F. W. B. T. SEMINARY.

The closing exercises of The Free Will Baptist Theological Seminary, at Ayden were held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday last week.

The exercises Tuesday was the debate: Query, "Has ambition wrought more harm than good to mankind."

Wednesday's exercises consisted of music, recitations, declamations, &c.

Thursday Elder W. H. Frost of New Berne, delivered the annual address Education in its various phases, was his subject.

After the address a splendid dinner was served on the grounds.

After dinner there was a "good will" meeting, at which many spoke, the means for paying a $400 debt on the building, how to raise a $10,000 endowment fund and other matters pertaining to the betterment of its educational facilities were considered.

At night the closing exercises were held.

A broken bridge, compelling us to go several miles out of the way, made us miss nearly all Elder Frosts address as he had about finished when we arrived. The "good will" meeting was interesting and showed the great interest there is for the welfare and success of the school. The attendance has steadily increased until more room is needed.

Ayden is fast becoming the educational centre of Pitt county.

Its people are hospitable hostlers and bent on getting there all along the line.

PALMIST DAYS.

Mr. Robert Greene, of Greenville N. C., manager of Jno. Flanagan Buggy Co., was told by her (Mme. Lela Elrado, the famous palmist) to invest in cotton futures. In a few days he did so, and made $370 on $100 dollars in one hour. —News & Observer

READ IT IN NEWSPAPER.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by J. L. Wooten's

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water, as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver and you may know that his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price 25c. Samples free at J. L. Wooten's drug store.

—J. B. Cherry & Co. offer timely suggestions with valuable information for carrying them out. They are practical and what they say is worthy of consideration. They give cool talks for hot weather. They have a new adv. that should attract attention.
