THE LATEST NEWS. SULTAN'S CAUTIOUS POLICY.

VOL. 2.

He Declines the Russians Proposals Concerning Bulgaria-

LONDON, Aug. 28.-Turkey has refused to assent to Russia's proposals for coercive action towards Bulgaria, either in the form of occupation or by sending Artin Effendi with a Russian Commissioner to Bulgaria to secure the election of a new Sobranje and a new Prince. Turkey prefers to await concerted action by all the powers parties to the Berlin treaty to hastening a quarrel with the Bulgarians. It is the general opinion of the leading European diplomats that Germany gave her assent to the Russian proposals for an Ottoman commission and a Russian General to settle the Bulgarian question merely to place herself in a position to be able to prevent Russia from taking any precipitate action which migh again set the Balkans ablaze.

VIENNA, Aug. 28.- Diplomatic representatives here say that the statement that the powers would recall their agents from Sofia is without foundation. Austria, Italy and England do not mean to withdraw their agents at present. The transfer Darmstadt, which was hastily in- the poorest criminal."-Kansas City terpreted as Germany's withdrawal, was the origin of the report. Baron Thielmann will remain in Sofia for some time.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 25 .- The Journal de St. Petersbourg says the Berlin Teg blatt's suggestions that the powers recall their agents from Solla is valueless unless the powers also demand redress and a restoration of the rights violated by Prince Ferdinand. The only act of devotion to the Bulgarians that is left for that Prince to accomplish, says the Journed, is to quit Bulgaria forthwith.

Unser Friz's Laryngeal Wart.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.-The Medical News of this week will pubthe case of the Crown Prince of Medical Society. According to the Medical News, Prof. Virehow has not discovered any appearances indicative of malignancy in the specimens of the growth submitted to him, and from his knowledge of pathology he does not hesitate to pronounce the morbid growth in the Crown Prince's larynx to be a simple wart without any cancerous tendency. The fact of recurrence does not militate against this view, and he expresses the opinion that every recurrence of the growth can be successfully removed as it presents until, as in the history of similar cases, final eradication is accomplished.

Ordered to Leave.

liems from Vanity Fair.

A heavy storm passed over Fayette township last night. While it was in progress Amas J. Biggs, a trustworthy farmer, went into his back yard to frighten away some fighting cats. so intent were they on exte mina ing one another as to allow Farmer Biggs to approach within a few feet of them. At the same instant there was a crash, and an electric bolt struck a wood pile scattering it, and stffened the cats in an intense rigor mortis.

Aside from a prickly sensation and sudden but not severe contraction of the muscles, Mr. Biggs experienced no unpleasant effect.
