THE CONTEST IS CLOSE.

The Official Returns Are Coming in Very Slowly.

PROTESTS IN CLOSE COUNTIES.

Proposed Now To Prevent if Possible The Issuing of Certificates To Certain Candidates.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 5.—The contest for the control of the Ohio Legislature is likely to be carried into the courts for settlement.

The official returns of about one-fourth of eighty-eight counties have been received by the Secretary of State. No returns of close counties. Protests have been made, and it is proposed now to prevent the issue of certificates of election to certain legislative candidates if the courts so order.

THE IMPERIAL NAWARB.

The Grand Padishaw and all the Little Jou-Jous.

The Dramatic Order of the Knights of Khorassan came in from Charlotte in a special car attached to the noon train today.

There were twenty-five members of the order aboard. They were on their way to Winston to initiate an almost equally large number into the secretaries of the order there. After the new members have gone through the dark oracles of initiation, a grand banquet will be served at the Phoenix.

The Knights of Khorassan occupy the same relation to the Knights of Pythias as the Mystic Shrine does to Masonry. D. F. Summey is the Imperial Mawarb of the Charlotte order. The other members passing through this morning who occupy high positions in the mystic kingdom are E. L. Martin; J. B. Hartly, Walter Scott, J. R. Van Ness; Earle Causland; C. A. Blair; James Northey; Thos. Griffith and S. F. King.

Mr. R. I. Katz had a truck of decorated canes awaiting the arrival of the Knights at the depot today. These beautiful ribbons of many colors will no doubt be dyed crimson before they are through with the Winston boys.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A new house is going up on West Bragg street.

New dwellings are being built on West Lee street.

Judge Bynum left on the noon train for the Twin-City.

John Finlator and his sister, Miss Ethel, are in Winston today.

W. J. Holt, the well known manufacturer of Burlington is in the city.

Fishplate - Katz - Rankin Co. and Workman Bros. are having their windows ornamented with sign painting.

W. H. Watkins, of Ramseur, secretary and treasurer of the Columbia Manufacturing Company, was in the city today.

Dr. J. L. Spainhour, of Lenoir, one of the directors of the Normal and Industrial College, is in the city in the interest of this institution.

It is not often that you can get candy the same day it is made which is guaranteed by a reliable man to be absolutely pure. Read what Andrews says about taffy today.

We are glad to see the improvement of the street at the courthouse square. Constant traffic had caused depressions which filled with water at every rain. The stones are being raised, thus avoiding this trouble.

Col. and Mrs. A. H. Leftwich, so pleasantly remembered here, are arranging to make Greensboro their home soon again. They will occupy their old home on Church street. For the present Mrs. Leftwich is at Mrs. Dick's on Church. Col. Leftwich is expected tomorrow.

Croker Has a Cold.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 5.—Richard Croker has contracted a severe cold which has settled on his lungs and he is threatened with pneumonia. He is confined to his room at Murray Hill Hotel. His health has not been the best for some time.

To Join The Procession.

Mr. W. E. Lewis went down to Winston this morning, partly on business and partly to see the fair. He carried his wheel which was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue, and will join the bicycle parade this afternoon.

A REAL ROMANCE.

Chatham County and New York Making Love.

In this mornings News and Observer we find a pretty little romance about a wealthy Chatham county farmer and his novel courtship with a pretty New Yorker.

The farmer is James Gilliam, a handsome fellow about 45, who owns and operates a model farm near Pittsboro. Some months ago he advertised as follows:

"GENTLEMAN, forty, of good family character, reputation, appearance, fond of home and its moral influence, man of means, desires to correspond with a lady about 25, medium size, good looking, refined and honorable; view; matrimony."

In reply to this several answers came—some well-written, some scarcely legible; some couched in well-turned phrases, some ungrammatical, and badly spelled. Of them all, that written by Miss Downs, of New York, most satisfied Jim Gilliam's ideal, and pleased his fancy. He answered the letter at once. Then another came and another, and another; and finally there was one with a photograph in it.

Thus matters progressed until yesterday Miss Downs arrived at Moncure and was met by Mr. Gilliam and together they drove out to the farm to look things over. The prospective groom had paid Miss Downs' expenses from New York and in the event they don't like each other he is to pay her expenses back home.

Now there were reasons—nice, conventional reasons—why Mr. Gilliam should go slowly in this matter of joining their destinies for life. Younger heads and warmer hearts would have acted differently, of course. They would have said: "I love you, and you love me—how can anything else matter?"

And there would have been a marriage on the spot. But in this case the man is 45 and the woman 25. The man has two married children and four others at home, their future must be consulted. The woman had been reared in a city and perhaps she might not like the country and the farm life. Then, again, they had both fallen in love with pictures, shadows, and they might not like the substance so well.

"Better settle these things before hand," wrote the woman two weeks ago. "Better see one another now, go over the whole situation and then decide. After that there can be no heart-burnings, no recrimination, no charges of having been deceived."

As, in case of marriage, they must live in North Carolina, on Mr. Gilliam's farm, he suggested that Miss Downs come down, look it and its owner over, and then decide whether or not she would take them for better or worse, for life or death.

A telegram from Moncure yesterday afternoon said it was learned from Pittsboro that the matter would be settled last night, and the marriage would take place then or never.

Mr. Gilliam is quite a good-looking man, tall and muscular, with just a little gray in his hair. Though a farmer, he dresses well, and is a man of considerable education. Miss Downs is quite good-looking, weighs 120 pounds, and speaks with a charming Yankee accent.

"The Burglar."

