NEW ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Governor of Jersey to be Appointed.

HE STOLE ONE HUNDRED HORSES

Executed for the Murder of His Wife —The Horse Show in Chicago Did Not Pay.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The President has offered the position of Attorney General to Gov. John W. Griggs, of New Jersey, who announced today that he will accept. He will be named soon after McKenna is nominated to the supreme bench. Vice President Hobart brought about the offer to Griggs.

HE STOLE MANY HORSES.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Fred Ruyrecht, Jr., arrested here on a charge of horse stealing, is known as the "flying horse thief." He has stolen more than a hundred horses in the past year.

MEDIAEVAL EXECUTION.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Wetherfield, Conn., Dec. 3.—Giuseppi Fienda, who killed his wife and placed her on the railroad track near East Norfolk, was hanged here early this morning. The execution was almost mediaeval. His accomplice Im-posino was sentenced to be hanged two weeks from today.

HORSE SHOW COSTLY.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—The official statements of the account of the horse show recently held here shows a deficit of $30,000. This is much larger than was generally supposed.

NOW'S YOUR CHANCE.

Telegram and Record Carriers are to Get a Pull.

The boys will all remember the late contest in which Masters Thomas S.
Beall and Charlie Brockmann each won a suit of clothes. That was exciting and was watched with much interest.

Now Messrs. Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud, who are hustlers themselves, offer the carrier boys of The Telegram and those of The Record a chance to hustle.

A Golf combination suit will be given to the carrier who takes them the largest number of correct names and the street address of boys of this city, between 6 and 16 years of age, who have bought suits this fall, or those who contemplate doing so. The names of the firms from whom suits were bought is also required.

Read their ad and then get a hustle on you.

THE PLAY LAST NIGHT.

A Small But Merry Party Saw The Performance.

Owing to the rain there was not a large crowd at the Academy of Music last night, but those who were there enjoyed some rich comedy. "Cheek" was on the boards, and each part was entered into in earnest and played with snap.

The audience was highly entertained; not an objectionable feature was allowed to creep into the play. There were no smutty jokes or coarse specialties thrown into it to fill up. The plot was played straight through from start to finish. Tonight "The Sea Waif" will be put on.

This company is giving a grade of performances considerably above the average visiting this section: There has been only one performance given here this season which ranks with that given last night—R. E. Graham in "Who's Your Friend."

Mrs. Van Schaack's Vista of Lawsuits

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Jack Van Schaack threatens more law suits than ever, now that a decision has been rendered in Brooklyn annulling the $65, 000 judgment she obtained against her wealthy father-in-law for the alienation of her husband's affections. A close friend of the young woman said today that she and her attorney, F. M.
McCluskey, had agreed that it was best to have the Brooklyn judgment set aside, as there was ample ground for suits here.

Actions calling for damages aggregating $100,000 will be begun on grounds ranging from alienation of her husband's affections to libel.

Refreshing Minstrelsy.

Fields & Hanson's Minstrel Stars and Grand Concert Band will be the attraction at the Academy of Music next Wednesday. They will present a program of refreshing minstrelsy that is to say, their performance is new, and is devoted solely to special features and timely surprises, while the entertainment in its entirety is "swept by ocean breezes" of genuine "1897" wit. A brand new curtain raiser, the newest thing in minstrelsy, is called, "An Evening with the Eiks," and serves to introduce the entire organization in a series of song and story of recent issue. A recently added number, "The Golden Shower," is a positive novelty, and is described as a romance of the Kandyke, terminating with "The Dance of Dawson City's 400."

THEY HAVE RETURNED.

And There are Not so Many Cotton Tails Now in Chatham.

The Brooks hunting party have all returned from Chatham county, the home and dwelling place of the festive rabbit and quail. According to the figures given to us they killed 144 rabbits, 160 birds, 13 'possums and 1 coon.

No trouble to kill 'em in Chatham; that is their home and they are like the Chatham county populists—they refuse to leave, come to stay you know, and all you have to do is to walk up on 'em—the rabbits—in their homes and shoot 'em.

There is, however, one trouble about it and that is where to find them. Now this is rather funny, but in this they are not unlike the populists, for, it takes a good hunter to find them when he's looking for them.

However, in the case of the rabbits, Andrew Brooks knows where they stay, and if you can go along with him you may be sure of your game, and there is no limit to the number.

An Estimate of the Conference.

A Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer estimates the conference in session there as follows:

It is conceded by many who are capable of judging that the North Carolina Conference is a body of men of unusually fine personnel. This is undoubtedly true, for it is seldom that one sees in a body of 300 men as many men of strikingly handsome faces and impressive bearing. Another striking feature of this Conference is the parliamentary ability of the body. The leading men are in every sense true lawyers of the Church. Their argumentative power is above the average and no business which requires any discussion whatever is passed over in a light manner. Every question before the Conference is considered thoughtfully and thoroughly. As in all bodies of this kind, both religious and political, there are certain men who are recognized as the leading speakers. In argument and discussion in this Conference, Revs. E. A. Yates, B. R. Hall, F. D. Swindell, R. B.
John, J. N. Cole and J. C. Kilgo are looked upon as the leaders.

