"THE VILLAGE BRIDE."

The Herald Square Opera Co., will appear here in the Opera House, Friday night, November 15th and will present "The Village Bride" for the first time here. It is a 3 act Comic Opera and the following is a short synopsis

The story is that of a Spanish peasant girl in the time of Queen Isabella, whose (Nicolo) has pledged her in marriage to Dromez, the village miller, who has little of manly charms to attract a female. The girl, Cirola, is in love with Don Luis, who is an officer of the Queen and whom Cirola has never seen, having only heard his voice. When the officer sees the young peasant he is smitten with her charms and by means of a bribe, induces the miller to give her up and allow him to take his place at the altar, disguised as the miller.

Act II opens as the bride and party are being escorted to the mill of Dromez whom it is supposed she married. While in the mill, Luis enters hunting her and as he finds her, the Lord Chamberlain and King Philip appeared also disguised in long black cloaks. The result is the mystification of the bride as she at last finds her husband.

Act III is in the Palace at Santiago, and opens with Lazariela reproaching her husband and refusing to listen to explanations when the Queen and suite enter. Unaware of the secret marriage the Queen is scandalized and is about to expostulate when Dromez enters with the disguises and tells their history.

After mutual explanations the act ends amid joyous song.

Chesterfield county S. C. boasts the youngest father in the country, in the person of Clarence Wadsworth. Clarence, who lives near Mt. Groghan, married when he was 14 and now, at the age of 15, is the father of a fine boy. His wife is 11.
