KEELEY IN ITS NEW HOME.

Magnificent Effort of Mr. Mowbray at the Opening.

INSTITUTE'S ELEGANT QUARTERS.

"A Place Where Shackles are Stricken from Human Limbs and Fangs Extracted From Human Souls."

A considerable crowd gathered at the new Keeley Institute yesterday to be present at the formal opening in response to the invitation of the management. Had it been generally known what a treat was in store for those who heard the speech of Mr. Mowbray the crowd would have been five times as large as it was. It is impossible not to feel sorry for those who missed it.

The reporter thought it was an accident for the first few minutes and tried to catch a few of the "jewels five words long" that the speaker was throwing away but he soon learned better and giving up in despair, the reporter was lost in the auditor. For an hour and a quarter the audience under the old oaks sat spell bound, while the orator showed what a magnificent vehicle of thought is the English as it can be spoken. After hearing the leading orators of the country it must be said in justice to Mr. Mowbray that never once has he heard a man who was more completely master of the language. There was the "nameless charm" that only a few can command.

Ladies made up a considerable part of the audience and turning to them the speaker said that "ever since the day when woman was last the cross and first at the sepulchre she has been the first in every good work and the last to relinquish it." Therefore they were found at the opening of a "place where the shackles will be stricken from human limbs and the fangs extracted from human souls."

He paid a tribute to Mrs. Gray that was incomparably fine and would be published if it could be had. Speaking of the past of the Keeley Institute he said he had distributed $97,000 in Greensboro and $15,000 in pure charity. The speaker gave a history of his own life, saying that for eighteen years he was the slave of both opium and alcohol; that he tried every noted physician and every sanitarium in Europe and America; that finally, when a physical and mental wreck, he tried the Keeley treatment and in five weeks was turned out cured and a new man. After that, he said, he resolved to never lose an opportunity to bear testimony to its value. It was magnificent testimonial to the beneficence of the Keeley remedy.

Dr. Weaver opened the exercises with prayer and Dr. Egbert W. Smith introduced the speaker in a few well chosen words as "one of the first speakers of our country"—a title that was ably warranted.

After the address the doors of the fine old homestead, which has been beautified and enlarged without destroying the charm of the old, was thrown open to the inspection of visitors.

The building has been fitted up thoroughly, has bath, smoking and club rooms and all the appliances that contribute to comfort in these days. With its broad lawn, grand old trees, quiet locality and commodious interior there is no more delightful place to spend a few weeks than the new quarters of the Keeley Institute. Seventy-five patients can be accommodated with ease and one hundred when necessary. Refinement and ease, comfort and healing, "the striking of shackles from human limbs and extracting fangs from human souls," this is what the new Keeley has to offer.

Col. W. H. Osborne remains as President; William Lipscomb, manager; Dr. B. B. Williams, physician in charge, Mrs. Banks, matron.

The First Resignation.

The resignation of R. W. Nading as clerk to the district attorney is the first to occur under the civil service laws and it is not known what steps will be taken as to the appointment of his successor. It is believed, however, that J. E. Buxton, whose name has been forwarded to the department for the place, will be appointed.—Winston Journal.

Van Wyck Will Not Speak.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 22.—It is positively announced here today that Van Wyck, the Democratic candidate for mayor of Greater New York, will not take the stump. He is the only one of the seven candidates for mayor not making nightly speeches.

JARRELL HOTEL CHANGES HANDS

Southern's Improvements—Couldn't Stand Salisbury—Personals.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 22, '97.

There was a man on the northbound train last night, pulling from the glorious Old North State, who declared that he intended getting as far away as the train would carry him. He was very indignant because the authorities of Salisbury pulled a hobo and set him to ball-bearing, when "he want doing nothing but beatin' his way." He rejoiced that he would soon be across the Virginia line, declaring that there was no law and regulation in North Carolina. His cause for complaint was that the authorities of Salisbury wanted him to ante up half his taxes and show cause why he should not pay the balance, or else pay $100 fine and work 30 days with ball and chain attachment. "What am I going to stay here for?" he concluded. "I ain't no dern fool!"

The Jarrell Hotel changed hands yesterday afternoon, Mr. N. H. Slaughter taking charge. The jolly knights of the grip all over the land will be glad to know "Uncle Whiskers" has turned landlord. We hope and expect the new management to be a prosperous one.

W. P. Ragan returned to Greensboro last night.

Superintendent O'Brien and Vice-President Gannon, of the Southern, were in High Point, in their respective private cars, inspecting the road's premises about the depot. The Southern has decided to extend the freight platform and to construct a roof over it. The ever increasing bulk of freight coming to and from High Point has, of course, justified this step. A new side track will also be laid. These improvements will be made at once.

Misses Daisy and Ollie Chandler, of Bessemer City, spent last night visiting the Misses Smith here.

W. L. Stamey returned from Newton night.

Messrs. O. N. Richardson and Wm. Tate went to Greensboro on the noon train.

Rev. T. A. Smoot left for Greensboro this morning.

W. E. Johns, Jr., and Mrs. Banner returned to Mt. Airy today.

SAGASTA GETS HAUGHTY.

