Wide-awake and Watching

Merchants we are young. In experience we are to be useful merchants demand wakeness—de- watchfulness. The more wakeful and watchful we are the more useful we are to the buying public. It pays to be on the alert just at this time. A back- reason has made manufacturers and agents very "Over-Stocked," is the cry all along the line. Price breaks, to relieve the pressure, are taking place on every hand. Close touch with the markets gives this store the power to push the good things your way. Thus a few prices are named. We can Clothe and Shoe you to your entire satisfaction, and the prices all leaning your way.

SCHOOL CLOSED.

The closing exercises of the public school at Flanagan's School house taught by Miss Lizzie Murphy were held on Friday evening, the 7th. A large and delighted crowd was in attendance and it was a grand success, showing how the young minds have been trained by thorough teaching.

The exercises consisted of music dialogues and recitations, and closed with a delightful pleasure party engaged in by all present and was most enjoyable. The opening was a greeting, "Ho for Carolina" by the school, and was sung with a vim.

The whole exercises were inter- luded by strains of sweet music from the String Band, composed of the young men of the neighbor- hood.

This was an occasion long to be remembered by the good people of the community.

Miss Murphy is an efficient and popular teacher and it is hoped she may return again. S. A. I. Ju. 8th 1901.

DIXON-DAIL.

Mr. J. W. Dixon, of Kinston, and Miss Mary Dail, of Snow Hill, were married in the Methodist church in that town Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. E. Pope, the pas- tor, officiating. The church was crowded with relatives and friends of the happy couple. People from Goldsboro, Kinston and Greenville were there. There were many handsome presents.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dixon left for LaGrange, where they took the morning train for Buffalo, N. Y. They will also go to Niagara Falls and will visit Toronto, Canada. They will be gone about a month.

Mr. Dixon is one of the proprie- tors of the Farmers' Warehouse, now in course of erection here. He is a popular young business man.

Mrs. Dixon was most popular among a large circle of friends in Greene, Wayne, Lenoir and Pitt counties—Kinston Free Press.

Mrs. Dixon is sister to Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse. The couple were very popular here where they have many friends.

SNOW

Friday's papers gave an account of a two hours heavy snow storm in the Dakotas. That accounts for our cool weather Saturday. Weather man DeVoe said there would be sleighing in Iowa the last of May and he came near being right.

Dyspeptics cannot be long lived because to live requires nourishment Food is not nourishing until it is dig- ested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food, it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural func- tions. Its elements are exactly the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. J. L. Wooten.

FIRE.

Sunday night about ten o'clock a small blaze of fire was discovered at the office in the store of Jas. B. White. The front door was broken open and the fire put out before much of a crowd could get there though the alarm disturbed nearly all the town. The damage was small. The fire started under the office floor, which is raised several inches above the other floor. The origin of the fire is unknown.

ASSIGNMENT.

The firm of J. Patrick & Co., general merchants at Grift is as- signed last week. C. J. Tucker is assignee. We understand the li- abilities are about $9,000, assets $3,000.

Joe, the thirteen year old son of Mr. R. M. Kennedy, was bitten by a moccasin snake in the low grounds above the river bridge Sunday morning. He suffered night much. Dr. Moye is attending him and he is getting along well.