A VIGILANCE COMMITTEE

Attempts To Take Charge of Affairs in Prague.

MORE TROOPS SENT TO CHINA.

President's Mother No Better This Morning—Thorn Will Be Sentenced Unless a Stay is Granted.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Prague, Dec. 3.—The city authorities of the Bohemia National Associations, the Student's Associations and the Workingmen's societies met today and appointed a vigilance committee after which the committee informed the Stadthalder that its object was to secure order and safety for life and property.
It also requested the Stadthalder to withdraw the troops but this he refused to do declaring that he was responsible for the maintenance of order.

MORE TROOPS FOR CHINA.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Berlin, Dec. 3.—The naval department sent instructions to Kiel today to dispatch two more artillerymen with field pieces and fifteen hundred marines to China.

MRS. MCKINLEY NO BETTER.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Canton, Dec. 3.—There is but a slight change in the condition of the President's mother today. Dr. Phillips called early this morning and found the patient breathing heavily but otherwise no worse than on yesterday.

The President is due to arrive here at 10:20 a. m. All the other members of the family who are not already here are on the way. The patient still has possession of her mental faculties and the doctor is constantly present.

THORN TO BE SENTENCED.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Long Island City, Dec. 3.—Sheriff Doht says that Thorn will be sentenced to die in the electric chair, unless he receives a stay, during the week ending January the 24th.

night. Ten cents each way. Hacks

A PROSPERITY EXHIBIT.

Cargo of Cancelled Mortgages to The Omaha Exposition.

Topeka Kan., Dec 2.—A plan to send a carload of cancelled Kansas mortgages to the Trans-Mississippi Exposition in Omaha next year as an evidence of prosperity in this State was perfected here today.

Charles Harris, a republican member of the Legislature, is the father of the idea. He presented it at a conference of representative republicans, and urged that it would be a good practical refutation of the "calamity talk" frequently indulged in by the populists.

An address will be issued to the people of Kansas urging them so to arrange their affairs as to pay off their mortgages before January the 1, thus enabling the promoters of the project to show to the world that Kansas is almost free from debt, and that it is all the work of one year of prosperity.

Disastrous Railroad Wreck.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 1.—A disastrous wreck occurred on the lake division of the Pittsburg and Western today. While running at full speed a south-bound train jumped the track at Chamblin's cut, and before it could be stopped, had crashed through the Clarindon bridge into the street below.
The locomotive and eleven cars were demolished. A cargo of export grain was spilled all over the street. Both engineer and fireman jumped.

Knights Templar, Attention.

As the Right Eminent Grand Commander of Knights Templar of North Carolina, Sir Knight, J. H. Hackburn, will pay an official visit to Ivanhoe Commandery, No. 8, on Wednesday, December 8th, at 7:30 o'clock, p. m., the regular convolve for December will be postponed until that time.

All Sir Knights will take due notice of the above, and govern themselves accordingly. JAS. D. GLENN, Business Commander.

BANK BREAKS AT MORGANTON.

It Was Examined in October and Was in Good Shape.

Raleigh correspondence Charlotte Observer says:

State Treasurer Worth was quite surprised today to receive a telegram announcing the suspension of the Piedmont Bank at Morganton. The last report to the Treasurer is dated October 15, and showed capital $20,000 surplus $10,000. Liabilities $100,000.
The bank inspector says he inspected this bank late in October; that there was not much cash then on hand but that the employees at the State institutions had just been paid off; that there was plenty of good collateral, bills receivable, etc., and that the bank was in good shape.

The first telegram to the Treasurer was from E. S. Walton, Deputy Treasurer, at Morganton: "Bank suspended. Take no action until you hear from me." Yesterday the State Treasurer sent Walton $15,000 to pay off the State institutions there. Walton telegraphs that he did not receive the money until today. Treasurer Worth says the State has only $439 in the bank. Walton telegraphed this afternoon: "Depositors agree upon a receiver. Attorney will go before Judge Greene. We are amply secured Will not lose a cent. Don't be uneasy." Treasurer Worth sent State Bank Examiner Stephen L. Crowder to take charge of the bank until a receiver is appointed.

cert Company at the Normal College this evening.

CANDY FACTORY BLOWS UP.

Badly Scalding and Blinding the Employees.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 3.—A terrific explosion occurred in the candy manufactory of D. Aurbach, at 336 West 39th street, shortly before noon. Twenty-four men were scalded or otherwise injured. Six candy makers were blinded by the boiling syrup and five of them will never see again.

