A Large Comet Visible.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 29.—The largest comet that has appeared in many years was visible here last night in the northern sky. Its outline is somewhat dim, but is perfectly plain to the naked eye.

An Evening Paper to be Started.

NEW YORK, August 29.—It is stated, on good authority, that Henry George's friends have subscribed $15,000 for the establishment of an evening paper to be called the Evening Journal. It will make its appearance on Sept. 15th.

THE C. A. R. AND THE PRESIDENT.

Local Officers of the Order Talking about the Wheeling Flag Incident.

Horace Greeley Post, No. 579, G. A. R., accompanied by their friends and representatives from Naval, Dakia Reno, Gen James Sheild and Mansfield Posts, boarded a barge at the foot of Broome street yesterday afternoon, and in tow of a snorting little 40-foot tug started off on their annual excursion down the bay.

After going down the bay as far as Fort Hamilton, the excursion turned about and running over to Stapleton gave every one a close view of the Thistle.

While on the excursion the views of a number of Grand Army officials on Cleveland's administration and the incident at Wheeling, where Grand Army men refused to pass under a flag that had President Cleveland's picture on it, were ascertained by THE WORLD reporter.

George H. Moore, the senior Vice-Commander, said: "It is a peice of foolishness and the Grand Army men acted like children.

All this talk of Fairchild and Tuttle should be stopped. Cleveland, as President, should certainly be paid respect." Officer of the day John W. McGeeveran, agreed with these views.

Senior Vice-Commander David C. Warring, of Dakin Post, said that the post was solid Democratic. That they would again vote for Cleveland, he very much doubted.

Naval Post 516 contains 150 men, two-thirds of whom are Democrats. It was asserted that not over ten would vote for Cleveland in 1888. Regarding the Wheeling incident the two representatives on the excursion were divided—one thought the Pittsburg men did right, the other that they did not.

Name of a Child.

NEW YORK, August 29.—The son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gould, born a week ago, has been named Kingdom Gould.

STATE NEWS.

A telegraph office is soon to be established at Dalton.

The Argus: There are other and independent railroad schemes being developed abroad, that if duly cared for and encouraged may be brought this way and be of inestimable benefit to Goldsboro.

The case of McElwee vs Blackwell will be heard in Salisbury this week, Col. T. C. Fuller and W. W. Fuller, as attorneys, and Messrs. Ed. Lyon, Jas. Blackall, W. T. Blackwell and Hon. Joe Nichols as witness, left for Salisbury Sunday evening.

Mr. O. W. Telfair, of Washington, N. C., died in New York about ten days ago. He was before the war the leading merchant of the town of Washington, and for some time after the war was one of the principal merchants of that town.

J. B. Warren, Esq., of the firm of Warren & Pope, proprietors of the Globe Warehouse made an assignment to-day for the benefit of his creditors. Liabilities, $30,000, or thereabouts; assets unknown, but supposed to be nearly the equal to the liabilities. This was an honest failure. Lawyer J. A. Long is the trustee.—Durham Recorder.

Personals.

Gladstone has evidently taken a new lease of life. In fact, he looks younger and more hopeful than he has for years past.

Marshall P. Wilder has reached Saratoga in his tour among the summer resorts. Being an M. P., he will of course snub Congress water.

Secretary Endicott, it is said, has quite recovered his spirits since he returned to the State where his Mayflower ancestors once flourished.

Mark Twain is said to be engaged in the most gigantic financial enterprise of his life. There is never anything funny in Mark Twain's money ventures—that is, for other people.

Norman L. Munro, the wealthy publisher, is not more than forty-three years of age. He has a pretty wife, an interesting family, lands, houses, boats and, above all, good health.

The season at Saratoga is thus summed up by an observant correspondent: "Lucky Baldwin has been the great representative of wealth, Tom Ochiltree has been the prince of good fellows, John Graham has bosed as the intellectual giant of the place, while E. Berry Wall has sparkled as the Apollo of the great resort."

Horrible Dictu.

Another assault near Kernesville—this time the order of things reversed, a white boy becomes the victim and three negro women are charged with the unnam'd crime. We do not know of any law applicable to the offense, so our boys are beyond the pale of protection as far as these matters are concerned.

LATER.—The three women, in default of payment of fines and costs amounting to $27.50, were brought to Winston to-day and incarcerated in the county jail.—Winston Daily.

A Slight Shock at Augusta.

AUGUSTA, Ga., August 29.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here about 10:30 o'clock last night.

Politics began when Joseph was sold out by his brothers.—New Orleans Picayune.

Politics originated long before that. Has our esteemed Southern contemporary never heard how they were all paired in the Ark?—New York World.

Earlier even than that. Politics began with the appearance of a third party in Eden.—New York Sun.

If you are going way back, why stop short of the original Mugwump, Satan, who led a bolt in heaven?—New York World.
