DURHAM MARRIAGES.

Four Happy Events in That City on Wednesday.

The marriage fever seems to have struck Durham in full force.

Yesterday's Herald gives four events which occurred Wednesday, as follows: Mrs. Dora Heartt to Mr. Wm. M. Jones, at 2 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church, by Dr. L. B. Turnbull, pastor. The happy couple left for their future home in South Carolina.

Claude L. Johnson and Miss Mattie Carlton, at the First Baptist church, by Rev. W. C. Tyree, pastor. The bridal party left for Raleigh and vicinity to spend their honeymoon.

M. C. Riggsbee and Miss Annie Monk, at 2:30 o'clock, at the residence of J. J. Ragen's, near Main Street church, by Dr. Caviness, pastor of Carr church.

Robert L. Penny, of Wake county, to Miss Tilley, at 3:30 o'clock, by Dr. Caviness.

Did Not Know His Own.

A certain gentleman dined at the Benbow yesterday and took much ice cream. He came out and put on an overcoat and went down to the McAdoo to see some friends. While there he discovered that he did not have his own coat and made a break for the Cape Fear depot to find the man who was trying to get off with it. Meanwhile another diner at the Benbow missed his coat and the clerk found one with the ice cream eaters name on it and a servant was dispatched to find him. He found him but he insisted that Manager Perkins at the McAdoo had let somebody carry off his coat. After much patient work he was convinced that he had not left his coat at the McAdoo and induced to accept his own. But he has never been convinced as to where he dined.

EMBEZZLER TWENTY YEARS.

Cashier Foster Found to Have Robbed the Bank of $20,000.

Augusta, Me., Nov. 24.—The books of Cashier of the Lubec Savings Bank are in the hands of State Bank Examiner Timberlake. They show defalcations that may have begun as far back as 1876.

Foster kept two sets of books. In one set which was never shown to the examiners, was entered about $14,000 that did not appear on the books of the bank. The total amount stolen by Foster is probably not far from $20,000 and this money he used to support his family.

Foster is more than 70 years of age, and broken in health and probably cannot live long.

An Offer.

A Greensboro gentleman, who is dissatisfied with the result of yesterday's game in Charlotte, makes the following offer: He will put up $150, Charlotte to do the same and the game to be played on any grounds other than Charlotte's, the winning team to take the $300 and all the gate receipts, the contesting teams to be the same as on yesterday.

The Secretary of State decides, as acting insurance commissioner, that a Washington, D. C., firm cannot write an insurance policy on the life of a man in North Carolina; that it is unlawful to solicit such "overhead" insurance. Yet if agents living outside of the State thus violate the law there appears to be no way of getting at them.

YESTERDAY'S BALL GAMES

Greensboro and Charlotte Play the Game to a Standstill.

AND THE SCORE WAS 0 TO 0.

Some Squabbling Before the Game, But It Was a Great Game and the "Best of Feeling Prevailed."

There was a good deal of squabbling yesterday before the Greensboro-Charlotte game, and there came near being no game at all, but fortunately for the manly sport and for the good name of both teams matters were finally adjusted and those of the spectators who remained were treated to such an exhibition of football as is seldom seen on the gridiron. It was clean, gentlemanly and manly sport. No rough playing, no slugging and little fouling. The score is sufficient evidence that the teams were evenly matched. Nevertheless as seen from the side lines Greensboro had slightly the better of the game. The team work of the eleven was better and the playing more steady while Charlotte had somewhat the advantage on spurts. Greensboro outstruck and outkicked Charlotte while Charlotte had slightly the better of it on runs. It is possible that if 30 minutes halves had been played Greensboro would have won, by her superior team work, though it is by no means certain and it is, therefore, best to let the score as it stands speak for itself. Charlotte was on the defensive for the greater part of the game and the ball was out of her territory but once. The ball was never near to either goal.

With reference to the misunderstanding before the game it was all over one player. Charlotte wished to play Spence, who has been playing with Davidson College. Charlotte claimed he was eligible, and that was all of it, Charlotte finally agreed to play without Spence.

