A JOURNALISTIC JOB.

Our good-natured, jovial, hearty, wholesome, toothsome contemporary, the Winston Republican, without which our Thursday nights would be even as a desert in an oasis, shows signs of losing that sweet sanity, which has striped its hitherto career like into the fleece of a Bengal tiger. All of this because the democratic press of the state has exposed certain features of the present order of things political and has respectfully declined to assist in whitening a malodorous and unseemly sepulchre.

The Republican chronicles the arrival of its "winter of discontent" thus:

"The Republican has, for months, patiently listened to the carpings, fault-finding and howling of the democratic press about the doings of the fusion legislature, about the lease of the North Carolina railroad, about the ignorance and incompetence of the anti-democratic officials in the state, about the corruption and mismanagement of the penitentiary, the convict farms and finally about the shrubbery on the capitol square at Raleigh."

How can folks help talking (they need not howl) about the "doings of the late fusion legislature"? Are the "doings" not just lying around loose? Have they not been flaunted in the faces of quiet folks who only wanted to be let alone?

And then that lease! Have not the people of the state been treated to a most "bootiful" farce? Why, the company playing it have even appeared before a New York audience. Is that not a perfect sluice of glory for modest Tarheeldom? We pay for it of course, but who would dance without remunerating the piper?

But while all these things tended to puddle the limpid soul of the Republican it recalled that "virtue itself 'scapes not calumnious strokes" and corked its thunder. But when the "shrubbery on the capitol square" was dragged in by the roots it was too much. The Republican cried havoc. The brethren should have been more considerate. The subject of vegetation is sometimes a tender one. Besides the next democratic administration can plant a new lot of shrubs and before another fusion gang gets in they will be too big to pull up.

A conservatory of music has been established in the tenement district of New York to serve as a civilizer. We may now confidently expect an unprecedented increase in the number of homicides in the slums.

The fact that the democratic state committee orated until 1:30 a. m. shows it is composed of the same capable gentlemen who landed North Carolina in the republican column in the last campaign.

Richard Croker's recognition of Senator Murphy as leader of the state democracy of New York, it may be remarked, is not necessarily binding on either Senator Murphy or the democracy.

Some of our contemporaries are talking about Mr. Marion Butler resigning from the Senate of the United States. Mr. Butler resign? Not much! The only way he will go out of the Senate is on the toe of an outraged constituency at the end of the present term. Until then, brethren, possess your souls in patience. He may die or freeze to death in August; invent perpetual motion or cease for one brief moment to be a leather-lunged, golly-swashing "pass to noting" patriot, but he ain't no resigner. After all he had one his worst; there is some comfort in that.

We welcome to our desk the Morning Post, Raleigh's new daily, and bear testimony that we find much pleasure therein. It is neatly printed, newsworthy and well edited. It takes the New York Sun press service, has opinions of its own, apparently, and should make for decency and order in the state. May it emulate the bay tree.

The Crown Prince Constantine is going to print a book containing his experiences with the Turks in the late war. This, we presume, will be illustrated with pictures of how a Turk looks through a telescope from the rear end of a special train breaking the record toward Athens.

THE CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT.

Will be a First-Class Musical Treat for Our Citizens.

The next entertainment in the course at the Normal College is a concert by Frances Hughes Concert Company. This will be in every sense of the word a first-class entertainment. All the members of the company are musicians, not merely performers, and it will be worth the while of the music lovers, of which Greensboro has an unusually large number, to attend.

In order that all may see something of what is in store for them, the following program is given:

- Piano Solo—Polacca Brillante.....Bohm
- Miss Bessie Godfrey.
- Soprano Solo—May Morning.....Denza
- Miss Genevieve Lester.
- Cello Solo—Concert No. 2.....Golterman
- Miss Corry Appy.
- Baritone Solo—Toreador Love Song.....Couchois
- Mr. G. Rawson-Wade.
- Harp Solo—Fantasie.....Parish-Alvares
- Miss Frances Hughes.
- Quartette—"Harp of the Winds".....Wade-Abt
- Misses Lester, Hughes, Appy and Mr. Rawson-Wade.
- 'Cello Solo—"Gavotte".....Popper
- Miss Corry Appy.
- Soprano Solo—"Lady Mine".....Hawley
- Miss Lester.
- Duo, 'Cello and Harp—Berceuse.....Oberthur
- Misses Hughes and Appy.
- Ensemble—Terzetto, from "Attila".....Wade-Verdi
- Misses Lester, Hughes, Appy and Mr. Rawson-Wade.

UNSUCCESSFUL TRAIN HOLD-UP.

Passengers on Mexican National Train Stand Off the Robbers. St. Louis, Dec. 2.—A special to the Post Dispatch from San Antonio today says: Advice were received here this morning of an attempt to hold up and rob a passenger train on the Mexican National road near Monterey, Mexico, by nine masked and well-armed Mexicans. The passengers made resistance and the outlaws were unsuccessful. They are being pursued by soldiers, and if captured will be shot.

This is to Certify

that a few years since, while living in a malarial district, I suffered dreadfully with chills, which it seemed impossible to break. A friend urged me to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I did so, and by the use of a few bottles they were entirely broken broken, and I have not been troubled with them since. I also found it an excellent nerve.

REV. G. L. FINCH.
