

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The residence of Mr. George Alley was struck by lightning last Monday. No one injured.

A house containing 7 rooms, with good garden, orchard and lot, for rent. Apply at this office.

Mr. D. E. Thomas' store on the corner of Sycamore and Davis streets, opposite the Market House, will soon be completed.

The justices of the peace, and assessors of the county, will hold a joint meeting in the court house on the first Monday in June.

The walls of Mr. C. P. Vanosty's new brick livery stable are going up right along. Davis Street is coming to the front in good earnest.

Hendrix Brothers new brick store, on E Market st., has been completed and they have opened their new stock of groceries. Success to them.

Prohibition does not prohibit. Prohibition does not prohibit any one from buying pianos, organs, sheet music or machine needles, of J. L. Stone, Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. C. C. Gorrell has returned home from her visit to Hot Springs, Ark., much improved in health, though still unable to dispense with her crutches. We are glad to have her back, even on crutches.

The numerous applicants for position on the police force are still in suspense. It is expected that the hopes of some of these gentlemen will be confirmed and the expectations of others disappointed to-night.

The Governor of Missouri has become jealous of the flattering attention given to the outlaws; but he still continues to recommend to all his constituents the famous Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for coughs and colds.

"This will last out a night in Russia when nights are longest there" he said, clapping his hand over the aching tooth. But a friend suggested Salvation Oil, and he was fast asleep in twenty seconds. Price twenty-five cents a bottle.

The C. F. & Y. V. R. R. is in some sense a curse, as well as a blessing, to Greensboro and vicinity in that many of the convicts are released here or herabouts. Some of these gentry are now in our jail waiting only till the next session of court to be sent back to the road. "The way of the transgressor is hard," and it seems, hard to forsake.

Circumstances prevented us from attending the memorial exercises Tuesday. We copy the following from the Morning News:—"The memorial exercises passed off pleasantly, yesterday, and, generally, in a cordance with the programme published yesterday morning. The procession, headed by the Greensboro Brass Band, proceeded to the cemetery, where the graves were beautifully and profusely decorated with flowers. Returning to the city, the vast concourse of people were entertained in the Court Room by Mr. J. M. Leach, Jr., in an able address of about forty-five minutes' duration. The speaker was complimented on all sides, and a grand future is predicted for him."

MILLINERY.

Mrs. C. C. Gorrell has a full line of ladies and childrens hats, gloves, Rutching &c. &c., and the ladies will find it to their interest to see her stock before purchasing elsewhere. New goods will be received every few days.

GOOD WAGES AHEAD.

GEORGE STINSON & Co., Portland Maine, can give you work that you can do and live at home, making great pay. You are started free. Capital not needed. Both sexes. All ages. Cut this out and write at once; no harm will be done if you conclude not to go to work, after you learn all. All particulars free. Best paying work in the world. Mar. 18 '86

WORTH YOUR ATTENTION.

Cut this out and mail it to ALLEN & Co., Augusta Maine, who will send you free, something new, that just costs money for all workers. As wonderful as the electric light, as genuine as pure gold, it will prove of lifelong value and importance to you. Both sexes, all ages. ALLEN & Co., bear expense of starting you in business. It will bring you in more cash, right away than anything else in the world. Anyone anywhere can do the work, and live at home also. Better write at once; then knowing all, should you conclude that you don't care to engage, why no harm is done.

GENERAL NEWS.

The debt of Virginia still remains unsettled.

The Garfield statue was unveiled yesterday.

The trial of Chicago's bootleggers began on the 9th inst.

Dom Pedro, Emperor of Brazil, is reported seriously ill.

Ohio Prohibitionists are holding meetings and pushing the cause in earnest.

The French official, M. Schnaebelen, who was arrested some days ago by German authorities, has been released.

A nihilist printing office was discovered at Odessa, Russia, last Saturday and 23 nihilists have been arrested.

Of the 105 news papers of Texas taking sides on the question of Prohibition, 84 favor and 21 oppose the amendment.

The Rhode Island Legislature has enacted a law compelling railroad companies to heat passenger cars from the locomotive.

The commencement at Rutherford College will embrace the 21st and 22nd of June.

The Prohibitionists of Maine held a meeting on the 10th inst., for consultation and arranging plans for work for the campaign of 1888.