The Charlotte Observer gives the following impartial account of the misunderstanding:

Mr. Michaux firmly refused to allow his team to play, upon the ground that Spence was not a member of the home team and was not eligible to take part in the game. Later, Mr. Guion called on Mr. Michaux, and stated that Charlotte would agree to play without Spence provided the game would not be for the championship of the State. To this Mr. Michaux assented, and upon this understanding ordered his men to dress, after which they went to the ground. When the game was about to be called, Spence appeared in the field, and thereupon Greensboro refused to play."

Charlotte then agreed to take Spence from the team, and the line-up of the teams was as follows:

THE LINE-UP.

CHARLOTTE (0) GREENSBORO (0)
Landis.....right end.....Gilmer
Mahan.....right tackle.....Boycott
Pope.....right guard.....Wright
Leisel.....centre.....Jordan
Guion.....left guard.....Daniels
King (Capt.).....quarter back.....Douglas
Stephens.....left half.....Wharton
Harrison.....left half.....Devin
Alexander.....full back Caldwell (Cap)
Referee—Mr. Taylor, of Greensboro.
Umpire—Mr. Dodsforth, of Charlotte.
Timekeepers—Mr. Fitzsimmons, of Greensboro, and Mr. Durham, of Gastonia. Time—Two 15 minute halves. Score—Greensboro, 0; Charlotte, 0.

Caldwell and Devin showed ground gaining qualities, Douglas played a steady quarter, Gilmer was quick at end and Wright did excellent tackling, while the way Jordan went through Leisel and blocked a kick was the star play of the game.

The N. C.--Va. Game.

The University boys breakfasted at the Benbow this morning on their way home from Richmond where they gave battle and noble battle too to her gridiron champions yesterday. Virginia expected an easy victory and a big score with a blank to the credit of Carolina but in the big score they were disappointed just as they were surprised at the great game put up by the Tar-Heels. The report to the News & Observer says:

The gladiators of the University of Virginia have fought another hard battle with their adversaries of the University of North Carolina, and one more victory perches over the Orange and Blue banner. The score was 12 to 0. It tells of a victory as fair as it was complete, and surprising only from the fact that it was not more disastrous to the Tar-Heels. It was a foregone conclusion that Virginia would win and odds were freely laid that the score would reach at least thirty points in her favor. Except in kicking Virginia men outplayed the North Carolinians in every department, but the defensive work of the latter was superb and though the Virginians played an aggressive game from start to finish and kept the ball well within their opponents' lines, their repeated efforts to score were defeated by brilliant mass plays.

The North Carolina team has improved very much of late, and that uncertainty which makes the sport attractive, was demonstrated when the young athletes of the White and Blue, lighter in weight by twenty pounds and lacking confidence, met their opponents at every point and gave them the battle of their lives. The game was remarkable for the number of kicks made. The ball changed hands frequently, but neither side kept it for any length of time. For Virginia, Carney was the bright particular star, while for North Carolina Beldon did yeoman service. Virginia scored the first touch down and kicked an easy goal early in the first half, and the second just half a minute before time was called in the second half. There were many fumbles, but few off side plays. Heretofore the rivalry between the Universities has been so keen that much animus has been displayed in the games, but one of the pleasantest features of the struggle today was the fact that there was not a harsh word passed, and there was no slugging.

HER SIGHT RESTORED IN CHURCH

Mrs. Brazil Believes That Her Blindness Was Removed by Prayer.
Kankakee, Ill., 23.—During the forty hours' devotion at the Chebanee Catholic Church recently Mrs. Michael Brazil recovered her sight after two years of blindness.

Mrs. Brazil had previously consulted specialists at Kankakee and Chicago, and had been told that nothing but an operation would restore her vision. To this she would not consent. She prayed incessantly that her sight might return, and had faith that her petitions would be answered. She attended the devotional exercises and groped her way to the altar, where she asked the priest, the Rev. Father O'Mara of Chicago, to intercede for her. Almost instantly she announced that she saw as well as before she was afflicted.

PINGREE'S ASPHALT LAKE.

Venezuela Said to Have Sold Him a Twenty-Million Dollar Concession.

Detroit, Nov. 24.—One of the closest friends of Gov. Pingree in this city said today that before long the Governor and his associates would be the owners of the most valuable asphalt lake on the eastern coast of Venezuela.

