KILLED AT THE "BLIND CROSSING."

A Driving Party Wrecked by an Express on the Erie Road.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 16 .- The passenger train leaving this city at 5:30 o'clock on the Erie road runs through to New York. It makes but few stops, and on the division between this city and Corning runs at the rate of more than thirty-five miles an hour. At Rush, a station eight miles south of the city. is what is termed a "blind crossing." No one on the road can be seen from the railway track further than a few feet.

The train left this city on time tonight. When it was a short distance from the crossing near Rush the engineer was horrified to see a wagon containing three men and a young girl approaching. He reversed the engine, but it was too late, although the air-breaks were applied. The train smashed into the wagon and horses, striking the obstruction squarely. The horses were thrown thirty feet from the track and torn nearly to pieces, The occupants were picked up by the trainmen. One man was stunned and only slightly injured. The other two were dead, while the girl was hurt so badly that she will probably die. The bodies of the dead and the injured girl were taken to Henrietta, near by; where medical attendance was procured from the city. The news of the accident did not reach Rochester until three hours after. The men killed were John Straub and Henry Miller, farmers. The girl is Anna Unnimann. The party were driving to a relative's house.

PRIENDS YEARLY MEETING.

RIGH POINT, N.C., Aug. 15. The meeting opened as usual with prayer. The report of the peace committee was full of interest and elicited much interest and earnest discussion, favoring a further dissemination of Bible teaching, on the subject of war and peace.

It was shown that a number of people besides Quakers are opposed to the tax of life and property which war imposes upon the country. While mili tary companies are increasing and the military spirit is growing the teaching of the Prince of Peace ought to be fairly presented to a sensible and thinking people. The Indian School in Western North Carolina was reported in the report on Indian affairs as being admirably conducted and very successful in good results.

The statement that when Modock Frank who once, while a sinner, was conspicuous in slaughtering Gen. Custer and his command after he was converted, and when his own son was shot in cold blood without provocation, he said to the murderer, "If I were as I once was I would strike you dead." This is a practical christian exemplification of the power of the grace of God.

In the afternoon the Bible School work was reported which showed activity and interest in the work.

The Bible school conference held at Cane Creek in Alamance County, North Carolina, was a decided succ-

The mission work styled the Blue Ridge Mission was presented by David Sampson in an earnest manner.

Temperance work was reported as having had attention during the year. The subject was discussed with earnestness and it was agreed by some speaker that Friends ought to work and vote for Prohibition and not for men or measures which tayor liquor or sick. the license of its sale. And this sentiment was strongly endorsed without a dissenting voice.

The first President of the Woman's Temperance Society in New York City, Rebecca Collins, the Octogena rian, told some thrilling incidents of temperance work in that great city of organized sin and of organized cure

Our Friend showed the progress made by the temperance cause in 60 years. Once Friends used to make a little liquor for vinegar, camphor and to taste a little. Soon Friends found it was wrong and ceased making liquor. After awhile Temperance Societies became popular. New min isters do not drink. Friends are now everywhere disowned for making or drinking liquor. A committee was appointed to press the work next year. At 5 o'clock S. F. Tumlinson, a Friend of Durham, N. C., read a strong, clear paper on Baptism, "opening and alleging" that Christ and the Apostles did not teach Baptism by water. The paper was exhaustive and occupied nearly one and half hours.

OUR WINSTON LETTER.

The boys tell a good one on a Winston youth who was at High Point Sunday with his best girl. Returning about 9 o'clock p. m., he had driven out from the Point, with no buggy near him, but unknown, some boys caught up with our friend and at every flash of the lightning proceedings in the front buggy were viewed with great delight and enjoyed much by the boys, but not quite so hug-ely as the young man, we suppose.

A colored man being tried in justice Grogan's office made a jump of 15 feet, expecting to regain his freedombut was recaptured and returned, a great deal worsted by his leap through the air.

The diptheria cases are progressing fairly, Mr. W. A. Whittaker, Geo-Rights and Irvin Miller, each, lost a child since my last letter. This is the second child Mr. Whittaker has lost in one week and the whole com munity sympathise with the besuch bright and lovely daughters.

SUFFOLK. Va., August 16,-Albert Rawls, aged about seventeen years, son of F. O. Rawls, the town sergeant committed suicide this morning. Upon being called to breakfast young Rawls appeared to be in a bad humor and became abusive to his mother, and his father threatened to chastise him. Later he went ont and purchased an ounce of laudanum at each of two stores and drank the deadly drug. He threatened to jump in the river if his father was informed of what he had done. He hid himself in a build ing in the neighborhool, and when found was insensible. Despite the efforts to resuscitate him he died in a short time. Ten died and the rest were killed in the presence of State Meterinary Surgeon Henderson, of Syracuse. The cattle took the disease from a pasture where a carload of Texas cattle was received two months

Hydrophobia from a Mad Cat

COUNCIL GROVE, Kan., Aug. 15 .-J. P. Cody, a boiler-maker in the Missouri Pacific shops at this place, was bitten by a mad dog about six weeks ago, and was to-day attacked with hydrophobia. Drs. Bradford and Harvey pronounced the case a genuine one of rabies. Mr. Cody was taken to the hospital at Sedalia for treatment. He is a nephew of the celebrated Buffalo Bill. Two children were bitten at the same time but neither have shown any symptoms of the malady.

Wonder if the President Claims them All.

It is said that 200 baby boys have already been named after the President, and about half, as many girls bearing the name of Mrs. Clveland. The difference is accounted for from the fact that the President has been in office longer than his wife