Dr. W. T. Northup, a temperance worker of Doverhill, O., was waylaid on the streets and shot to death a few days ago, by saloonists.

The earthquake has changed its base, and when last heard from was having a tussle with Mexico, whose inhabitants have been thereby uncomfortably shaken up.

The President has presented a gold watch and chain to Captain George Richie, of the British bark Bachelors, for rescuing the crew of the American steamship Saragossa, March 23.

The fight waxes hotter and hotter in Texas and Tennessee. When the smoke is lifted from the battle field, whether the Amendment carry or fail, the victory will be with the Prohibition party.

Warrants have been issued in Nashville, N. C., for the arrest of 18 men charged with shooting at a train on the Western North Carolina Railway. They were section hands on the road and were out on a spree at the time.

Emanuel De Pretas, a youth of 19 years, jumped from the Brooklyn Bridge last Wednesday. He came out uninjured; but was immediately arrested by a policeman. We wonder whether the law makers and officials of New York hold the doctrine of PERSONAL PRIVILEGE as advocated by the whiskyites?

We acknowledge, with thanks the receipt of an invitation from Mr. A. A. Isely, one of the marshalls, to attend the commencement exercises of Graham Normal College, May 25th and 26th, 1887. The Annual Address will be delivered by Rev. Thos. Hume, Jr. D. D., That card, Bro. Isely, is the most handsome thing of the kind we have ever seen.

Rochester, N. Y. April 29.—In the town of Parma, Monroe County, David Trimmer was tried for selling liquor without a license, found guilty, fined $50, and sentenced to the penitentiary for 60 days. This was on the 16th. On Monday, by some process, he was released on bail, and his friends were so delighted that they made an effigy of Dr. Samuel Holman, a leading temperance man, burned it, and while it was burning shot it through with bullets.

Two weeks from to-morrow, May 20, our Railroad Celebration comes off. Let it be understood that everybody is invited to be present. Let no one wait for a special invitation. The committee on invitations was charged with the duty of securing speakers and asking the few of the officials to be present. They are not expected to issue formal invitations to individuals. If they were to undertake it, they could not think of every one, and some might feel slighted. Let all come who will.—The Home.

The Rev. Theron Brown says; There are in this country 14,000 schools against 12,800 schools and 24,000 Churches, Manufacturers and sellers of strong drink, 5,000,000—twelve times the number of clergymen, four times as many as teachers, nearly double all the lawyers, physicians ministers and teachers combined. In these saloons, there 5, 600, 000 daily customers, one in seven of our whole population. Of these, 1,000,000 are annually imprisoned for crime, at an expense of $90,000,000, and 150 go down to drunkards graves, leaving 200,000 beggared orphans.—M. Advocate.

WHISKY MURDERS.

A fatal shooting affray occurred at Chrisney, Ind., on the 18th. A man by the name of Thompson had been refused a saloon license on account of the opposition of some citizens. The case was carried up to the courts and decided against him. On the day named, Thompson and some of his friends met some of the parties who had opposed the granting of license, on the street, and attacked them. One of the assailed parties was badly beaten and received some severe cuts in the head, and another was fatally shot. It is thought that Thompson was the one who did the shooting.

MORE RUM TRAGEDIES.

David Perkins of South Seabrook, N. H. on Monday evening, while under the influence of liquor, attempted to assault all whom he encountered, ending by stabbing a young man named Ellsworth Eaton in the back, making a bad cut near the shoulder blade. The town of Doylestown, O., defeated prohibition on Monday, and the liquor dealers, in honor of the event imbibed freely. At midnight a gang of liquor dealers visited the house of ex-Marshall Smith and smashed in the front of his house. Smith came out and was shot at and wounded. He was able to return the fire, however, and succeeded in wounding several of the mob and scaring the others a way. A passer by was hit by one of Smith's bullets and dangerously wounded.—Portland Herald.

FIRED FROM HIS OWN HOME.

An editor died and slowly wended down to where he supposed a warm reception awaited him. The devil met him and said: "For many years thou hast borne the blame for the many errors that the printers made in the papers. The paper has gone alas for $1 and the $1 alas had often failed to come in the printers have debilitated thee for wages Saturday when thou hadst not one cent to your name. Men have taken the paper without paying for it, and cursed thee for not getting up a better paper. Thou hast been called a dead beat by the passenger conductors when thou hast shown thy annual pass to their envious gaze. All this thou hast borne in silence. Thou canst not come in here." And he fired him. As he did so he muttered to himself "Heaven is his home and besides if we let him come in here he will be continually dunning his delinquent subscribers, and thus create discord in my kingdom."—Ex.

