SUBSCRIPTION, 25 CENTS A YEAR

Guided, by circumstances and experience, that Geo P. Howell & Co., are common enemies of the local weekly paper and considering their so-called "American Newspaper Directory" a fraud, all their requests for circulation statements &c. are contemptuously ignored.

Communications, news or topical matters are solicited but the WEEKLY'S columns are closed to youthful and bombastic effusions.

Obituaries, angelic and transporting must come from friends or relatives and not exceed ten lines to be inserted gratis.

All persons disliking the expressions of the Weekly are earnestly requested to kick vigorously and often.

The editor writes the editorials and is not responsible for expressions by correspondents.

All entertainments for revenue are expected to contribute liberally for notices wanted.

To avoid risk, subscribers should remit by money order or registered letter.

Deadbeat and paper advertising offers should always include postal for rejection

Advertising rates furnished on application.

Advertisements in Local Column, 5 cents per line, each insertion.

PITT COUNTY IN DEBT.

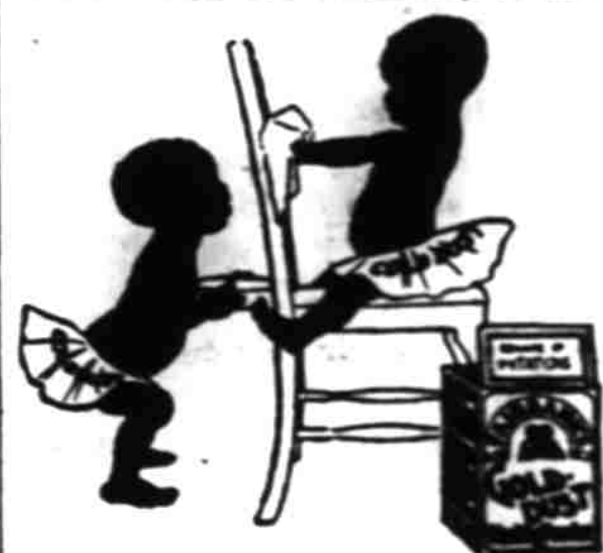

Last January we made the statement that Pitt county was behind—in debt, a statement which fired one of the bosses to rush into print vehemently denying the charge and doubting "if any county in the State can show a better condition of finances." In reply we gave a few facts and the boss went into his hole.

Now we want to know how much money the county has borrowed this year? How much more it will have to borrow? Why there is records of such transactions on the records of the Commissioners' proceedings? Why the reports of the county officers are pigeon-holed instead of being properly recorded? How much is Pitt county in debt now?

We ask the commissioners to give the public this information. If not given now, it will be some time.

That was a fine start that committee made Monday when it waited on that man Newton at the factory. They did fine work when he was given a certain number of hours to leave town. Banishment to another community is poor compensation for the death of Bessie

Miller. If he is not fit for this community is he fit for any? If he was a negro, he might be sent to Massachusetts but a white man should be dealt with right here. And when the committee gets through with him, it may find other work to do. We are profoundly pleased to see a start made. Gentlemen let it continue. But don't vent all your anger and indignation upon the perhaps ignorant stranger within your gates, when there is so much, so much for you to do. We are more than glad to see signs of such a moral awakening and we earnestly entreat you not to let it die aborting.

She was just a woman, weak and leaning—a woman homeless. But why say woman? when she was but a girl, yet in her teens and trusting faithless man. She was an orphan and in an evil hour became the prey of him who should have been her guardian and protector. Young and innocent she was led astray. And an uncle was the seducer. Then came worse. Their sins were finding them out. She must become a mother. To a house of prostitution he sent her, where his visits continued. Then came worse. A child was born into the world. The mother became even the victim of neglect and want. Death relieved her of her earthly troubles and strangers laid her in a paupers grave. Soon the grass will hide her grave, the child will never know its forgotten mother.
