" asked Mr. Lipscomb. "Miss White was afraid her little brother Ernest would tell her father about our meetings and had spoken of him as the 'kid,'" said Dr. Crawford.

"Love and kisses to my darling Eva," quoted Mr. Lipscomb. "Did you ever kiss her?"

"No, sir."

The arguments will be heard next Tuesday.

FRANK WILSON MURDERED.

He Murdered Mr. and Mrs. Clevenger and Ran Away with their Daughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 13.—Frank Wilson was hanged at Prescott, Ari., yesterday, for the murder of Samuel Clevenger and his wife, Charlotte, in May, 1886, on the summit of the Bluekin Mountains, a few miles from the Utah line.

Wilson and his companion, John A. Johnson (colored), were employed by Clevenger to assist in driving a number of horses to Washing Territory. No one was in the party except the two men, Clevenger, his wife and an adopted daughter, and while camping at the place mentioned, Wilson murdered Clevenger and his wife with an axe. Wilson and Johnson then divided the stock and $500 which Clevenger had with him, and buried the bodies, which were found six months later. Wilson and the girl lived together afterwards and went to Washington Territory and Idaho, where they were found by the Sheriff, and the former was taken back to Prescott for trial. Johnson was found in Nevada, and a chain of circumstantial evidence, together with the girl's statement, served to convict both. Wilson however, made a confession on the 6th inst, exonerating Johnson and saying that the latter did not know anything about the murder until some time afterwards.

Johnson was respited by Gov. Z. Lick until Sept. 23.

SENT TO JAIL.

During the session of the United States court a negro named William Cain, was in attendance as a witness and claiming that he had come from Durham, N. C., drew money from Uncle Sam's coffers for mileage and appropriated it to his own uses, thereby defrauding the government. Yesterday Deputy Marshal Vaughan ascertained that Cain was a resident of this place and had been living here six months. He was arrested, carried before the United States commissioner who committed him to the city jail—Danville Register.

FRIENDS YEARLY MEETING.

HIGH POINT, Aug. 13, 1887.

The meeting on ministry and oversight, with David White and Mary C. Woody clerks, offered reports of the condition of the ministry, were heard and much counsel and wise suggestions were given. B. C. Hobbs, LL.D., gave an address of clearness and power on the subject of the resurrection of the body, and on final judgment, saying he had learned these doctrines from clear minded worthies, in N. C. Yearly Meetings, in the days of his boyhood. He esteemed this a great and important doctrine, essential in the completion of the great and glorious plan of Salvation.

This phase of christian doctrine was well presented and promptly and emphatically endorsed by a large uprising. There was one dissenting voice. The regular business of the Y. M. convened at 10 o'clock a. m.

The examination of the condition of the church was resumed and revealed some cheering evidences of progress as well as some cause of regret, that family worship was too much neglected, some cases of lack of christian love, some indulgence in the use of liquor as a beverage, and of the raising, selling, and using of tobacco.

Dr. Hobbs called attention to the subject of love, and that a different Greek word was used according as the love of God, the love of parents, friends, or husband and wife were spoken of, and when the word for love of God was used it means that love which moved the son of God to give his life for sinners—his enemies—in all lands, ages, races and conditions of men, and if we have this divine love we can love the souls of sinful, wicked men.

The afternoon session took in the subject of education as reported by Prof. W. A. Blair, who is in charge of this part of the church's work in the bounds of the Y. M.

The report of Friends School at New Garden gave specially interesting, encouraging, and satisfactory information.

Dr. B. C. Hobbs, a man of ripe and varied learning, gave special commendation to Joseph Moore, LL. D., Principal at New Garden School, as a student who had been under the tuition of Prof. Agassiz, the man who, when solicited to make a lecturing tour at a high salary said, "I have no time to make money." The speaker claimed that a school under the management of such a faculty as Moore and his efficient faculty, especially when it is remembered that Joseph Moore did so much in building up Earlham College as a Professor and afterward as its President, and in collecting one of the best College Cabinets west of the Alleghanies, &c., ought to be a College, whereupon over $1,400.00 were subscribed to increase an endowment fund, provided $5,000.00 are secured. $5000 had been previously pledged on the same condition.

Prof. W. A. Blair said, that Friends started the hall of education in North Carolina. The first Normal School at Springfield, for six weeks, gave such an impetus to education that it brought the state up from the lowest round in the educational ladder of this country to a higher one.

In the evening at 7 o'clock Mrs. L. A. Winston, who has just reached here from Mexico, gave another address concerning the missionary field and the work in Mexico. She exhibited Catholic images of Mary, the mother of Jesus, the seeds which Catholics count, some of the products and handy work of Mexican women. She had a Spanish Mexican lady and gentleman, in native costume, impersonated by an American lady and gentleman. Both held cigarettes in their mouths.