The arrangements for the purchase of this lake, which is on an island, were made during the recent visit of the Governor, and the estimated value of the island is $20,000,000. A company is to be capitalized under the Michigan laws at $750,000 and articles of incorporation will be drawn up within the next three weeks. The contracts are expected by the next steamer.

H. K. Reid Dead.

H. K. Reid, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Reidsville and one of the family from which the town was named, died yesterday about half past eleven o'clock. He was a leader in business and religious circles in his town. He was a member of the Baptist church. Dave Settle, a brother of ex-Congressman Thomas Settle, is an adopted son of Mr. Reid and will probably fall heir to a large share of Mr. Reid's very considerable property.

Fell 105 Feet.

Reidsville, Nov. 26.—While painting the 125 foot smoke-stack at the Edna cotton mills yesterday, Ellery Cole, a Greensboro painter, 23 years old, lost his hold and fell 105 feet. He sustained what are thought to be only slight injuries, chest bruised and three ribs broken. At 3:30 this afternoon he was resting easy and his physician thinks he will get well.

THE BRILLIANT BAL POUFRE

An Unusually Large Number of Dancers and Onlookers.

AND EVERYBODY WAS DELIGHTED

There Was Good Music, Beauty and Lovely Costumes and They Danced on Till Morning.

The Bal Poudre, given under the direction of the Crocail club on Wednesday evening, was the most brilliant event in the way of a ball that has gladdened the hearts of the dancers here for many a day. From 9:30 to 4 o'clock in the morning all went as merrily as the sweet strains of Greensboro's youthful but excellent orchestra. Never was the beauty of Greensboro out in greater force nor the capacity of her young men for entertaining beautifully and well more in evidence. The hall was crowded with spectators and the floor a whirl with "the dancers dancing in tune." And what is more striking than a ball room floor filled with handsome ladies and courtly gentlemen well costumed? One might almost fancy that the days of the Louis had come back again—the dear, stately romantic old "days that are no more." Some of the costumes of both the ladies and gentlemen were very beautiful. The powdered wigs and knee buckles, the laces and frills and gowns of centuries ago make modern costumes look very unpoetic.

J. Simpson Schenck, the graceful and veteran leader, lead with Miss Walker Fry who was beautifully costumed in white silk and wore pink roses. The other couples were Miss Virginia Bernard, organdie over yellow silk, chrysanthemums, with John Cator; Miss Stewart in blue cloth and black satin, with M. B. Shrier; Miss Mabel Kase, pink crepe de chine and diamonds, with Richard DeButts; Miss Lillian Staples, white corded silk wateau, point lace and pearls, with Mr. Leftwich; Miss Madeline Douglas, white organdie over blue silk, with W. G. Mebane; Miss Margaret DeButts, blue tansie, with Will McAdoo; Miss Beulah Barker, of Salisbury, white silk, green velvet and diamonds, with Stamp Howard; Miss Julia Settle, apple green silk, black lace, with Mr. Miller, of Chapel Hill; Miss Nettie Sloan, white organdie, with J. Wesley White; Miss Mary Lou Brodrick, white organdie over red satin, with T. Horry; Miss Pearl Balsey white organdie, tulle and forgetmenots, with Junius Scales; Miss Westcott, of Hoboken, N. Y., white silk, with Appleton Staples; Miss Lucy McAden, of McAdenville, white organdie and diamonds, with James Williamson, of Graham; Miss Annie Leftwich, cream satin and diamonds, with Charles Hagan; Miss Cora Holt, of Graham, pink taffeta and pearls, with B. S. Mebane; Miss Allie Joyner, of Baltimore, pink chiffon over pink silk, diamonds, with Hal Mebane; Miss Sarah DeButts, yellow organdie, with Mr. McMackin; Miss Gray Morehead, black cloth, with Robt. Mebane; Mrs. James Williamson, point lace and diamonds, with Mr. Williamson; Miss Rebecca Schenck, yellow satin, with H. C. Berger.

Going the Right Way.

The South will have her innings some time is being shown in a number of small ways of late years. Formerly cars going north were loaded with raw cotton chiefly, but of late years there is a greater and greater variety. This morning two car loads of Georgia marble passed through on the Southern. And the cars were marked to Norcross Brothers, State house, Providence, Rhode Island. And the marble of Massachusetts and New Hampshire so close at hand! "Ther'll come a time some day."

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $28,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?
