QUEEN VICTORIA AND CHICAGO.

Mr. Collier of that City is Received in Splendid Audience by Her at Osborne.

LONDON, Aug. 23 .- Mr. Collier, of Chicago, was granted an audience by the Queen this afternoon at Osborne House, when he presented to Her Majesty the address of the Chicagoans of British birth and parentage in honor Under the head of "Special City Items," business of her jubilee. In presenting the address Mr. Collier said :

"Your Majesty: In behalf of fifty thousand people of Chicago of British birth or parentage, it gives me great pleasure to present to you this congratulatory jubilee address. Though separated far from the motherland, our hearts still beat warmly with love and veneration for England's Queen.

The Queen replied: "I thank you and the people you represent for this address, and you, personally, for your own kind words. My answer to it you will find in this

The Queen then handed a document to Mr. Collier, which read as

"I thank you for the address you have presented to me. Coming as does from persons of English birth beyond the seas, who return feelings of love for their mother country and sympathy for her welfare, I receive it with peculiar satisfaction. That the people of Chicago should have given expression to these kind sentiments, not only towards the Anglo-Saxon race in these realms, but also towards myself, is to me a source of much gratification and sustains me in the belief that the friendship and goodwill which now exists between the two countries and which I have always endeavored to promote are of a real and enduring character."

Mr. Collier was driven to Cowes in the royal carriage. He returned to London this evening. Being asked he kissed the Queen's hand, he replied: "No: that would be improper, as I am not a British subject. I am proud to be an American citizen." He considered the granting of the audience a compliment, not only to the Englishmen of Chicago, but to the citizens generally.

Sherman Returning.

WINNIPEG, MAN., Aug. 23.-Senaor Sherman and party passed through here last night, en route east. Regarding the fisheries dispute, he expressed the hope that the Canadians would accord to the Americans the shelter, bait and other good things which the United States granted to all the world. He was pleased with his trip.

Bet.

Boston, Aug. 23 .- At the park in | The Chines Press Suppressed Winthrop yesterday the cottagers were lounging about the cafe listening to a quiet discussion on politics. A man, understood to be an enthusiastic Democrat, was very emphatic in his declaration that Grover Cleveland would be the next President, and he offered to bet $50 to $25 on the result. He did not seem to think that his offer would be taken up, but a quiet-appearing man named J. S. Sheridan, a relative of Gen. Phil Sheridan, pulled out his pocket book and said that he would take that bet. As he laid down the money, he remarked that he was taking all the bets of that kind he could get.

Poison in the Milk-Cans.

KEY WEST, FLA., Aug. 23.-La Lucha, of Havana, Cuba, contains an account of wholesale poisoning by milk sold at the residence of Mme. Mendez, No. 87 Obispo street, The family consisted of Mme. Mendez and four children, Mrs. Irene Concepcion, De Castro Desmtre, Miss Rita Yalfada, Miss Rosario Valdes and Miss Concepcion Mestre, daughter of the well known photographer, who was visiting there. The milkman left two cans of milk, as usul. and the family portook of the milk at breakfast, At about 11 o'clock Miss Mestre was Savior and Agulera answered the summons. Upon their arrival at the home they found Miss Mestre lying dead on a sofa in the parlor, Mme? Mendz and two children on the floor also dead. and Miss Valdes and Miss Yallada were so far gone that medical aid could be of no assistance to them. Every person who had partaken of the milk was either dead or dying The man that sold the milk, two servants in the house and two outside persons have been arrested. The dead were persons highly connected in social circles.

ANGELS IN TENNESSEE.

Visions in Spotless White that were Seen by Several Women.

On last Saturday evening, at about sundown, on the Sterling Johnson place, two and a half miles southeast of Milan, six angels were seen to fly down into the yard of Mrs. Wood, widow, It seems that Mrs. Wood was very low with sickness, and several ladies were present attending to the wants of the sick, when a noise in the yard attracted their attention. Upon looking out of the window they saw an angel, an in a moment more it was joined by five others. They were only for a few minutes and took their flight, flying straight up until lost to view. They, with the excepfion of wings, were in the form and shape of man, with clear cut and finely operation on July 1st, 1887 was 55147. formed features, and were clothed in garments of pure and spotless white, while a halo of heavenly light encircled their heads. A Mystery of the Gulf.