CONFEDERATION IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

The treaty concluded between the 5 republics of Central America—Costa Rica, San Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua and Guatemala—has just been officially published. It consists of 32 articles. In case difficulties threaten their peace the dispute is to be referred to arbitration. It provided that the citizens of all the States shall have equal rights in every State with the citizens thereof. Citizens of one republic can be naturalized in any of the others on one year's residence; other foreigners in 3 years. All articles indigenous to or manufactured in any of the signatory republics shall be exempt from import, export and municipal (octroi) taxes after September 19, 1890. The diplomatic or consular agents of any one republic are required to act for the citizens of any other republic when called upon to do so, and the legalization of a deed or paper by the consular agent shall be sufficient evidence of its execution in all. The 5 republics agree to enter the Postal Union, and make all printed matter free of postage. A uniform system of coinage, weights and measures and of the penal and civil codes is provided for. An international congress of the five republics shall be held every 2 years, beginning September 15, 1888.—Appalachian Philosopher.

THE UNION MEETING OF THE BEULAH ASSOCIATION AND THE DEDICATION OF THE GREENSBORO CHURCH.

The Union meeting of the Beulah Association will be held with the Greensboro church, commencing on Friday before the third Sunday in May, at 11 A. M., instead of the fifth Sunday. The change of time has been made by the consent of several of the leading members of the Association, and for the following reasons:

1st. On the third Sunday our new church will be dedicated, and quite a number of the brethren wish to be here on that occasion, and cannot come then and on the fifth Sunday both.

2nd. The sermon to the graduating class of the Greensboro Female College will be preached on the fifth Sunday.

We trust that the change will keep none away, but will induce the more to come.

PROGRAMME.

At 11 A. M., Friday, sermon by Rev. W. B. Wingate.

The following subjects will be discussed. 1st. The duty of the pastor to the church, and of the church to the pastor. Dr. C. A. Rominger, Rev. S. F. Conrad and Rev. J. H. Lamberth. 2nd. The office, qualification and work of a deacon. Rev. W. H. Wilson, W. B. Wingate, H. W. Battle and H. A. Brown.

3rd. Our denominational literature—is the proper effort being made by pastors and churches to place it in the hands of the people? Rev. J. H. Vernon, J. B. Richardson, S. H. Thompson, C. T. Bai y, and Prof. J. A. Delke.

4th. In the religious instruction of the present age is due prominence given to the authority of God's word, and the importance of rendering faithful obedience unto the same? Rev. T. E. Skinner, D. D., Thomas Hume, D. D., and Bro. J. H. Mills.

5th. Our Associational Mission work. Rev. W. L. Wright and C. A. Rominger.

6th. Our Orphanage. J. H. Mills and J. N. Stallings.

W. R. GUALTNEY, R. R. MOORE, Committee.

HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Contains 320 Pages of 12 mo. Size, 22 Fine Engravings, and is Substantially Bound in Leatherette Tree Calf, Gilt.

NOT A CHEAP PAMPHLET LIKE MOST NEWSPAPER BOOK PREMIUMS.

This History is upon an entirely novel and original plan, which makes it indispensable to every person, no matter how many other histories he may have. It is arranged chronologically by years, from 482 to 1885. Every event is narrated in the order of its date. These are not confined, as in other works, to political matters, but embrace every branch of human action. It describes under its proper date all important events; all discoveries in science and the useful arts; the digging of canals and the building of railroads and telegraph lines, the founding of towns, and the erection of notable buildings and bridges; the first performances of plays and the first appearances of actors and a negro; fires, floods, hailstorms, locusts, cyclones, epidemics; accidents and disasters on sea and land; riots and crimes, plagues and business failures; "corners" and phenomenal prices in all markets; labor troubles, strikes and lockouts; and hundreds of other matters never mentioned by historians. Besides being a history in the ordinary sense, it is a condensed newspaper file for four hundred years.

With the gift of the above History the North Carolina Prohibitionists and the weekly New York World will be mailed to any subscriber for $3 for one year.