Gus Thomas' clever play, "The Burglar," which held the boards at the Madison Square Theatre, New York, and made a most emphatic hit, has been secured. The play is one of absorbing interest, and the opening scene is laid in the home of opulence, showing the daily intercourse between the united members of a refined family and only marred by the young husband's too frequent absence. Into this peaceful existence a thunder-clap falls, in the shape of the discovery that the husband's mysterious disappearance has developed into the knowledge by some of the household members of a dual life on his part. He is at one and the same time a reputable member of society and a famous burglar. To avoid discovery and the shame coming to his wife's knowledge, he is permitted to escape, and eventually comes the news of his death. The wife and mother, under this belief, marries again when it is discovered too late, the news was false, and that the burglar still lives and is intent upon a series of house-breaking crimes. At one of these times he unconsciously enters the home of his former wife. A series of dramatic episodes swaying the emotions in their various phases, culminate in his recognition and pathetic parting after manifold explanations. The play is excellently mounted and performed by a fine company under the management of A. Q. Scammon with Horace Mitchell as William Lewis, "The Burglar."

A HAND-TO-HAND STRUGGLE

Sitting Began at Seven-Thirty Last Night.

FIERCE DISORDER PREVAILED.

The Cloture Scheme Finally Passed Amid Deafening Cheers and Pandemonium Reigned.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Vienna, Nov. 5.—Sitting Reichsrath which began at 7:30 last evening continued until the middle of this morning. Fierce disorder prevailed throughout the night.

Cloture repeats which were made with the object of putting the debate to an end on the Austria-Hungarian compromise evoked a fresh tumult, led as before by banging the lid of his desk. He kept up the din for some time when several deputies tried to wrench the lid from him. A hand-to-hand struggle ensued.

The Cloture scheme finally passed amid deafening cheers and uproar. The deputies banged desks and shouted at the top of their voices. The sitting closed at ten o'clock this morning when the compromise was referred to the Budget committee.

The sitting was a veritable pandemonium from beginning to end. The example of Reichsrath was followed by the German naturalists at the meeting held by them after adjournment. Chamber deputy Burks moved interpellation, asking whether the government was prepared to assist other countries in their efforts to counteract the depreciation in silver.

SOUTHWARK ON FIRE.

Carrying a General Cargo and about Fifty Passengers.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 5.—The International Navigation Company's steamship Southwark, which left her dock at the foot of Fulton street, North River, Wednesday afternoon bound for Antwerp, with a general cargo and fifty passengers, was sighted on fire at two o'clock this morning.

She displayed the signal of fire among her cargo. Unless the fire gains a rapid and unexpected headway she will reach port safely.

Deaths Roll Today.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Orleans, Nov. 5.—The community is shocked over the announcement of seven deaths from yellow fever this morning. Five of these have been expected, the physicians having given them up. Only two cases are reported and business is booming. Orders are pouring in on the merchants, owing to raising the quarantine as all places since frosts occurred. By next week it is expected there will be no more new cases.

Four Hundred Million Dollars.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 5.—Shares in American railroad to the value of fifty-seven million dollars have been sent back to this country from Europe during the last six months, in an effort to provide for the enormous adverse balance of merchandise trade, which will reach the record figures this calendar year of four hundred million dollars in favor of the United States.

When Jack Meets Jack.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 5.—The Board of health announces that all danger of yellow fever is at an end. As a result of the recent frosts in this vicinity no new cases have been contracted. All quarantine restrictions, except in a few of the Gulf Coast cities, have been lifted.

One Among Many.

A special train of six cars pulled out from the depot this morning about a half hour ahead of the regular train to carry the three hundred Normal girls to Winston to see the sights. It must have been a jolly crowd. It was reported on good authority that H. E. C. Bryant, of the Charlotte Observer was on the train, being the only man aboard. Good bye, Red Buck.

Detachment No. 2.

The noon train today carried quite a number of Greensboro people to help swell the visiting crowds in the Twin-City. Among them were Miss Lula Brown, Dr. J. T. Johnson, D. Schenck, Jr., and wife, G. S. Bradshaw and many others.

There are two new houses being built out on the street between East Market and the A. & M. College.

TRAIN ROBBERS' BOLD WORK.

Hold Up Passengers on Buffalo Express in City Limits.

Litchfield, Ill., Nov. 3.—Last night as the Buffalo, New York and Boston limited on the Wabash, due here at 9:48 o'clock, pulled out, two men without masks boarded the chair car and at the point of cocked revolvers demanded the passengers to give up their valuables. After going through the chair car, which was done at a lively rate, the robbers pulled the bell cord and the train stopped and the robbers got off, running east on 3d street and disappearing as the train moved on. The robbers got between $70 and $80 and a gold watch.

A YARN FROM PANAMA.

It Records the Purchase by England of the Panama Canal.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 4.—The officers of the flagship Imperieuse, which arrived today, have brought a story from southern Pacific waters that the British Government has purchased the Panama Canal, and a vessel of the fleet will soon arrive there to take possession.

GENERAL CLINGMAN'S FUNERAL.

His Body Escorted to the Cemetery By Confederate Veterans.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Concord, N. C., Nov. 5.—General Thomas L. Clingman was buried from the Episcopal church here today at 10 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rector Davis.

The remains of the distinguished North Carolinian were escorted to the cemetery by a body of confederate veterans. A large number of people attended the funeral and burial.

Weyler Was On Board.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Nov. 5.—A dispatch from Havana says that the steamship Montserrat has returned to Cuba in consequence of a mishap to her engines. General Weyler was aboard, having embarked for Spain.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?
