I. O. O. F. Resolutions of Respect.

Our Heavenly Father, in His Divine Providence, has been pleased to take from among us, our worthy brother, J. E. Tucker, and as we desire to offer a feeble expression of our feelings for our loss, therefore, be it resolved 1st, That while we mourn the sad death of our beloved brother, we humbly bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

2nd, That by the death of Bro. Tucker, Covenant Lodge has lost one of its most faithful and representative members, his mother and sisters a faithful son and brother.

3rd, That we tender to the bereaved mother and family our heartfelt sympathy, and earnestly pray that God will sustain and comfort them in their great affliction.

4th, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of Covenant Lodge, a copy be sent to the bereaved mother and one each to the Eastern Reflector and Greenville INDEX with a request that they be published.

J. WHITE,
C. D. ROUNTREE, } Committee.
D. L. JAMES,

Lightning Lights.

The R. R. warehouse at Seaboard was struck and destroyed with a quantity of flour, cotton, hay, etc., last Sunday week. Loss $2,000

Leadbetter's cotton mills in Rockingham was struck and completely destroyed Monday. Loss $1,3000.

The residence of Hon. Frank McNeil, candidate for Congress, was struck and partially burned last week. His wife was badly injured.

The cotton ware house at Goldsboro was struck, and burned a large lot of cotton valued at $10,000.

Hon. B. F. Parker's dwelling, near Monroe, was completely destroyed by fire last week.

Mr. Alexander, near Charlotte, lost his barn, stables, mules, and forage by fire last Wednesday night.

The burning of Mr. Warren's dwelling, the wrecking of Jas. T. Joyner's dwelling and the David House gin house and cotton by fire and lightning in the past two weeks in Pitt county ought to make our people seek more security from such calamities

We were talking with Mr Jesse L. Sugg about fire insurance yesterday and he told us that his companies paid out tens of thousands of dollars for losses by fire. Mr. Sugg also said that our people were getting more and more business like about insuring their tobacco barns, pack houses, gin houses, barns, stables and dwellings against loss by fire.

We advise our readers to see Mr. Sugg and if the cost is not too heavy to insure against fire this summer and fall.

LANDLORDS.

If you wish a Western North Carolina or Virginia tenant for 1895 to raise tobacco, corn peanuts, write to me. I have several applications for from 1 to 3 horse crops of Pitt county land.