KEY WEST, Fla., Aug. 23 -The schooner W. A. Watson, Buskin, master, arrived at Key West, yesterday from Pascagoula, Miss. Capt, Buskin reports that on Aug. 16, seventy-seven miles south of Pensacola, he fell in with the sloop Sampson, of New Orleans, sunk with spars and rigging along side. The sloop was freed of water and hoisted on the deck of the Watson. In the locker were found a child's gown, several pairs of children's and one pair of women's shoes, some knitting thread and needles. The captain is of opinion that the owner of the sloop, with his family, was on an excursion and capsized, probably drowning all on board. The sloop is Sheridan's Kinsman Took the 20 feet long, 6 feet beam and cat rigged.

Two members of the editorial staff of the "stationary Chinese newspaper" were arrested last evening for violating the city ordinance. The "newspaper" is nothing more nor less than the big telegraph pole in front of No. 8 Mott street. It was started about three years ago as an opposition to the Chinese American. It succeeded, for the simple reason that it was a free institution. Anybody who has an opinion can publish it there by the yard, providing he furnishes his own and paper and paste. Yesterday afternoon Chu Yo and his friend Lee were about to post up a long and exhaustive leader on how shirt bosoms should be ironed in hot weather, when they were arrested by Officer O'Sullivan, of the Elizabeth street station, for violating the city ordiance.

on every face in Mott street the rest thought that the telegraph pole was bought by We Ree & Co. when they bought the property and that Chinamen were at liberty to make it a hotel ed .- N. Y. World,

The President-Invitation Still coming in-Report of Postmaster General, &c.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.-1887.

Special Correspondence of the News. The President remains at Oak View where in truth he has enjoyed ar ideal summer. In his delightful subarban home he is master of his own movements, and is free from the restraints and perplexities of official life. He is revelling in the happiness of perfect immunity from the importunings of office seekers, and is spared for the time the tiresome complaints of politicians.

Invitations to visit distant parts of the country are still being received, the last coming from Florida, which was gracefully worded to impress upon the President that "the land of flowers, where the waters of the Gulf wash the extreme southern limit of the Republic," should be included in the round of Presidential visitations. But upfortunately for the success of the Florida invitation the "extreme southern limit" is just now infested with bad case of yellow fever, and it is not likely that the land of allegators and oranges will see the President this

The report of the First Assistant Postmaster General will contain the following information as to changes in postoffices during the past year: Number of offices established 3043; appointments by removals and suspensions 2584. Total number appointments during the year was 13079. The total number of postoffices in

Be that as than usual. And yet Congress is not called upon to provide a remedy for this unnatural condition of things, nor does the administration seem disposed to avail itself of the constitutional means for the relief of the people from unjust and unnecessary burdens.

A Message in a Bottle.

The N. Y. World, says, while Albert Frick, of No. 609 Garfield evenue, Greenfield, was fishing in New York Bay, near Cavin Point, Jersey City, he noticed a bottle floating in the water. He got it ashore and opened it. Inside was a piece of thick brown paper, on which was scrawled, in a schoolgirl's hand, these words: AUGUST, 1887.

I am detained here on Ward Island against my will. I am but twenty years of age. I am horribly treated. Please assist me. MAY MURPHY, Ward's Island.

Pretty but Not Practicable.

That is a very pretty story which comes from Indiana detailing how the lives of hundreds of passengers on an | den express train on the Cincinnati and Indianapolis Railway were saved by "an old aunty" who discovered that a bridge had-been burned down. Very pretty indeed. But what the public wants to know is, are we obliged to depend for safety in railway travel upon an old aunty who happens to be moseying along the track? What if the old aunty should take a day off occasionally? The thought is too horrible to entertain. A railway that neglects to provide trackmen, and relies upon Providence and old aunties, seems to us to incur a rather reckless degrae of rosponisbility .-Kansas City Times.

Proverbial Philosophy.

There is an Arabic proverb which divides men into four classes. He who There was surprise and indignation | knows not, and knows not he knows not-he is a damphool, a Republican of the day. The guileless Mongolians in New York and a Democrat in Florida; shun him. He who knows not, and knows he knows not-he is simple; he is a Mugwump everywhere: teach him. He who knows, and a joss house or a laundry if they want- knows not he knows -he is an old-line Whig: wake him up. He who knows, and knows he knows-he is wise : he is a Democrat in New York and Florida alike; follow him and prosper .-Jacksonville News.
