SCHOOL LAW CHANGES.

FEAL.

State Superintendent of Public Instruc-

I w sh to explain one or two important changes in the school law as enseted by the last General Assembly of North Car-

First: The township is to be the unit of our public school system. The public Governor Russell has pardoned schools in the township are under the control and management of the five Governor of lext, and in 1877 came to school committeemen. These men have large discretion as to establishing schools in their townships. As a matter of fact, under the old law in many instances there are three buts, not school houses, each recelying labout $75 per year. Under the new law it is possible to have, instead of the three cabine, one good a hool house near the centre of the territory covered by the three cabins and have $225 for this school. Instead of having three $15 teachers, we may have one $50 man or woman that may do more for the school old system was done in two or three years Who would not rather send his children is a good school than to have a poor school on the corner of h s farm? I am aware tiat some are very much opposed to the sonal preference and join in hearty coeperation for the greatest good to the greatest number. When we unite the small school into one goot, strong school with one energetic, live teacher, then and not until then may we expect to have public schools of such to co and character that w.ll be fe t in our State.

Second: The election to be held on "Tuesday after the second Monday in August" s worthy of your care ul considerery township. The county commissioners at their June meeting are to give notice of this election in every county in North Carolina. Any township that votes to tax itself $500 for jublic schools will cation; or if this amount is raised by private sut scription for a township, the same amount may be received from the two years at $10,000, as at present. not become alarmed when you hear the word tax. I am sure that our country On Sunday, 2nd, Chicago suffered people do have a hard time to pay their make only eight strong chools, each one would receive from the $2,000 $250; add Tra. Burch & Company, who have this $250 to your school fund. If we can tut three of the $75 schools together, then we would have $250 plus $225, which is I tell you it can be done, and when we have $475 for each of our public schools in our State, then w will have a right to The Florida legislative investiga- demand professional teachers in our pub-

A FIGHT WITH A LYNX.

Jim Berry Had a Desperate Struggle With a Savage Bobcat.

The ugliest appearing animal that ever walked a log, killed a rabbit or fought a trap is the lynx, which is just as ugly as it looks ten months in the year and somewhat uglier during the other two. Not only will the lynx fight anything that walks the woods, but it will also tackle a visitor from the clearings, be he man or dog or half grown calf, if the occasion offers.

Jim Berry was hunting up in Maine, about 40 miles north of Greenville, when he and his friend suddenly came upon the carcass of a caribou which a bear was eating. The bear made itself scarce, much to Jim's regret, as he wanted to kill the bear. Without saying anything to his friend he left camp the next day and started for the carcass, intending to watch it, in the hope that the bear would return. He waited and watched until about 8 o'clock in the afternoon, when he began to think of returning to camp. A soft footfall back in the woods—the crafty step of some wild animal—just then sounded in his ears. Pretty soon the bear was chewing the caribon meat, and Jim could see it plainly. He leveled his buckshot gun and pulled the trigger, when the wabbling muzzle was pointed in what he thought was the right direction. The beast went down, and Jim started for it.

Then he stopped, with his mouth open. The beast had leaped to his feet and jumped sideways, with its back up. Jim knew the yell, and he also recognized the humped back. It was a wounded lynx spoiling for a fight. Not having time to level his gun to shoot, the man clubbed it, and the blow stunned the cat a little, but the beast got in a rake on the man's leg and tore his trousers and hide too. Another frantic sweep of the gun barrel laid the beast flat, and then a revolver bullet killed the animal. The buckshot had torn the top of the lynx's head-enough to make it angry. -Shooting and Fishing.