The day closed with far the largest attendance of the week.

The rail road and private ways continue to bring additions to the meetings and the hotels.

A good rain cooled the air and laid the rising dust of the streets for tomorrow's big crowd.

Should this come to the notice of any member of the society of Friends who may be able, and, after investigation, willing to assist a fellow member, who has a large family of children to educate, with the loan of a few hundred dollars, to enable him to educate his children, such an one will please address L. under seal, care of Morning News office.

THE BALLOON OF FIRE.

Smoke Rolling from the Air-Ship When 1,000 Feet Above the Earth.

CHATTSWORTH, Ill., Aug. 13.—At Cul- lom, Ill. some eight miles north of here, Prof. Talbot, a balloonist, made an ascension at about 6 o'clock this afternoon. The balloon sailed about 1,000 feet in the air and sailed away in a northwest direction. Soon after starting it was discovered to be on fire, smoke pulling from the top in clouds. By this time it had sailed about one mile away. It then began to come down very rapidly, and struck the ground with a rush. Prof. Talbot escaped severe injury only by good luck. About all that was left of the balloon was the rings on the bottom.

CHIEF MARES NOT ASSASSINATED.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 13.—The reported assassination of Chief Maves, of the Cherokee Nation, has on foundation in fact. The excitement attendant upon the election is quieting down. The National party accept the result. Chief Bushyhead and Rabbit Bunch, the defeated aspirant for Chief, counseled obedience to the law. The Nationals claim thirty-two members of the Legislature, and the Downing or Maves, party twenty-six.

EARL PERTH AND HIS SON.

The conduct of the octogenarian Earl—he is eighty-five years old—is lost sight of in contemplating the heroism of the man who never swerved a hair's breadth when tempted with riches, luxury, title, honors—all that is popularly supposed to bring enjoyment of life—to renounce the partner of his hardships and the mother of his children. Yet it is just possible that the grim old man, as he totters along the terrace of his noble castle, may turn his shriveled face to the western world, where his only son lies buried, and wonder if, after all, earth holds no loftier ambition than pride of birth or race.—Chicago Journal.

HE IS AN EXPERT.

Henry Watterson is said to have "discovered in New York a drink composed of brandy, egg and coffee, and called a "Sabbath calm." Perhaps there is some kind of a drink in New York that Watterson hasn't discovered; but if there is it has been invented since last night.—Rochester Herald.

FASHION NOTES.

At the June weddings in New York the slippers thrown after the bride and groom were furnished entirely of roses.

Oranges are considered most conducive to health when eaten before breakfast.

On the Continent ladies wear jewels all day long; in this country—mildly reserves her gems to wear on full dress occasions and at home, with afternoon and evening toilets.

The newest gimpes for low summer wear for little girls are entirely of embroidery, with a tiny frill at the neck, and deep cuffs.

The gloves for ushers at weddings are furnished by the groom. A fashionable kind are pearl kid gloves, stitched with pearl colored or black silk.

Large round hats and Leghorn flats with brims arranged to suit the face of the wearer are now in demand.

Dar is allus erbout de smart man er incarnation not ter do his best.—Arkansas Traveler.

An important feature at the present time in jewelry is the extreme favor with which stones of beautiful color—both gems and fancy stones—are received. Stones which twenty years ago were of no value to the jeweler are now of decided importance while old time favorites have been revived. Numbered with the latter are garnets some of which display beautiful hues.

The railroad company can't escape responsibility. In the course of a year the deaths caused by railroad accidents are almost equal to those on a good-size battlefield. Increased vigilance is very much needed.

A Sound Expert Opinion.

(From the New York Sun)

Mr. Reid undertakes a comparison between English and American papers, and comes to the conclusion that "while there is little difference between American and British enterprise, the American journal appears more 'newsy' than the British, and the British possesses a higher intellectual quality than the American." But that "higher intellectual quality" is to a large extent a matter of mere "appearance" also. So far as the substance of thought goes, the short and incisive American leading article may be as weighty as the ponderous English leader, with its conventional column's length: There is a deal of very thin writing in the London papers, and the ability to concentrate thought is a "higher intellectual quality" than the capacity to dilute it.

BEAR IN MIND!

That I will call on the business men of Greensboro within the next ten days in the interest of the "SKETCH OF THE BATTLE OF GUILDFORD COURT HOUSE," which will be issued, in neat pamphlet form, from the presses of Messrs. Thomas, Reece & Co., about the first of September. No better medium has ever been offered our business men through which to place their business before the reading public. This is no shoddy, cheap John advertising sheet, but will be a work that will be preserved by all, on account of its historical nature. I GUARANTEE SATISFACTION or no charges will be made. Hold your orders for advertising until you see me, and plant your ads. where they will bring forth good fruit and plenty of it. Respectfully,