Fillbustering Must be Stopped Before an Answer Can be Given.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Oct. 22.—Sagasta declines to accept Secretary Sherman's excuses and explanations of the fillbustering expeditions. Minister Dupuy De Lane was ordered to notify Secretary Sherman that these expeditions must be stopped; until then he cannot say when peace will be restored.

This indicates a crisis in the negotiations and presages an unsatisfactory answer to Woodford's note.

WRONG STRIPE ON THE TIGERS.

After the Princeton for the Keeping of its Inn.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Galesburg, Ill., Oct. 22.—The Presbyterian synod of Illinois today adopted resolutions denouncing Princeton University for allowing the use of wine at banquets and score the faculty for permitting the sale of liquor in Princeton inn.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 22.—General Miles made his annual report to the secretary of war today. He makes new suggestions for additional regiments. He also speaks of the progress made to both coasts and devotes considerable attention to Alaska.

Appealing to America.

London, Oct. 21.—The Executive Committee of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers is about to send to the leading newspapers and labor organizations in the United States a statement, giving the details of the strike of engineers now in progress and declaring that the sum of $100,000 is required weekly to pay the men on strike and meet other expenses.

POST OFFICE REPORT OUT.

Additional Facilities For Division Salaries and Allowances.

EXPT ACCOUNTANTS WANTED.

Postmasters Who Peddle Stamps to be Punished—Officers to be Leased for Ten Years Instead of Five.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The report of First Assistant Postmaster General Heath for the fiscal year ending June 30, was made public today. Special attention is directed to the necessity of additional facilities for division salaries and allowances, but the chief recommendation is that provision be made for a small corps of special agents, about ten expert accountants who are familiar with real estate values to enquire into postmasters' requisitions and demands, and to reach a just ascertainment of the merit of such purely business matters as cannot be obtained by correspondence.

The report further recommends that authority be given to secure leases of postoffice stations for a period of ten years, instead of five.

It was also recommended that more severe penalties be fixed for the punishment of postmasters who peddle stamps with a view of increasing their own salaries.

TERRIFIC BOILER EXPLOSION.

Four Persons Killed Outright and Many Wounded.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 22.—Four men were killed by a boiler explosion in the Detroit cabinet works this morning.

The known killed are Mose Peltier, engineer; died on the way to the hospital.

Frank Peltier, assistant engineer. Two men were killed who are unidentified.

A large force of firemen, police and employes of the cabinet works are searching in the ruins for victims of whom it is believed many are in the debris.

Five injured have been taken to the hospital.

The cause of the explosion is unknown. The front and rear ends of the four story brick building were blown entirely out and the brick walls are in ruins. The whole northwestern part of the city was shaken by the explosion and many windows were broken. The floors of the building were not seriously injured.

THE ALASKAN DEATH DANCE.

The Fulfillment of Prophecies Begins in the Land of Snow.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—A letter from the Alaskan gold field says:

There have been six suicides, three hangings and eleven killings, besides a number of deaths from exposure. It costs a dollar to get a letter through to Skaguay. Flour, at Bennett Lake, costs sixty dollars a sack; bacon a dollar a pound; beans a dollar a pound; horse shoe nails fifty cts. each; a pair of shoes bring any price asked and overalls go quickly at five dollars per pair.

AFTER FIGHTING TOM COOPER.

He Sets Fire to a House and Wounds Four Men.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Pittsburg, Oct. 22.—A posse has been organized to surround and capture "Fighting Tom Cooper, of the army of the Potomac."

He is now charged with setting a house on fire this morning and wounding four men who were trying to extinguish the flames. The neighbors are incensed at his conduct and threats are made against his life.

The Lick Observatory Sends a Party to India.

Starving to Death in Havana.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Havana, Oct. 22.—About 140 people died in Havana last week of starvation; at Mataugas about 350 have died of hunger.

YERKES TELESCOPE IN USE.

A Third Companion Star to Vega Found.

Williams Bay, Wis., Oct. 20.—The great Yerkes telescope, although focused only yesterday, has already given promise of the important astronomical work which is confidently expected from it. Prof. Barnard today announced that he had already discovered a third companion to Vega. He found it solely because the Yerkes telescope is more searching than any other in the world. Prof. Barnard is too modest to give his new star a name, and he declares he would not have told anybody about it had it not been a big thing when the powers of the telescope are taken into consideration.

More Men Needed for the Navy.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Secretary Long, it is said, will urge Congress in his annual report to increase the personnel of the navy by more than 100 officers, 1,500 enlisted men and 500 apprentices. The law limits the number of captains on the active list to forty-five. Captain Croninshield believes this limit too low. The rapid growth of the new navy has resulted in placing more ships in service and more captains are consequently needed. Captain Croninshield has urged that 15 captains be added to the list of officers of that grade.

Not One American Steamer.

During eight months of the present year 648 ocean steamships visited Buenos Ayres, the capital of Argentina. Of these not one carried the stars and stripes. Three hundred and eighty-seven were British, 108 German and 66 French. It is strange that our people do not compete for the carrying trade of the world, but are content to pay one or two hundred million dollars a year to foreign countries for carrying our produce across the ocean.

Luetgert Asked for Bail.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Final application for bail for Luetgert was made today by his attorneys.
