

GENERAL NEWS.

—Revolution and bloodshed in Mexico.

—Congress is likely to adjourn on the 28th inst.

—Gladstone and his colleagues will resign at once.

—The Prohibition Party is coming to the front in West Virginia.

—The Prohibitionists of Baltimore have organized for the campaign.

—The Prohibitionists of Ashe Co. will put a ticket in the field this fall.

—Leader.

—The Massachusetts Prohibition State Convention will meet in Worcester, September 8th.

—The N. C. Bar Association held a meeting in Raleigh on the evening of the 20th inst.

—The Methodist Sunday School of this place will go on an excursion to Charlotte next Thursday.

—Mr. W. S. Cornell, of Johns Hopkins University, has accepted the chair of English in Davidson College.

—While we are complaining of the wet weather, some other sections of the country are suffering great drought.

—H. L. Reister, a Norfolk Va., drummer, committed suicide in Raleigh on the 19th inst. He had been on a spree.

—It is reported that Master Workman Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, will be the Democratic nominee for Governor of Penn.

—The State Prohibition Convention of New Hampshire met last week with 175 delegates present. Pretty good showing, that.

—Mr. D. M. Petty, of Bush Hill, raised this year, unfavorable as it was, 111 bushels of wheat on three acres. Who can beat that?

—There will be a Mass Meeting of the Prohibitionists of North Iredell at Union Grove on Saturday, Aug. 14th, at 11 o'clock.

—The Prohibitionists of Vermont held their State convention on the 21st inst., to nominate a party ticket. Onward, right onward we go.

—There are already 129 newspapers in this country which advocate prohibition party, and the number continues to increase.

—If you want a good bargain try ours. We have a Shoninger's been in use several years and give entire satisfaction.

—Messrs C. & M. Pretzfelder in their advertisement if you are in want of shoes, do not fail for the round trip at 50 cents. A stop will be made at Guilford Battlefield and passengers taken on at 25 cents each for the round trip.

—There is a dispatch from Jefferson City, Missouri, dated yesterday, which runs as follows: "Great excitement prevails in this State over the prohibition question. There is scarcely a school district in which the prohibitionists have not been hard at work, and so far they have swept everything."

Let it be remembered that this is in Missouri, a new field. But this shows that the work is spreading in every direction.

—Rev. James Jones of the "Prohibition Leader" and the writer delivered prohibition speeches at Brown's Summit, this county, on the 20th inst. Steps are being taken to organize a Prohibition party club at that place, and good results are confidently expected. Quite a number of subscribers were secured to both papers. One gentleman gave us four names and the money for the papers for the campaign. That is business. If all prohibitionists who are well able to do so would follow that brother's example, how the cause of prohibition would grow. Bro., select four of your acquaintances that you want to read the PROHIBITIONIST? Send us their names and addresses and $1.00 and we will send them the paper until the election. Now is the time.

Rev. W. T. Walker, once editor of the SUN, has purchased the North Carolina Prohibitionist of Greensboro, N. C. It is the organ of the Prohibition party in North Carolina. Bro. Walker becomes the editor, and this week enters upon his duties. He has a wide field before him, and will no doubt make it lively for the friends of the liquor business. He is bold as a writer and eloquent as a speaker, and not afraid to meet the Greeks on their best camping ground. He believes heartily in the third party movement as the surest way to arrest the onward march of the liquor traffic. The Prohibitionist is a 28-column weekly paper. Price, $1.00 per year. Bro. Walker proposes to send it four months from this date for 25 cents. Try it, and you will no doubt see a strong handed fight with King Alcohol and his subjects.

STOP AND THINK

When you come to town the problem to solve is, where can you buy the most goods for the least money; or more plainly speaking, you say I have but little money and want to buy lots of goods. How can it be done, you ask. Echo answers ho! If you will call at my store, spend few moments and see my goods, you will have

Double the Ages!

By a new patented machine, which costs you but little, you can easily stem double the amount of lace that you can by hand. The machine is easily worked and is so simple that anybody can work it and requires no former experience to use it.

It is worth just another hand in the factory.

Send for descriptive circular and prices.