A hundred men were engaged in making Christmas candy and had a narrow escape.

SKINNER URGING BERNARD.

His Reasons for Pressing Him for Attorney for the Eastern District.

Special to the Charlotte Observer.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Representative Skinner saw the President today in the interest of C. M. Bernard and urged his appointment as United States attorney for the eastern district on the ground that the first district secured a delegation from North Carolina to the St. Louis convention and later the bolting Populists in the Legislature from that district secured Senator Pritchard's re-election to the Senate. The President assured Mr.
Skinner that no appointment would be made in his congressional district without consideration of his wishes in the matter.

Senator Pritchard will not reach here until Sunday.

LAKE STEAMER BURNED.

The Egyptian Goes up in Flames on Lake Huron.

Harrisville, Mich. Dec. 2.—The steamer Egyptian, bound from Cleveland to Milwaukee with a cargo of coal, burned to the water's edge in Lake Huron last night off Sturgeon Point.

The fire was discovered by the Sturgeon Point life saving crew about 8 o'clock, who started at once to the rescue, arriving at the burning boat at 11 o'clock.

On the way to the steamer the life saving crew passed a barge which had taken the Egyptian's crew off, but the life savers continued on their way with the hope of being able to save the burning bulk.

There were twelve vessels around the Egyptian during the early part of the fire, but by the time the life saving crew had reached her they were all gone.

Without help of any kind at hand, the life savers were compelled to leave the Egyptian without doing anything for or near zero. None of the life savers suffered permanent injury from the cold.

The Ladies' Bazaar.

The Ladies' Bazaar promises to be a great success. It is in the hands of a live committee and preparations are being rushed. They will have all sorts and kinds of things to tempt the willing and the unwilling buyer.

THORN WAS VERY COOL.

Remarkable Nerve of Martin Thorn in Court.

HE DIES AFTER JANUARY TENTH.

Prisoners Capture the Jail-Condemned Murderer at Large—Erie Passenger Wrecked.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Long Island City, Dec. 3.—Thorn before Justice Maddox without the tremor of a muscle listened to his sentence to die during the week beginning January the tenth. It was one of the most remarkable exhibitions of nerve by a condemned murderer ever seen.

The court room was packed and several of the jurors were present. Attorney Howe put no obstacle in the way of the proceedings. After they were over he presented an affidavit that Thorn's funds were exhausted and asked that the court appropriate money for an appeal. Thorn will be taken to Sing Sing late this afternoon or tomorrow.

CAPTURE THE JAIL.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Altoona, Pa. Dec. 3.—Eleven prisoners in McKean county jail this morning overpowered the guards and took possession of the jail. They are now at bay behind barricaded doors.

MORGAN ESCAPES.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Richley, W. Va. Dec. 3.—John S.
Morgan who murdered a family and was sentenced to be hanged on December 16th, escaped from jail last night and is being pursued by a posse.

TRAIN WRECKED.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Lina, O. Dec. 3.—A passenger train on the Chicago and Erie railroad was wrecked seven miles east of here last night. It is reported that the engine blew up and three persons were killed.

MCKINLEY IN CANTON.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Canton, O. Dec. 3.—The President arrived at 8:45 this morning. His mother recognized him but she was unable to speak.

HARD WORK TO HANG DURRANT.

Another Murderer Secures a New Lease of Life.

San Francisco, Dec. 2.—It is well nigh impossible in California now to hang murderer Durrant even if he has been convicted and sentenced. Durrant's repeated reprieves have gained national notoriety because of the enormity of his crimes. Now another mur-derer takes advantage of the same plea used by Durrant.

Joseph J. Ebanks, a murderer, of San Diego county, is now awaiting execution at San Quentin, but will not be hanged on next Friday because Judge Torrance of San Diego county acted too hastily in sentencing him to death, pending an appeal to the United States Supreme Court. Judge De Haven of the United States District Court granted today a writ of habeas corpus for Ebanks returnable tomorrow.
Ebanks' attorneys contended that Judge Torrance violated the United States laws in sentencing Ebanks to death when an appeal is still pending before the United States Supreme Court. His attorneys even declare he must be released.

WILL INVEST IN THE SOUTH.

Mr. Milliken, in Behalf of the Northern Visitors, Speaks of the South.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Dec. 2.—The distinguished party of New York bankers, merchants and manufacturers, who have been making a tour of the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee, were in the city today.

Mr. S. M. Milliken & Co., of New York, speaking of the results of their investigations, said:

"We have found the South a very inviting field for investment in the matter of cotton manufacture. You have the cotton at your doors and your labor is not so well employed as in the East. Besides this, your labor is the true article and therefore more-contented, more tractable and willing to work for reasonable pay."

Mr. Milliken intimated that the result of their visit would be the expansion of considerable money in cotton mills in the states visited.

Assuming a Thanksgiving dinner,

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state.
What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?
