It will bring you in more cash, right away than anything else in the world. Anyone anywhere can do the work, and live at home also. Better write at once; then knowing all, should you conclude that you don't care to engage, why no harm is done. A Serious Row. Report reaches us that a man by the name of Herson in charge of a force of colored hands employed by the Railroad Company had his squad at Bridgewater, a small station in Burke county, on last Sunday, when Herson asked some of the negroes to go after whisky, which they hear they protested against, but he finally succeeded in getting some of them to go and Herson and the negroes indulged freely when the negroes, crazed by whisky became unmanageable. A fight ensued in which Herson cut a negro with a knife very seriously in several places and himself received pistol balls in three different parts of his body, and is supposed to be mortally wounded. Very few people living at Bridgewater, it was found necessary to telegraph to Old Fort, to quell the row. A sufficient force came and the offenders were arrested and now await trial in Morganton jail. The white man and one negro, it is thought will die, and the Penitentiary will probably be re-inforced by a few others. Whisky did it. Western Carolinian. BURLINGTON ITEMS. Holt's melon patch last week, and the result has been one of them is now in jail and the other two have had to skip or hide to escape a like fate. Ah, boys, better go to work and raise them or pay your money for melons. Mr. Henderson May, son of our townsman, Mr. B. B. May, was married last week. DOTTEN. Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for a speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a reliable and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative power in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming the paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y. eow. Jan 28, '88. GIVEN AWAY. HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES contains 290 Pages of 12 mo. Size, 22y Fine Engravings, a 4t. Substantially Bound in Leatherette T'ce 417, '61. Not a Cheap Pamphlet like most NEWSPAPER BOOK PUBLISHERS. This History is upon an entire novel and original plan, which makes it indispensable to every person, no matter how in any other histories he may have. It is arranged chronologically by years, from 423 B. C. to 1885. Every event is narrated in the order of its date. These are not confined, as in other works, to political matters, but embrace every branch of human action. It describes under its proper date all important events; all discoveries in science and the use of art; the digging of canals and the building of railroads and telegraph lines; the founding of towns and the erection of notable buildings; and ideas; the first performances of plays and the first appearances of actors and actresses; fires, floods, hailstorms, tornadoes, cyclones, epidemics, accidents and disasters on sea and land; the sand crimes, plagues and business failures; corners and plom as at prices in all markets; labor trouble, strikes and lockouts; and hundreds of other matters never mentioned by other writers. Besides being a history in the ordinary sense, it is condensed newspaper file or our hundred years.

For young people is what the papers call ST. NICHOLAS. Do you know about it, how good it is, how clean and pure and hopeful? If there are any boys or girls in your house who do not try and read it for a year, and see if it isn't just the element you need in the household? The London Times has said, "We have nothing like it on this side." Here are some leading features of ST. NICHOLAS For 1886-87. Stories by Louisa M. Alcott, Frank R. Stockton—several by each author. A short serial story by Mrs. Burnett, whose charming, "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has been a great feature in the past year of ST. NICHOLAS. War stories for Boys and Girls. General Dadeau, chief-of-staff, biographer, and confidential friend of General Grant, and one of the ablest and most popular of living military writers, will contribute a number of papers describing in clear and vivid style some of the leading battles of the civil war. They will be panoramic descriptions of single contests or short campaigns, presenting a sort of literary picture-gallery of the grand and heroic contests in which the parents of many a boy and girl of to-day took part. The Serial Stories include: "Juan and Juanita," an admirably written story of Mexican life, by Frances Conroyan Baylor, author of "On Both Sides," also, "Ottis's Boarding House," by James Ottis, a story of life in a great city. Short Articles, instructive and entertaining, will abound. Among these are: "How a Great Panorama is Made," by Theodore R. Davis, with profuse illustrations; "Winning a Commission" (Naval Academy), and "Recollections of the Naval Academy;" "Boring for Oil" and "Among the Gas-wells," with a number of striking pictures; "Child Sketches from George Eliot," by Julia Magruder; "Victor Hugo's Tales to his Grandchildren," recounted by Brander Matthews; "Historic Girls," by E. S. Brooks. Also interesting contributions from Nora Perry, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Benjamin Miller, H. H. Hoyer, Washington Gladden, Alice Wellington Rollins, J. T. Trowbridge, Lieutenant Frederick Schwatka, Noah Brooks, (Grand Denio, Litchfield, Ross, Hawthorn, Mrs. S. M. B. Platt, Mary Mapes Dodge, and many others, etc. The subscription price of SAINT NICHOLAS is $3.00 a year; 25 cents a number; subscriptions are received by booksellers and newsdealers everywhere or by the publishers. New volume begins with the November number; send for our beautifully illustrated catalogue (free) containing full prospectus, etc., etc. THE CENTURY CO., New York. Good Wages Ahead.
